In the name of Allah, The Most Gracious, The Most Merciful

Allah Almighty said: "Allah did confer a great favour on the Believers when he sent among them a Messenger from among themselves, rehearsing unto them the Signs of Allah, sanctifying them, and instructing them in Scripture and Wisdom, while, before that, they had been in manifest error." (Al Imran 164)

He also said: "It is He Who has sent amongst the Unlettered a messenger from among themselves, to rehearse to them His Signs, to sanctify them, and to instruct them in Scripture and Wisdom although they had been before in manifest error." (Friday "Al-Jumu'a" 2)

(7) The Book Of Friday

1-(844) Nafi narrated from Abdullah (Ibn Umar) "Allah be pleased with both": I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If anyone of you intended to attend (the prayer in the mosque on) Friday, he should take a bath (before coming)."

- 2-(...) Abdullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar narrated from Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said while being on the pulpit: "If anyone of you attended (the prayer in the mosque on) Friday, he should take a bath (before coming)."
- (...) Both of Salim and Abdullah, sons of Ibn Umar narrated from Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same.
- (...) Salim narrated from Abdullah from his father "Allah be pleased with him": I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same.
- 3-(845) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: While Umar Ibn Al-Khattab was standing and delivering the sermon on a Friday, one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came. Umar called (and asked) him: "What is the time now?" He replied: "I was busy and could not go back to my home till I heard the Adhan. I did not perform more than the ablution." Thereupon Umar said to him: "Did you perform only the ablution although you know that Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to order us to take a bath (on Fridays)?"

[البخاري: كتاب الجمعة، باب فضل الغسل يوم الجمعة، رقم: ٧٧٧].

4-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: while Umar Ibn Al-Khattab was addressing the people on Friday, Uthman Ibn Affan entered (the mosque). Umar referred to him indirectly in his speech saying: "What is the matter with (those) men, who delay in coming after the Adhan?" Uthman replied: "O Commander of the Believers! I did nothing after I heard the Adhan more than I performed ablution and then came." Upon this, Umar said: "Did you only perform ablution? Did you not hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If anyone of you attended (the prayer in the mosque on) Friday, he should take a bath (before coming)"?"

[1] Taking a bath on Friday is necessary for every adult, who reached the age of puberty, and what men have been ordered to do

5-(846) Ata Ibn Yasar narrated from Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Taking a bath on Friday is fundamental for anyone who reached the age of puberty."

6-(847) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: The people used to come (to attend the prayer in the mosque on) Friday from their homes in the precincts of Medina, wearing their garments. But, they used to be covered with dust, with the result that they would smell bitter. Once, a man of them (in such a state) came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was in my dwelling place. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you (people) got clean (by taking a bath) for (attending) this day of yours (it would be better)."

(...) Amra narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: The people used to do their work by themselves, because they had no servants to suffice them (such a work). So, a bad smell used to come out of them. It was said to them: "If you took a bath (it would be better)."

[2] Applying perfume and using the teeth cleansing stick on Friday

7-(846) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated from his father "Allah be pleased with him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is right on everyone who reached the age of puberty to take a bath on Friday. He should also use the teeth cleansing stick and apply perfume to himself as much as he could." Bukair (a sub-narrator) did not mention Abd Ar-Rahman in his narration and said concerning the perfume: "Even from that perfume used by his lady."

٤ - (...) - حدّثنا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ: أَخْبَرَنَا الْوَلِيدُ بْنُ مُسْلِم، عَنِ الأَوْزَاعِيِّ. قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ أَبِي كَثِيرِ: حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو سَلَمَةَ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ: حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ؛ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةً؛ قَالَ: بَيْنَمَا عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ يَخْطُبُ النَّاسَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ، إِذْ دَخَلَ عُثْمَانُ بْنُ عَفَّانَ، فَعَرَّضَ بِهِ عَمْرُ. فَقَالَ: مَا بَالُ رِجَالٍ يَتَأَخَّرُونَ بَعْدَ النِّدَاء! فَقَالَ عُثْمَانُ: يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ، مَا زِدْتُ حِينَ سَمِعْتُ النِّذَاء أَنْ تُوضَّأْتُ، ثُمَّ أَقْبَلْتُ. فَقَالَ عُمْرُ: وَالْوُضُوءَ أَيْضًا! أَلَمْ تَسْمَعُوا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «إِذَا جَاءَ أَحَدُكُمْ إِلَى الْجُمُعَةِ، فَلْيَغْتَسِلْ».

[البخاري: كتاب الجمعة، باب حدثنا أبو نعيم...، رقم: ٨٨٢].

[البخاري: كتاب الاذان، باب وضوء الصبيان ومتى يجب...، رقم: ٥٥٧].

[البخاري: كتاب الجمعة، باب من اين تؤتى الجمعة... رقم: ٩٠٢].

(...) _ وحدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ رُمْح: أَخْبَرَنَا اللَّيْثُ، عَنْ يَحْيَىٰ بْنِ سَعِيدٍ، عَنْ عَمْرَةَ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ؛ أَنَهَا قَالَتْ: كَانَ النَّاسُ أَهْلَ عَمَلٍ، وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُمْ كُفَاةٌ، فَكَانُوا يَكُونُ لَهُمْ تَفَلّ، فَقِيلَ لَهُمْ: لَوِ اغْتَسَلْتُمْ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ.

٧ - وحدّثنا عَمْرُو بْنُ سَوَّادِ الْعَامِرِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ وَهْبِ: أَخْبَرَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ الْحَارِثِ: أَنَّ سَعِيدَ بْنَ أَبِي هِلاَلٍ وَبُكَيْرَ بْنَ الأَشَجِ، حَدَّثَاهُ عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ الْمُنْكَدِرِ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْحَارِثِ: أَنَّ سَعِيدَ الْخُدْرِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: "غُسْلُ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ مُحْتَلِم، وَسِوَاكَ، وَيَمَسُّ مِنَ الطِّيبِ مَا قَدَرَ عَلَيْهِ".

إِلاَّ أَنَّ بُكَيْراً لَمْ يَذْكُرْ: عَبْدَ الرَّحْمٰنِ. وَقَالَ فِي الطِّيبِ: «وَلَوْ مِنْ طِيبِ الْمَرْأَةِ». [البخارى: كتاب الجمعة، باب الطيب للجمعة، رقم: ٨٨٠].

- 8-(848) Tawus narrated that once Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" mentioned what The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said concerning taking bath on Friday. Tawus said: I said to Ibn Abbas: "One should also apply to himself perfume or oil in case it is available to his wife." Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" replied: "I have no knowledge of it."
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Juraij, with the same chain of transmitters.
- 9-(849) Abdullah Ibn Tawus narrated from his father from Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is the right of Allah upon every Muslim to take a bath (at least once) every week, i.e. to wash his head and body."
- 10-(850) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Any person who takes a bath on Friday like the bath of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse) and then goes for the prayer (in the first hour as early as it could be), it is as if he has sacrificed a camel (in Allah's cause). Whoever goes in the second hour, it is as if he has sacrificed a cow. Whoever goes in the third hour, then it is as if he has sacrificed a horned ram. If one goes in the fourth hour, then it is as if he has sacrificed a hen. Whoever goes in the fifth hour, then it is as if he has offered an egg. When the Imam comes out (and Starts delivering the speech), the angels attend to listen to the speech."

[3] Listening to the speech on Friday

- 11-(851) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated that Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" told him: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you (spoke, even no more than you) said to your companion (sitting by your side): "Pay attention (to the sermon)", while the imam is delivering his speech on Friday, then you would be regarded to have talked nonsense."
- (...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying the same.
- (...) The same Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab, with both chains of transmitters, but Ibn Juraij said in his narration: Ibrahim Ibn Abdullah Ibn Qariz.
- 12-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "If you (spoke, even no

[4] The certain time on Friday (at which the invocation is responded to)

- 13-(852) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioned Friday, and said: "In it, there is a certain time, with which, no Muslim slave coincides while he is praying and asks Allah for anything but that He will grant it to him." Qutaiba, (a sub-narrator) added in his narration that he (The Prophet) pointed with his hand, suggesting that it is very short.
- 14-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Abu Al-Qasim (The Prophet) "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is a certain time on Friday, with which no praying Muslim coincides and asks Allah for good, except that He will endow him with it." He said (pointing) with his hand that it is very short and narrow.

I replied: "Yes, I heard him saying: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "It lies from the time when the imam sits (for delivering the sermon) until the prayer comes to its end"."

[10] What about the two sermons before the (Friday) prayer, and the while-sitting interval between them

- 33-(861) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to deliver the (first) sermon on Friday as standing. Then he would sit (for a while) after which he would stand (for delivering the second sermon), as they (the imams) do those days."
- 34-(862) Jabir Ibn Samura narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to deliver two sermons (on Friday), between which, he used to sit (for a while) in order to recite The Qur'an and admonish the people.
- 35-(...) Simak narrated: Jabir Ibn Samura told me: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to deliver the (first) sermon (on Friday) as standing. Then, he would sit (for a while), after which he would stand and deliver the (second) sermon while standing. Whoever told you that he (The Prophet) used to deliver the sermon as sitting has told a lie. By Allah! I prayed with him (The Prophet) more than two thousand (obligatory congregational) prayers."

[11] Allah's saying: "But when they see some bargain or some amusement, they disperse headlong to it, and leave thee standing." (Friday "Al-Jumu'a" 11)

36-(863) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: While The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering the sermon as standing on Friday, a caravan (loaded with food) came from Sham. The people turned and went to it (and left the mosque), but only twelve persons remained (with The Prophet). So this verse in the Sura of Friday was revealed: "But when they see some bargain or some amusement, they disperse headlong to it, and leave thee standing." (Friday 11)

Upon this the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Praise be to Allah, we praise Him, and ask for His help; and whomever Allah guides (to the straight path) then, none would be able to lead him astray, and whoever is led astray, then, none would be able to guide him. I testify that there is no god but Allah, He is One, with Whom there is no partner, and that Muhammad is His Servant and Messenger. Now and then..." He (Dimad) said: "Repeat these words of yours before me!" The messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" repeated them before him thrice. He said: "I heard the words of soothsayers, those of magicians, and those of poets, but I have never heard such words as yours, which reach the depth (of the ocean of eloquence). So lengthen the prayer and shorten the sermon, for from among the expressions, some are (as eloquent in their persuasion and influence as) charm"."

Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "What a bad orator you are! came (to the mosque) on Friday while the imam is delivering the sermon, he should (even then) pray two Rak'as, and shorten them."

[15] The tradition of instructing (the people) during the sermon

60-(876) Humaid Ibn Hilal narrated: Abu Rifa'a said: I reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was delivering the sermon, and said: "O Messenger of Allah! (I'm) a stranger, who came to inquire about his religion, and he does not know what (the principles of) his religion are." Then, he (The Prophet) turned towards me, and left his sermon, until he reached me. A chair, whose sides I thought to be of iron, was brought, on which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat. then, he started instructing me from what Allah taught him. Then, he returned to (the pulpit to resume) his sermon, and he completed it to its end.

[16] What is recited in the Friday prayer

- 61-(877) Ibn Abu Rafi narrated: Once, Marwan appointed Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" as his successor in Medina, and he set out to Mecca. Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" led us in the Friday prayer, in which he recited, after the Sura of Friday (in the first Rak'a) (the Sura beginning with): "If the hypocrites came to you." I caught Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" after he had finished (the prayer), to whom I said: "You recited two Suras, which Ali Ibn Abu Talib used to recite in Kufa." Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" said: "No doubt, I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reciting them (in the prayer) on Friday."
- (...) Ubaidullah Ibn Abu Rafi narrated: Once, Marwan appointed Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" as his successor ... (and mentioned the same narration, but according to the narration of Hatim: He recited the Sura of Friday in the first Rak'a, and "If the hypocrites came to you" in the other). However, the narration of Abd Al-Aziz is like that transmitted by Sulaiman Ibn Bilal.
- 62-(878) An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the (prayers of the) two festivals and in the Friday (prayer) both the Suras of "Glorify the name of your Lord, The Most High" and "Has the story reached thee, of the overwhelming (Event)?." In case the festival came on Friday, he used to recite both in the two prayers.
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibrahim Ibn Muhammad Ibn Al-Muntashir, with the same chain of transmitters.

He said: Well, I offered the Friday (obligatory) prayer with him in Maqsura. When the Imam uttered the end salutation, I stood up at my place and prayed. After he had entered (the dwelling place) he sent for me and said: "Do not repeat what you did. Whenever you offered the Friday (obligatory) prayer, you should not pray until you have talked or left, because The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to do so and not to combine two (sorts of) prayers before talking or leaving."
- (...) Umar Ibn Ata Ibn Abu Khuwar said that Nafi Ibn Jubair sent him to As-Sa'ib, the son of Namir's sister...(and he mentioned the same, but here he said: "When he uttered the salutation" and did not mention "the imam").

(8) The Book Of The Two Festivals' Prayer

1-(884) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I attended the Prayer of the breaking fast festival "Id Al-Fitr" with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman, and all of them offered this Prayer before the sermon, and then he (the Prophet) delivered the sermon. Then the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came down (from the pulpit), as if I am seeing him, ordering the people with (the help of) his hand to sit down. Then, he made his way through them till he came to the women. Bilal was with him. He then recited (Allah's saying): "O Prophet, when believing women come to thee giving thee a pledge that they will not associate aught with Allah " till he finished (addressing) them and then asked: "Do you comply with that?" Only a woman from among them replied: "Yes, O Messenger of Allah." None else answered. (However, the narrator was not certain who actually she was). He (the Prophet) exhorted them to give alms. Bilal stretched his cloth and said: "Come forward with alms. Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you!" They started to throw rings and ringlets in the cloth of Bilal.

- 2-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I testify that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the (Id) prayer before delivering the sermon. Then, he delivered the speech, but, thinking that he was not able to make the women hear him, he came to them, reminded them (of good deeds), instructed them, and ordered them to give in charity. Bilal was stretching his cloth (to put the alms in it). The women started throwing rings, earrings and ringlets.
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Aiyyub, with the same chain of transmitters.
- 3-(885) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that on the breaking fast "Al-Fitr" day, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up and prayed. He offered the prayer before delivering the sermon. Then, he delivered the speech before the people. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished, he came down (from the pulpit) and went to the women, whom he reminded (of their religious duties), while he was reclining against the hand of Bilal, who was stretching his cloth, in which the women were throwing the alms. I (the sub-narrator) asked Ata: "Was it the charity of the day of the breaking fast "Fitr"?" he said: "No, but it was charity which they gave at this time (voluntarily): A woman threw her ring, and then the others threw such-and 4-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I attended with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the prayer on the day of the festival "Id." He started with offering the prayer before delivering the sermon, with neither call for prayer "Adhan" nor call for prayer establishment "Iqama." Then, he got up, leaning on Bilal. He ordered them to fear Allah and exhorted them to obey Him. Then, he instructed the people, and reminded them (of good deeds). Then, he made his way to the women, whom he instructed and reminded (of good deeds). He said to them: "Give in charity, for the majority of you would be the fuel of the Hell." One from among the women, with brown cheeks, stood up and said: "Why is that, O Messenger of Allah?" he replied: "Because your complaints are so much, and you are ungrateful to your husbands." Then, they started giving in charity from their ornaments. They started throwing their earrings and rings in the cloth of Bilal.

5-(886) Ibn Juraij narrated from Ata that both of Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" and Jabir Ibn Abdullah Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with both" had told him: There was no call for prayer on the days of breaking fast "Al-Fitr" and sacrifice "Al-Adha." Sometime later, I (the narrator) asked him about that. He told me: Jabir Ibn Abdullah Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with both" told me: On the day of breaking fast "Al-Fitr" there is no call for prayer whether when the imam comes out (to the mosque) or after his coming out, nor is there a call for prayer establishment, i.e. there is neither Adhan nor Iqama nor any kind of calling to prayer on that day.

6-(...) Ata narrated that when Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair was given the pledge of allegiance as a caliph, Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" sent to him (saying) that there was no call to prayer on the day of breaking fast "Al-Fitr"; so do not pronounce Adhan for it. So, Ibn Az-Zubair did not pronounce Adhan for it on that day. On the other hand, he (Ibn Abbas) sent to him (saying) that the sermon should be delivered after offering the prayer, and that used to be done. So, Ibn Az-Zubair offered the (Id) prayer before delivering the sermon.

7-(887) Jabir Ibn Samura narrated: I offered the prayers of the two festivals with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" more than once and twice, with neither call to prayer "Adhan" nor call to prayer establishment "Iqama".

8-(888) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and then Abu Bakr and Umar used to offer the prayers of the two festivals before delivering the sermon.

9-(889) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to proceed to the place of prayer on the days of Breaking fast and Sacrifice festivals. The first thing to begin with was the prayer and after that he would stand in front of the people who would keep sitting in their rows. If he wished to send an army for an expedition, he would do so; or if he wanted to give an order, he would do so, and he used to say: "Give in charity! Give in charity! Give in charity!" the most people who used to give in charity were the women. Then, he would depart. The people followed this tradition till Marwan Ibn Al-Hakam (became the governor of Medina). I went out walking along with Marwan till we reached the place of prayer.

There was a pulpit made of mud and bricks by Kathir Ibn As-Salt. Marwan started to pull me with his hand, as he was drawing me towards the pulpit, while I was drawing him towards the (place of) prayer. When I observed that from him, I asked him: "Where is (the tradition of) starting with the prayer (before delivering the sermon)?" He replied: "No Abu Sa'id! That which you know has been left." I said: "By Him, in Whose Hand my soul is! You would not bring anything better than what I know" thrice. Then, he went away.

He also ordered the menstruating women to keep themselves far from the praying place of the Muslims.

As for the menstruating women, they would keep themselves away from the prayer,

[2] Leaving the prayer before or after the festival in the praying place

13-(884) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated from Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got out (for prayer) on the day of either sacrifice "Adha" or breaking fast "Fitr." He offered a two-Rak'a prayer, before or after which he did not pray anything. Then, he came to women, accompanying Bilal with him. He ordered them to give in charity. (They responded immediately to the extent that) the woman started throwing her ring and throwing her perfumed bid-like collar.

[3] What is recited in the prayer of the two festivals

14-(891) Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah narrated that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab asked Abu Waqid Al-Laithi about what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the (prayer of the) two festivals of Sacrifice "Al-Adha" and Breaking Fast "Al-Fitr." He said: He used to recite in them: "Qaf, by The Glorious Qur'an" and "The Hour (of Judgment) is nigh, and the moon is cleft asunder."

Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utba narrated that Abu Waqid Al-Laithi said: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab asked me about what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited in the (prayer of the) festival. ## [4] Permission for playing in which there is no disobedience during the days of the festival

16-(892) Hisham narrated from his father that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: Abu Bakr came to my home while two small Ansari girls were singing beside me what the Ansar said (of poetry) concerning the Day of Bu'ath (on which the war broke up between the tribes of Khazraj and Aws, and the victory was for the latter). They were not (professional) singers. Abu Bakr said protestingly: "Musical instruments of Satan are in the home of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"!" It happened on the day of Festival, and The Messenger of Allah

- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters, according to which (they were) two small girls, playing on drums.
- 17-(...) Urwa narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" that during the Mina days, Abu Bakr came to her, while there where two girls with her, beating drums, and The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was (lying) covering himself with his garment. Abu Bakr rebuked the two girls, but The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" uncovered his face and said: "O Abu Bakr! Let them, for these are the days of the festival." On the other hand, I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" screening me with his garment, while I was watching the Ethiopians playing (with spears), and I was still a small girl. So you would consider how a little girl was to listen to amusement.

He was screening me with his garment in order that I would watch their display. He kept standing as such for my sake until I left (after being satisfied). So you would consider how a little girl was keen on watching the amusement.
- 19-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to my house while two girls were singing beside me the songs of Bu'ath (a story about the war between the two tribes of the Ansar, Khazraj and Aws, before Islam). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" lay down and turned his face to the other side. Then Abu Bakr came and spoke to me harshly saying: "Musical instruments of Satan are near The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"!" Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned his face towards him and said: "Leave them." When Abu Bakr became inattentive, I signalled to those girls to go out and they left.

It was the day of festival, and the Black people were playing with shields and spears; so either I requested the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" or he asked me whether I would like to see the display. I replied in the affirmative. Then the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made me stand behind him and my cheek was touching his cheek

[2] The supplication of asking Allah for rain

8-(897) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On a Friday a person entered the main Mosque through the gate facing Dar Al-Qada while Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering the Sermon. The man stood in front of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! The livestock are dying and the roads are cut off; so please invoke Allah for rain." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised both his hands and said: "O Allah! Bless us with rain! O Allah! Bless us with rain!"

Anas added: By Allah, there was no trace of cloud in the sky seen by us, and there was no building or a house between us and (the mountain of) Sal. Anas added: A heavy cloud like a shield appeared from behind it (Sal Mountain). When it came in the middle of the sky, it spread and then rained. Anas further said: By Allah! We could not see the sun for a week. Next Friday a person entered through the same gate and at that time Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering the Friday's speech. The man stood in front of him and said: "O Allah's Apostle! The livestock are dving and the roads are cut off, please invoke Allah to withhold rain." Anas added: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised both his hands and said: "O Allah! Let it be round us and not on us. O Allah! Let it be on the plateaus, on the mountains, on the hills, in the valleys and on the places where trees grow." So the rain stopped and we came out walking in the sun. Anas was asked: "Was he (who came later) the (same) first man (who came complaining of drought)?" Anas replied: "I do not know."

9-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: During the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", the people were stricken by famine. While The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was on the pulpit, delivering the sermon to the people on Friday, a Bedouin stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! The livestock are dying, and the children are suffering from starvation"...(and the rest is the same, in which he said: "O Allah! Let it be round us and not upon us!." So, in whatever direction he pointed with his hands, the clouds dispersed and cleared away. In this way, (the sky of) Medina became clear as a hole in between the clouds. The valley of Qanat

[3] Taking refuge (with Allah) when one sees a windstorm and a (dark) cloud, and one's feeling happy because of the rainfall

14-(899) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated: Whenever it was a stormy or a cloudy day, it (the sign of anxiety) would be visible in the face of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he would go coming and returning (because of worry). But, whenever it rained, he would become pleased with that, and that (state of anxiety) would be over. I (A'isha) asked him about (the reason of) that. He said: "I was afraid that perhaps it (that windstorm or dark cloud) was a torment inflicted upon my nation." Whenever he saw rainfall, he would say: "It is a mercy (from Allah)."

I ask You for its goodness, for the goodness of what is in it, and for the goodness with which it has been sent; and I take refuge with You from its evil, from the evil of what is in it, and from the evil with which it has been sent." If there was thunder and lightning in the sky, the colour (of his face) would change, and he would get out and in, come forward and backward (because of anxiety). Whenever it rained, he would become reassured, and that (state of worry) would be over, and I observed that in his face. When I asked him, he replied: "O A'isha! Perhaps, it might be as the people of Aad said "When they saw the (Penalty in the shape of) a cloud traversing the sky, coming to meet their valleys, they said: This cloud will give us rain!" Whenever he saw clouds or winds, the signs of deep worry would appear on his face. I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Whenever people see clouds they used to feel happy, hoping that it would rain, while I see that whenever you see clouds, the signs of dissatisfaction would be seen on your face." He said: "O A'isha! What does guarantee to me that there will be no punishment in it, since some people were punished with a wind? Behold! Some people saw the Penalty (in the shape of a cloud traversing the sky, coming to meet their valleys), they said, This cloud will give us rain!"

(10) The Book Of Eclipse

[1] The prayer of eclipse

1-(901) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: In the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the sun eclipsed, so he led the people in prayer. He stood up and performed a very long standing, then bowed and it was a very long bowing. He raised his head and performed a very long standing but shorter than the first. He bowed again for a very long time but shorter than the first one. Then he prostrated and prolonged the prostration. He got up again (for the second Rak'a) and performed a very long standing but shorter than the first. He bowed again for a very long time but shorter than the first one. He raised his head and performed a very long standing but shorter than the first. He bowed again for a very long time but shorter than the first one. Then he prostrated and prolonged the prostration. Then he finished the prayer. By then the sun (eclipse) cleared. He delivered the sermon and after praising and glorifying Allah he said: "The sun and the moon are two of Allah's signs; they do not eclipse for the death or life of anyone. So when you see the eclipse, remember Allah by saying Takbir (Magnification of Allah), pray and give charity." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said: "O followers of Mohammad! By Allah! There is none who is more protective (for people to have self-respect) than Allah as He has made it unlawful for His slaves, male or female, to commit adultery. O followers of Mohammad! By Allah! If you knew that which I know, you would laugh little and weep much. Have I not conveyed (Allah's message to you)?."

- 2-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Urwa, with the same chain of transmitters, with the following addition: He (The Prophet) said: "Now and then: Both the sun and the moon are from amongst Allah's signs." He also added: Then, he raised his hands and said: "O Allah! Have I not reported (Your Message)?"

A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: In the lifetime of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the sun eclipsed and he went to the Mosque and the people aligned behind him. He said the Takbir (of starting the prayer) and prolonged the recitation (from the Holy Qur'an) and then said Takbir and performed a prolonged bowing; then he (raised his head and) said: "Sami'a Allahu liman hamidah; Rabbana walaka al-hamd" (Allah heard him who praised Him; O our Lord! To You be the praise). He then (did not prostrate but) stood up and recited a prolonged recitation, which was shorter than the first. He again said Takbir and then bowed a

"Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who stood up (in the prayer) for a very long time. He then bowed, then stood up, then bowed, then stood up and then bowed, offering (in this way) two Rak'as, including three bowings and four prostrations. He then finished and the sun became bright. Whenever he bowed, he would say: "Allah is Greater." Whenever he raised his head (from bowing) He would say: "Allah heard him who praised Him." Then, he stood up, praised and thanked Allah, and then said: "The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of the death or the life (birth) of anyone. But they are from amongst the signs of Allah, with which Allah frightens His slaves. So when you see their eclipse, celebrate Allah till they become bright."

[2] Mentioning the grave punishment in the eclipse prayer

8-(903) Amra narrated that a Jewess came to ask A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" about something. She said to her: "May Allah give you refuge from the punishment of the grave." So A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Would the people be punished in their graves?" Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", after seeking refuge with Allah from the punishment of the grave, replied in the affirmative. Then one day, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode to go to some place but the sun eclipsed. I came out with some women through the rear of the dwellings (of The Prophet's wives) in the mosque. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came back from his journey and reached his praying place. He stood for the (eclipse) prayer, with people standing behind him. He stood up for a long period and then performed a long bowing. Then he raised (his head) and stood for a long period but shorter than the first standing, and then performed a prolonged bowing which was shorter than the first bowing. Then he raised his head and (at that time) the sun became bright. Then, he said (after finishing the prayer): "I see that you would be put to trial in the graves like that (trial) of Ad-Dajjal." Afterwards, I used to listen to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seeking refuge (with Allah) from the torment of the fire (of Hell) and from the punishment of the grave.

[3] What was displayed before The Prophet during the eclipse prayer concerning the Paradise and the fire (of Hell)

9-(904) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: During the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", there was a solar eclipse on a very hot day. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led his companions in the (eclipse) prayer, in which he prolonged the standing to the extent that they (the companions) started to fall down. Then, he bowed for a long time. Then he raised (his head from bowing) and prolonged the standing. Then, he bowed for a long period. Then, he raised (his head from bowing) and stood for a long time. Then, he offered two prostrations. Then, he stood up and did the same (in the second Rak'a), in this way, it (the prayer) consisted of (two Rak'as, including) four bowings and four prostrations. Then, he said (after finishing the prayer): "Verily, everything you would enter (whether Paradise or Hell) was displayed to me. The Paradise was shown to me, (and it was so much near to me) that if I (stretched my hand and) picked a bunch (of grapes) from it, I could do, (or he said: I intended to pick a punch from it) but my hand was too short to take it. The fire (of Hell) was shown to me, in which I saw a woman from the children of Israel, who was tortured for the sake of a cat, which she tied (and imprisoned): She did neither feed it, nor did she (release and) let it eat from the insects of the earth. I also saw (in the Hell) Abu Thumama: Amr Ibn Malik, dragging his intestines in the fire. However, it is said (by some people) that both the sun and the moon do not eclipse except for the death of a great person. Verily, they are two of Allah's signs, which He shows you. So, if they eclipsed, then, you should pray until they become bright."

- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters, but here he mentioned (that The Prophet said): "I saw in the fire (of Hell) a tall black woman, from Himyar", and did not mention that she was from the children of Israel.

Then, he proceeded, and the people moved forward with him, until he stood in his place (where he led the prayer). He did not finish the prayer before the sun had become bright.

Then, he said (addressing the people): "O people! said to her: "Is it a sign?" She said: "Yes." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up for prayer for such a long time that I was about to fall unconscious. I caught hold of a water-skin lying by my side, and began to pour water over my head, or on my face. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished the prayer, the sun had become bright. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said, addressing the people, after he had praised and glorified Allah: "Just now at this place of mine, there was nothing which I have never seen before but that I saw it including Paradise and Hell. No doubt it has been inspired to me that you will be put to trials in your graves and these trials will be like the trials of Ad-Dajjal (or nearly like it. I do not know which expression was used). You will be asked: "What do you know about this man (The Prophet Muhammad)?" Then the faithful believer (or the assuredly believer) will reply: "He is Muhammad Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who had come to us with clear evidences and guidance and so we accepted his teachings and followed him." He will repeat it thrice. Then the angels will say to him: "Sleep peacefully as we have come to know that you were a faithful believer." On the other hand, a hypocrite or a doubtful person (I do not know which word was used) will reply: "I do not know, but I heard the people saying something and so I said it"."

- 12-(...) Asma "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Once, I came to A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", while the people were standing (for prayer). She was also offering the prayer. I asked her: "What has happened to the people?"...and the rest is the same as narrated by Ibn Numair from Hisham.
- 13-(...) Az-Zuhri narrated that Urwa said: Do not say "The sun eclipsed" but say: "The sun was eclipsed."
- 14-(906) Asma' Bint Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: One day (i.e. on the day when the sun eclipsed), The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt so much anxious that he (hurriedly) took hold of the outer garment (of one of his wives) and later, his (own) cloak was sent to him. He stood in prayer leading the people for such a long time that if a man came and did not know that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had bowed, he would not think that he had bowed, in view of his long standing.
- 15-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Abu Juraij, with the same chain of transmitters and added: "He (The Prophet) stood (in prayer) for a long period, after which he bowed." He added too: "I (Asma') looked at a woman who was older than me, and at another who was weaker than me."

16-(...) Asma Bint Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The sun eclipsed during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who felt so much anxious that he (hastily) took, by mistake, an outer garment of one of his wives (instead of his own). Later on, his own cloak was sent to him. After I had answered the call of nature (and performed ablution) I came and entered the mosque, where I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" standing for prayer.

I stood (for prayer) with him. He prolonged the standing so much that I saw myself having the desire to sit down. But, I looked and found the weak woman, and said: "That woman is weaker than me (though she is still standing)." So, I kept standing. Then, he bowed and prolonged the bowing. Then, he raised his head (from bowing) and prolonged the standing to the extent that if a man came (and did not know that he had bowed), he would think that he (The Prophet) had not bowed.

17-(907) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The sun eclipsed in the lifetime of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the eclipse prayer and stood for a long time, equal to the period in which one could recite The Sura of Al-Baqara. Then he bowed for a long time and then stood up for a long period, shorter than that of the first standing, then bowed again for a long time, shorter than that of the first; then he prostrated (twice). Then he stood up (in the second Rak'a) for a long period, shorter than that of the previous standing. Then he bowed for a long time, shorter than that of the previous bowing. Then he raised his head and stood up for a long period, shorter than that of the previous standing. Then he bowed for a long time, shorter than that of the previous bowing. Then he prostrated (twice) and finished the prayer. By then, the sun (eclipse) cleared.

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said: "The sun and the moon are two of the signs of Allah. They eclipse neither because of the death nor because of the life of anybody. So when you see them, remember Allah." The people said: "O Allah's Apostle! We saw you taking something from your place and then we saw you having prevented yourself." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "I saw Paradise and stretched my hands towards a bunch (of its fruits) and had I taken it, you would have eaten from it as long as the world remains. I also saw the Hell-fire and I had never seen such a horrible sight. I saw that most of its inhabitants were women." The people asked: "O Allah's Apostle! Why is it so?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Because of their ungratefulness." He was asked whether they are ungrateful to Allah. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "They are ungrateful to their companions of life (husbands) and ungrateful to good deeds. If you are benevolent to one of them throughout the life, and (once) she sees anything (undesirable) in you, she will say: I have never had any good from you."

[4] What about him, who said that he (The Prophet) offered eight bowings and four prostrations(for the eclipse prayer)

18-(908) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: When the sun eclipsed, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered eight bowings and four prostrations (in two Rak'as). Ali narrated the same.

19-(909) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the eclipse prayer as follows: He recited (as standing) then bowed, then (raised his head from bowing and) recited (as standing), then bowed, then (raised his head and) recited (as standing), then bowed, then (raised his head and) recited (as standing) and then bowed. Then he prostrated (twice). He did the same in the other Rak'a.

[5] The call to the eclipse prayer: "(Come to) the congregational prayer"

20-(910) Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: When the sun eclipsed during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", it was called for the prayer: "(Come to) the congregational prayer!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (offered the eclipse prayer, in which he) performed two bowings in one Rak'a. then, he stood up and offered two bowings in one Rak'a. by then, the sun (eclipse) cleared. A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: "I have never offered such bowing and prostration as longer than that (I offered in such a prayer)."

21-(911) Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Both the sun and the moon are two of Allah's signs, by whose (eclipse) Allah frightens His slaves. They never eclipse for the death of anyone of the people. If you see anything like that, offer (the eclipse) prayer, and invoke Allah until it (the eclipse) is over."

- 22-(...) Abu Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of anyone's death. But they are two signs of Allah (which He uses to frighten His slaves). So whenever you see these (eclipses), stand up and pray."
- 23-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Isma'il, with the same chain of transmitters. In the narration of Sufyan and Waki, he (the narrator) said: The sun eclipsed on the day when Ibrahim (the son of The Prophet) died. The people said: "It eclipsed for the death of Ibrahim."
- 24-(912) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The sun eclipsed during the lifetime of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He got up, prompted by the fear that it might be the doomed Hour. He went to the Mosque and offered the prayer with the longest standing, bowing and prostration, which I had never seen him doing in any prayer else. Then he said: "These signs which Allah sends do not occur because of the death or life of somebody, but Allah sends them in order to make His worshipers afraid by them (or in order to frighten His slaves, according to the narration of Ibn Al-Ala). So when you see anything thereof, take refuge to remembering Allah, invoking Him and asking for His forgiveness."
- 25-(913) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura narrated: While I was practicing archery during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", the sun eclipsed. I threw my arrows away and said (to myself): "I'm going to see what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would do as regards the sun eclipse today. I reached him, while he was raising his hand, invoking (Allah), magnifying and praising (Him), and uttering (the phrase): "There is no God but Allah", until the sun (eclipse) was over. He recited two Suras and offered two Rak'as.
- 26-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura, who was one of the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", narrated: I was shooting with some arrows of mine in Medina during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", when the sun eclipsed. I threw them away and said (to myself): "By Allah! I'm going to see what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would do, concerning the sun eclipse." I came to him, while he was standing in prayer, raising his hands. He started glorifying, praising, magnifying (Allah), saying: "There is no god but Allah", and supplicating until it (the sun) brightened. When it brightened, he recited two Suras, and offered two Rak'as.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Hatib Ibn Abu Balta'a to demand my hand on his behalf. I said: "I have a daughter (as my dependent), and I'm a jealous (woman)." on such a) calamity, and give him something better, in substitution for it." When (my husband) Abu Salama died, I said what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered me to say. So, Allah gave me a substitute, better than him, i.e. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

5-(...) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying (the same Hadith narrated by Abu Usama, in which he added: She said: When Abu Salama died, I said: "Who of the Muslims is better than Abu Salama, the companion of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"!" Allah determined for me (to say it), and I said it. Then, I was married to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[3] What is said beside the sick and the dead

6-(919) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you are present by the side of a sick or a dead person, you should say good, for the angels confirm by uttering "amen" to what you said." She added: When Abu Salama died, I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Abu Salama died." He said: "You should say: O Allah! Forgive for me and him, and give me a substitute, better than him." I said so, and Allah gave me a better substitute, who was good for me, (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[4] Closing the eyes of the dead, and invoking good upon him at the time of visiting him

7-(920) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon Abu Salama (after he had died), with his eyes fixedly open. He closed them and said: "If one's soul is arrested (by the angels), the sight would follow it." Some of the people of his family went on weeping. He said: "Do not invoke upon yourselves anything but good, for angels say " Amen" in confirmation to what you say." He then said (invoking): "O Allah, forgive Abu Salama, raise his degree among those who are rightly guided, grant him a (good) successor in his remaining offspring. Forgive us and him, O Lord of the worlds, make spacious his grave, and endow him with light in it."

8-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Khalid Al-Hadhdha, with the same chain of transmitters, including such changes as: "(O Allah)

وَزَادَ: قَالَتْ: فَلَمَّا تُوُفِّي أَبُو سَلَمَةَ قُلْتُ: مَنْ خَيْرٌ مِنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ صَاحِبِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ عَنَمَ اللَّهُ لِي فَقُلْتُهَا. قَالَتْ: فَتَزَوَّجْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ عَلِيْهُ.

[5] The dead's sight is fixedly open, following the soul

9-(921) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Did you not see that whenever one died, his eyes would be fixedly open?" they said: "Yes." He (The Prophet) said: "That is because when (the soul is taken away) his eyesight follows the soul."

[6] Weeping for the dead

10-(922) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: When (my husband) Abu Salama died, I said: "What a stranger he was, who died in a strange land! (She meant that he died in Medina, though he belonged to the dwellers of Mecca) Verily, I'm going to weep for him so much that the people would talk about it." I was getting myself ready to weep for him, when a woman came from the upper part of Medina, in order to support me (in weeping for him). At this time, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" received her and said: "Do you want to cause Satan to enter a house, from which Allah drove him away twice?" I kept myself from weeping. In this way, I did not wail (on him).

11-(923) Usama Ibn Zaid "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The daughter of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent (a messenger) to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" requesting him to come as her child (or son) was dying (or was gasping), but The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told the messenger: "Return and say to her: Whatever Allah takes is for Him, and whatever He gives is for Him, and everything with Him has a limited fixed term (in this world). So tell her to be patient and hope for Allah's reward." The messenger came back (to him once again) and said to him: "She swore that you should come to her." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up accompanied by Sa'd Ibn Ubada, Mu'adh Ibn Jabal, and I went with them. The child was brought to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while his breath was disturbed in his chest as if it was a leather water-skin. On that the eyes of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started shedding tears. Sa'd said: "O Allah's Apostle! What is this?" He replied: "It is mercy which Allah has lodged in

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Asim Al-Ahwal, with the same chain of transmitters, but the Hadith narrated by Hammad is more complete and much longer.

12-(924) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Once, Sa'd Ibn Ubada complained of a certain disease, for which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", accompanied by Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf and Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud, came to visit him (and inquire about his health). When he entered upon him, he found him unconscious (or surrounded by his household, according to another interpretation). He asked: "Has he died?" they replied: "No, O Messenger of Allah." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wept. When the people (who were present there) saw the weeping of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", they all wept. Upon this, he said: "Do you not listen? Verily, Allah never punishes (His slaves) because of the eye-tears, nor does He do for the grief of the heart. But He punishes or turns in mercy for that (and he pointed to the tongue)."

[7] Visiting the sick persons

13-(925) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We were sitting with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a man from the Ansar came and greeted him. Then, he turned back. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O brother of Ansar! How is (the health of) my brother (in the religion of Allah) Sa'd Ibn Ubada?" the man replied: "He is fine." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who of you would (go and) visit him (with me to inquire about his health)?" he got up, and we got up with him. We were over ten persons, having neither sandals nor leather socks, neither turbans nor shirts. We walked across this salty land until we reached his house. His companions who were around him moved backward in order that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions who came with him could approach him.

[8] The patience is to be at the first stroke of the calamity

14-(926) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The patience is to be (only rewardable when it occurs) at the first stroke (of the calamity)."

مَا هٰذَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ: «هٰذِهِ رَحْمَةٌ جَعَلَهَا اللَّهُ فِي قُلُوبِ عِبَادِهِ، وَإِنَّمَا يَرْحَمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ الرُّحَمَاءَ».

She said: "What do you have to do with my calamity?" when he went away, it was said to her that he was The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". As a result, she was taken by a state (of unconsciousness as terrible) as death. She came to the door (of his house) and found no porters. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! I did not recognize you." Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The dead would be punished for a certain kind of his family's wailing (on him)"?" Abdullah made it general (without restricting it to any particular type of wailing), though Umar restricted it to certain type (of wailing).

(929) I (the narrator Abdullah Ibn Abu Mulaika) stood up and went to A'isha whom I told of what Ibn Umar had said. She said: "No, by Allah! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never said that "the dead would be punished for his family's wailing (over him)." But, he said that "Allah would increase the torment of the unbeliever for his family's wailing on him." Verily it is Allah Who has caused laughter and weeping. No bearer of a burden will bear the burden of another." Ibn Abu Mulaika told that Al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad said that when the statement of both Umar and Ibn Umar was reported to A'isha, she said: "You are narrating it to me from those who are neither liars nor suspected of lying, but one's hearing might mislead (him)."

While I was sitting between them (or I was sitting by the side of one of them, and then the other came and sat beside me), (there came a voice of wailing from the house and) Ibn Umar said to Amr Ibn Uthman, who was facing him: "Do you not forbid (them) from wailing? (927) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" said: "Umar used to say some of that." Then, he narrated: I set out with Umar from Mecca. When we reached Al-Baida, there was a group of people under the shadow of a tree. He said to me: "Go and tell me who are those people." I (went and) found out that he was Suhaib (and his family). I (returned and) told him. He said: "Invite him to me." I returned to Suhaib and told him: "Set out and join the Commander of the believers." When Umar was fatally wounded, Suhaib entered (upon him) weeping and saying: "Alas for the brother! alas for the companion!" Upon this, Umar said: "O Suhaib! Are you wailing for me? No doubt, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The dead would be punished for a certain kind of his family's wailing on him"."

that "Allah would punish the (dying) believer for anyone's wailing (on him)." But, he said that "Allah would increase the torment of the (dying) unbeliever for his family's wailing on him." It is enough for you (to recite the following Verse from) The Qur'an: "No bearer of a burden will bear the burden of another." (The Originator of Creation "Fatir" 18) at this point, Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" said: "Verily it is Allah Who has caused laughter and weeping." Ibn Abu Mulaika said: By Allah! Ibn Umar never said anything.

(...) Amr narrated from Ibn Abu Mulaika: We were attending the funeral of Umm Aban, the daughter of Uthman...(and the rest is the same, without tracing it to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through Umar, as did both Aiyyub and Ibn Juraij, whose narration is more complete than that narrated by Amr).

24-(930) Salim narrated from Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The dead is punished for the wailing of the living (humans on him)."

25-(931) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that once, it was mentioned before A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" the state of Ibn Umar "The dead is punished for his family's wailing on him." Upon this, she said: "Allah's mercy be upon Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! He heard something, which he did not keep well. What really happened was that once, a bear of a Jew came across The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and they (the members of his family) were wailing on him. Upon this, he (The Prophet) said: "You are wailing, and no doubt, he is being punished"."

26-(932) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father: It was mentioned in the presence of A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated the following statement, tracing it to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "The dead is punished for the wailing of his family on him." Upon this, she said: "He is mistaken. What The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said was that "He (the dead) is punished for his sin or guilt, and the members of his family are now weeping for him." That (what Ibn Umar said) is like what he said, i.e. that on the day of (the holy battle of) Badr, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up beside the well of Qalib, in which there were the killed unbelievers of Badr. When he said to them what he had said, he commented: "They are hearing what I'm saying." However, he (Ibn Umar) is mistaken (concerning this matter too). What he (The Prophet) said was that "They know well that what I used to say to them (before their death) was true." Then, she recited:

وَلٰكِنْ قَالَ: «إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَزِيدُ الْكَافِرَ عَذَاباً بِبُكَاءِ أَهْلِهِ عَلَيْهِ». قَالَ: وَقَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ: حَسْبُكُمُ الْقُرْآنُ: ﴿وَلَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وِزْرَ أُخْرَئَ ﴾ [فاطر: ١٨] قَالَ: وَقَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ عِنْدَ ذٰلِكَ: وَاللَّهُ «أَضْحَكَ وَأَبْكَى».

[10] The grievous punishment for the wailing (on the dead)

29-(934) Abu Malik Al-Ash'ari narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There are, in my nation, four characteristics belonging to the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, which they (my people) would not give up: Vying in glory with high ranks, abusing the genealogies of others, seeking for rain by (the help of) stars, and wailing (for the dead)." He (The Prophet) said: "If the wailing woman does not repent before her death, she will be made to stand on The Day of Judgement, wearing a garment of pitch and a shirt of mange."

A man came and said: "O Allah's Apostle! The women of Ja'far," and then he mentioned their crying. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to stop them from crying. The man went and came back and said: "I tried to stop them but they disobeyed." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him for the second time to forbid them. He went again and came back and said: "They overpowered us O Messenger of Allah!" she (Amra) said that she (A'isha) told: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Put dust in their mouths." (Then she said): I said (to that man): "May Allah stick your nose in the dust! By Allah! You could neither (get the women) comply with the order of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" nor did you relieve Allah's Apostle from trouble!"

[13] The shroud of the dead

- 44-(940) Khabbab Ibn Al-Aratt reported: We emigrated with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in Allah's cause, and so our reward was then surely incumbent on Allah. Some of us died and they did not take anything from their rewards in this world, amongst whom was Mus'ab Ibn Umair; and others got their rewards. Mus'ab Ibn Umair was martyred on the day of Uhud battle, and we could get nothing except his short garment to shroud him in. When we covered his head his feet became bare and vice versa. So The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to cover his head only and to put Idhkhir (a kind of shrub) over his feet. On the other hand, there is one amongst us for whom the fruit (of reward) has become ripe which he plucks.

As regards the cloak, the people had a doubt as to the fact that it was bought for him to be shrouded in it. However, it was left, and he (The Prophet) was shrouded in three Yemenite white pieces of cotton cloth. It (the cloak) was taken by Abdullah Ibn Abu Bakr, who said: "I'm going to keep it, so that I would be shrouded in it." But later, he said (to himself): "If Allah Almighty

[15] Making well the shroud of the dead

49-(943) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering a speech when he mentioned one of his companions who died. He was shrouded in a badly incomplete shroud (too short to cover the whole of his body), and then he was buried at night. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" scolded (the people for the fact) that a man should be buried at night before offering the funeral prayer on him, except in case one is forced to do so. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you shrouded his brother, he should shroud him well."

To this point, the narration of Abu Tahir ended. There is an addition, narrated from Salim Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar that Ibn Umar used to offer the funeral prayer and then go away. When he was informed of the Hadith narrated by Abu Huraira, he said: "No doubt, we wasted a lot of Qirats."

I said: "O Messenger of Allah! how could I invoke (Allah) for them?" He said: "You could say: "Peace be upon the inhabitants of these abodes from among the Believers and the Muslims. We kept doing that until Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan (became the Caliph and he) came as a pilgrim. He spoke to the people on the pulpit. From among what he said to them was his statement: "I think that two Mudds (i.e. half a Sa) of wheat are equal to a Sa of dates (or any of those mentioned above)." The people adopted that opinion. Abu Sa'id said: As for me, I still give it as I used to give it (during the lifetime of The Prophet, and I would keep doing that) as long as I live.

Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! Who are those (losers)?" No owner of camels, cattle or goat and sheep does not give in charity but that those (animals) would come on the Day of Judgement, more fleshy, and they would gore him with their horns and trample him with their hoofs. The more the last would pass away, the more the first would return (to trample him once again) until it is judged among the people."

[9] Exhortation to give in charity

32-(94) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While I was walking with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at the middle of Medina in the evening, looking at the mountain of Uhud. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Abu Dharr!" I replied: "O Messenger of Allah! I'm responding to your call!" he said: "I would not like to have gold equal to (the mountain of) Uhud for me, of which no single Dinar remains with me for more than three days, except for a single Dinar which I will keep for repaying debts. I will spend all of it among Allah's slaves like this (he pointed in front of him), like this (on his right), and like this (on his left)."

Then, we walked for sometime, after which he said: "O Abu Dharr!" I replied: "Here I'm responding to your call, O Allah's Apostle!" He said: "Those who have much wealth (in this world) will have the least reward (in the Hereafter) except those who do like this, like this and like this (i.e. spend their wealth in charity)." He did the same as he did in the first time.

Then we walked for some time, after which he said to me: "Remain at your place and do not leave it, O Abu Dharr till I come back." He went away until he disappeared from me. I heard some noise, and then I heard a voice and feared that something might have happened to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I intended to go (to detect the matter) but I remembered the statement of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" not to leave my place, so I kept waiting.

When he came back, I mentioned to him what I had heard. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "That was Gabriel who came to me and said: "Whoever among your followers died without joining others in worship with Allah, would enter Paradise." I said: "Even if he had committed fornication and theft?" He said: "Even if he had committed fornication and theft."

33-(...) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once I went out at night and saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" walking alone with nobody in his company. I thought that he might have disliked anybody to accompany him. So I walked in the shade, away from the moonlight. But when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" looked behind he saw me and said: "Who is that?" I replied: "Abu Dharr, let me be sacrificed for you!" He said: "O Abu Dharr! Come here!"

٩ ـ بابُ التَّرْغِيبِ في الصَّدَقَةِ

٣٧ ـ (٩٤) ـ حدّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ وَأَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَابْنُ نُمَيْرٍ وَأَبُو كُرِيْبٍ. كُلُّهُمْ عَنْ أَبِي مُعَاوِيةَ. قَالَ يَحْيَىٰ: أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيةَ، عَنِ الأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ وَهْبٍ، عَنْ أَبِي ذَرِّ؛ قَالَ: كُنْتُ أَمْشِي مَعَ النَّبِيِّ عَلَيْ فِي حَرَّةِ الْمَدِينَةِ عِشَاءً وَنَحْنُ نَنْظُرُ إِلَى أُحُدٍ. فَقَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْ: «يَا أَبَا ذَرِّ»، قَالَ: قُلْتُ: لَبَيْكَ وَنَحْنُ نَنْظُرُ إِلَى أُحُدٍ. فَقَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْ: فَيَا أَبَا ذَرِّ»، قَالَ: قُلْتُ: لَبَيْكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ عَنْدِي ذَهَبٌ أَمْسَىٰ ثَالِثَةً عِنْدِي مِنْهُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ فِي عِبَادِ اللَّهِ هَكَذَا ـ حَثَا بَيْنَ دِينَارٌ، إِلاَّ دِينَاراً أُرْصِدُهُ لِدَيْنٍ، إِلاَّ أَنْ أَقُولَ بِهِ فِي عِبَادِ اللَّهِ هَكَذَا ـ حَثَا بَيْنَ يَدِينِهِ ـ وَهُكَذَا ـ عَنْ شِمَالِهِ ـ». قَالَ: ثُمَّ مَشَيْنَا فَقَالَ: «يَا أَبَا ذَرِّ»

قَالَ: "إِنَّ الأَكْثَرِينَ هُمُ الأَقَلُونَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ إِلاَّ مَنْ قَالَ هٰكَذَا وَهٰكَذَا وَهٰكَذَا» مِثْلَ مَا صَنَعَ فِي الْمَرَّةِ الأُولَىٰ. قَالَ: ثُمَّ مَشَيْنَا. قَالَ: "يَا أَبَا ذَرِّ، كَمَا أَنْتَ حَتَّىٰ آتِيكَ» قَالَ: فَانْطَلَقَ حَنَى تَوَارَى عَنِّي. قَالَ: شَمِعْتُ لَغَطاً وَسَمِعْتُ صَوْتاً. قَالَ: فَقُلْتُ: لَعَلَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ عَيْثَ عُرِضَ لَهُ. قَالَ: فَهَمَمْتُ أَنْ أَتَبِعَهُ. قَالَ: ثُمَّ ذَكَرْتُ قَوْلَهُ: "لاَ تَبْرَحْ حَتَّىٰ آتِيكَ». قَالَ: ثُمَّ ذَكَرْتُ قَوْلَهُ: "لاَ تَبْرَحْ حَتَّىٰ آتِيكَ». قَالَ: فَقَالَ: "فَقَالَ: "ذَاكَ حَتَّىٰ آتِيكَ». قَالَ: فَقَالَ: هَنْ مَاتَ مِنْ أُمَّتِكَ لاَ يُشْرِكُ بِاللَّهِ شَيْئًا ذَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ. قَالَ: قُلْتُ: وَإِنْ سَرَقَ». وَإِنْ سَرَقَ؟ قَالَ: قَالَ: قُلْتُ اللهِ شَيْئًا ذَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ. قَالَ: قُلْتُ: وَإِنْ سَرَقَ؟ قَالَ: سَرَقَ؟ قَالَ: اللهِ عَلْمَ مَاتَ مِنْ أُمَّتِكَ لاَ يُشْرِكُ بِاللَّهِ شَيْئًا ذَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ. قَالَ: قُلْتُ: وَإِنْ سَرَقَ؟ قَالَ: قَالَ: قَلْنَ وَإِنْ سَرَقَ؟ .

فَقَالَ: «مَنْ هٰذَا؟» فَقُلْتُ: أَبُو ذَرِّ، جَعَلَنِي اللَّهُ فِدَاءَكَ. قَالَ: «يَا أَبَا ذَرِّ، تَعَالَهْ» قَالَ: فَمَشَنْتُ مَعَهُ سَاعَةً. So I accompanied him for a while after which he said: "The rich people are in fact the poor (little rewarded) on the Day of Judgement except the person whom Allah gives wealth which he gives (in charity to whomever he finds) on his right, on his left, in front of him, and on his back, and with which he does good deeds." I walked with him sometime longer. Then he said to me: "Sit down here." So he made me sit in an open space surrounded by rocks, and said to me: "Sit here till I come back to you." He went towards Al-Harra until I could not see him, where he stayed away for a long time.

Sometime later, while he was coming back, I heard him saying: "Even if he committed theft and fornication?" When he came, I could not keep patient and asked him: "O Allah's Prophet! Let Allah make me sacrificed for you! Whom were you talking to by the side of Al-Harra? I heard none responding to your talk." He said: "It was Gabriel who appeared to me beside Al-Harra and said: "Give the good tidings to your followers that whoever dies without having associated in worship anything with Allah, will enter Paradise." I said: "O Gabriel! Even if he committed theft or fornication?" He said: "Yes." I said: "Even if he committed theft or fornication?" He said: "Yes." I said: "Even if he committed theft or fornication?" He said: "Yes, and even if he committed the sin of drinking wine."

[10] What about the hoarders of wealth and their grievous punishment

34-(992) Al-Ahnaf Ibn Qais narrated: I came to Medina, and while I was in the company of some chiefs from Quraish, sitting in a (form of) circle, a man with very rough hair, clothes, and appearance came and stood in front of us, greeted us and said: "Inform those who bury wealth, that a stone will be heated in the Hell-fire and will be put on the nipples of their breasts till it comes out from the bones of their shoulders and then put on the bones of their shoulders till it comes through the nipples of their breasts. The stone will be moving and hitting." After saying that, the people lowered their heads, and none replied to him. Then, he retreated and I followed him until he sat by the side of the pillar. I said to him: "I think the people disliked what you had said." He said: "These people do not understand anything. However, my friend (The Prophet) Abu Al-Qasim called me: "O Abu Dharr! Do you see the mountain of Uhud?" On that I started looking towards the sun to judge how much remained of the day as I thought that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wanted to send me to do something for him. I said: "Yes! " He said: "I would not like to have gold equal to it (i.e. the mountain of Uhud) unless I spend it all (in Allah's cause) except for three Dinars." Then, those people do not

فَقَالَ: «إِنَّ الْمُكْثِرِينَ هُمُ الْمُقِلُّونَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ إِلاَّ مَنْ أَعْطَاهُ اللَّهُ خَيْراً فَنَفَحَ فِيهِ يَمِينَهُ وَشِمَالَهُ، وَبَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَوَرَاءَهُ، وَعَمِلَ فِيهِ خَيْراً» قَالَ: فَمَشَيْتُ مَعَهُ سَاعَةً. فَقَالَ: «اجْلِسْ هَاهُنَا».

35-(...) Al-Ahnaf Ibn Qais narrated: While I was sitting with some chiefs of Quraish, Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" came and said: "Give glad tidings to the hoarders of wealth that their backs would be branded to the extent that it (the hot Iron) would come out of their sides, and when their napes would be branded, it would come out of their foreheads." He then went away and sat down. I asked about him. They said: "He is Abu Dharr." I went to him and said: "What is that which I heard from you?" He said: "I said nothing but only what I heard from their Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." I said: "What do you say about this gift?" He said: "Take it, for today it is a support. But when it becomes a price for your religion, then leave it."

[11] Exhortation to spend (in Allah's way) and giving the spender the glad tidings of having the compensation (for what he spent)

36-(993) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" related that Allah, the Most Blessed and Exalted, said: "O son of Adam, spend, I will spend on you." He said: "The right hand of Allah is full and overflowing; and nothing would diminish it, by overspending day and night."

37-(...) Hammam Ibn Munabbih, the brother of Wahb Ibn Munabbih, narrated: This is what Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" told us from the traditions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (He mentioned some traditions, including the following). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: Allah said to me: "Spend, I will spend on you." Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The right hand of Allah is full and overflowing; and the overspending by day and night would not diminish it. Do you not see what He has spent since He created the heaven and the earth? No doubt, what is in His Right Hand has not decreased. His Throne is on the water. In His other hand is death, and He elevates and degrades (whomever He wills)."

[12] The virtue of spending on one's family and servants, and the sin of him, who neglects or withholds their sustenance

Abu Qilaba (a sub-narrator) said: "He started with the family." Then, he commented: "Which man would have more reward than him, who spends on young (members of a) family, in order to protect and save them, by which Allah would benefits them, and make them rich?"

39-(995) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(From among the Dinars you spent, i.e.) a Dinar which you spent in the way of Allah, a Dinar which you spent to emancipate a slave, a Dinar you gave in charity to a needy one, and a Dinar you spent on your family, the one for which you would have the greatest reward, is that, which you spent on your family."

40-(996) Khaithama narrated: While we were sitting with Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both", there entered his warden, to whom he said: "Did you give the provision to the slaves?" He answered in the negative. He said: "Go and give it to them. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is enough for a man to have a sin that he keeps from the one whom he owns his sustenance"."

[13] In spending, one should start with himself, then his family, and then his kith and kin

41-(997) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: A person from (the tribe of) Banu Udhra emancipated a slave after his death. This news reached the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Upon this he asked: "Do you have any property in addition to it?" He replied in the negative. He asked: "Who would buy (that slave) from me?" Nu'aim Ibn Abdullah Al-Adawi bought it for eight hundred Dirhams, which he brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He (The Prophet) gave the money to him (the owner) and said: "Start with yourself and spend on it. If anything is left, it should be spent on your family. If anything is left from your family it should be spent on your kith and kin. If anything is left from your kith and kin, it should be spent like this, and like this,, i.e. (on whomever you find) In front of you, on your right and on your left."

(...)Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a man from the Ansar called Abu Madhkur manumitted a slave of his called Ya'qub (on condition that it would come into force) after death...(and the rest of the Hadith is the same as that of Al-Laith).

[14] The virtue of spending on, and giving in charity one's kith and kin, spouse, children, and parents, even if they are not believers

42-(998) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Abu Talha had more property of date-palm trees gardens than anyone amongst the Ansar in Medina, the most beloved of which to him was Bairuha garden, and it was in front of the Mosque of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to go there and drink from its nice water. Anas added: When this verse was revealed: "By no means shall ye attain righteousness unless ye give (freely) of that which ye love; and whatever ye give, of a truth Allah knoweth it well" (Al Imran 92) Abu Talha said to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Allah's Apostle! Allah, the Blessed, the Superior says: "By no means shall ye attain righteousness unless ye give (freely) of that which ye love." No doubt, Bairuha garden is the most beloved of all my property to me. So I want to give it in charity in Allah's Cause. I expect its reward from Allah. O Allah's Apostle! Spend it where Allah makes you think it feasible." On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bravo! It is a profitable property. It is a profitable property. I heard what you said (O Abu Talha), and I think it would be proper if you gave it to your Kith and kin." Then Abu Talha distributed that garden amongst his relatives and his cousins."

43-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When the following Verse was revealed: "By no means shall ye attain righteousness unless ye give (freely) of that which ye love; and whatever ye give, of a truth Allah knoweth it well" (Al Imran 92), Abu Talha said (to The Prophet): "I think that our Lord asks us (to give in charity) from our property. So, I make you witness, O Messenger of Allah, that I gave the garden of Bairuha (in charity) for the sake of Allah." He (The Prophet) said: "Then, give it to your kith and kin." So, he (Abu Talha) distributed it between Hassan Ibn Thabit and Ubai Ibn Ka'b.

44-(999) Kuraib narrated that Maimuna "Allah be pleased with her", daughter of Al-Harith, manumitted a slave-girl (for the sake of Allah) during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When she mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he said: "Had you given her (in charity) to your maternal uncles, it would have been more yielding of your reward."

45-(1000) Zainab, the wife of Abdullah said: I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "O women! Give in charity, even from your ornaments." I returned and said to Abdullah: "You

62-(1013) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The earth will throw out (what is buried in it of such valuable treasures as) pieces of its liver like cylinders of gold and silver. # [19] Accepting the charity which comes from the good earnings, and its growth

- 63-(1014) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No one, who gives something in charity from a good (earnings) –and Allah never accepts but what is good- but that (Allah) The Most Gracious will (accept it and) take it with His Right Hand; and if it is (even as little as) a single date, it will grow in the Hand of (Allah) The Most Gracious until it becomes more huge than the mountain, the same as anyone of you fosters his mare or camel."
- 64-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No one, who gives (even) a single date in charity from a good earnings, but that (Allah) The Most Gracious will (accept it and) take it with His Right Hand and foster it, as well as anyone of you fosters his mare or camel, until it becomes like a mountain or greater."

Verily, Allah is good, and He never accepts but good. No doubt, Allah has given the faithful believers the same order he had given to His Messenger, when He said: "O ye messengers! Eat of the good things, and do right. Lo! I am Aware of what ye do." (The Believers 51) He also said: "O ye who believe! Eat of the good things wherewith We have provided you, and render thanks to Allah if it is (indeed) He Whom ye worship." O Lord!" but, his (source of) food is unlawful, his drink is unlawful, his clothes are unlawful and his nourishment is unlawful. How can then his invocation be responded to?

[20] Exhortation to give in charity, even half a date, or (by saying) a good word, for it will be a veil from the fire (of Hell)

Then he said: "Any of you should save himself from the fire even by giving half a date-fruit (in charity). Whoever finds nothing, then (he can do it through saying) a good pleasant word (to his brethren)."

69-(1017) Al-Mundhir Ibn Jarir narrated from his father: While we were sitting with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the early hours of the morning, some people came in. they were barefooted, naked, wearing striped woollen clothes, or cloaks, carrying their swords. Most of them, if not all of them, were from (the tribe of) Mudar. The colour of the face of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed when he saw them in such a state of poverty. He entered (his home) and came out ordering Bilal (to call to prayer). He made a call to prayer, and then to the prayer establishment. Then, he (The Prophet) offered prayer (leading his Companions). Then he delivered a sermon, in which he recited: "O mankind reverence your guardian Lord, who created you from a single person, created, of like nature, his mate, and from them twain scattered (like seeds) countless men and women; reverence Allah, through whom ye demand your mutual (rights), and (reverence) the wombs (that bore you): for Allah ever watches over you." (Women 1) he also recited the following Verse from the Sura of Mustering: "O ye who believe! Fear Allah, and let every soul look to what (provision) he has sent forth for the morrow. Yea, fear Allah: for Allah is well acquainted with (all) that ye do." (the Mustering 18).

Then, (they started giving in charity.) Some gave a Dinar, others gave a Dirham, others gave clothes, others gave a Sa of wheat, some gave a Sa of dates, and so on until he (The Prophet) said: "(Give) even if it is (as little as) half a date." One from the Ansar came there with a moneybag, which his hands could hardly, if not, carry. Then the people followed (giving in charity) continuously, till I saw two heaps of food and clothes. I saw the face of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as glittering as gold (because of happiness). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who lays the foundation of a good tradition in Islam, will receive a reward for this (good tradition) and reward of anyone, who acts upon it subsequently, and that will reduce nothing from their rewards; and he who lays the foundation of an evil tradition in Islam, will bear the burden of it, and the burden of anyone who acts upon it subsequently, and that will reduce nothing from their burden."

[23] The example of the charitable and the miser

75-(1021) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The example of a miser and a charitable is like the example of two persons wearing two iron cloaks on them from their breasts to their collar bones. When the charitable (or the almsgiver) wants to give in charity, the cloak becomes capacious. When the miser wants to spend, it (the iron cloak) sticks and every ring gets stuck to its place. As for the almsgiver, it covers his whole body to such an extent that it hides his fingertips and covers his footprints." Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" said: He (the miser) tries to widen it (the iron cloak), but it does not become wide."

When the almsgiver wants to give in charity, the cloak becomes capacious till it covers his whole body to such an extent that it hides his fingertips and covers his footprints. When the miser intends to give in charity, it (the iron cloak) sticks and every ring gets stuck to its place. Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" said: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying, with his fingers in his pocket (to illustrate the great effort made by the miser to widen the iron cloak): "If you see him trying to widen it, it will not become wide."

[24] The almsgiver would receive a reward for his charity, even if it was taken by its improper people

78-(1022) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A man said: "Tonight, I'm going to give something in charity." He went out with his object of charity and unknowingly gave it to an adulteress. Next morning the people said that he had given his object of charity to an adulteress. So he again went out with his charity and (unknowingly) gave it to a rich man. Next morning the people said that he had given his charity to a rich man. The man said: "O Allah! All the praises be to you. (I gave my charity) to a rich man. I'm going to give in charity once again." So he went out with his charity again and (unknowingly) gave it to a thief. (The people) next morning said that he had given his charity to a thief. He said: "O Allah! All the praises be to you. (I had given charity) to an adulteress, to a wealthy man and to a thief." Then it was said to him: "As for your (object of) charity which you gave, it was accepted (by Allah, for which you would receive a reward). The (object of) charity you gave to the adulteress might make her abstain from adultery, the (object of) charity you gave to the wealthy man might make him take a lesson from it and spend his wealth which Allah has given him (in Allah's cause), and the (object of) charity you gave to the thief might make him abstain from stealing.""

[27] Gathering (the two characteristics of) giving in charity and doing good deeds

85-(1027) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever gives a pair (of things or property) in charity for Allah's Cause, will be called from the gates of Paradise and will be addressed: "O slave of Allah! That (gate) is better (for you, so come and enter through it)." So, whoever was amongst the people who used to offer their prayers, will be called from the gate of the prayer; whoever was amongst the people who used to participate in Jihad, will be called from the gate of Jihad; whoever was amongst those who used to give in charity, will be called from the gate of charity; and whoever was amongst those who used to observe fasts, will be called from the gate of Ar-Raiyyan." Abu Bakr said: "Let my parents be sacrificed for you, O Allah's Apostle! No distress or need will befall him who will be called from those gates. Will there be any one who will be called from all these gates?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Yes, and I hope you will be one of them."

99-(1038) Wahb Ibn Munabbih narrated from his brother Hammam that Mu'awiya said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Do not beg unrelentingly, for, by Allah, none of you asks me for something, and such a begging of his results in something he takes from me disapprovingly would be blessed in what I gave him."

[36] The one for whom begging is lawful

109-(1044) Oabisa Ibn Mukhariq Al-Hilali said: I (loaned some money in order to make peace among some people and) became in debt. I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and begged him for something in that respect. He said: "Wait until the charity is brought to us, so that we would order that something be given to you." Then, he said: "O Oabisa! (You should know that) begging is not lawful except for one of the following three types of persons: If one brought debt upon himself (in order to make such things as to make peace among people), begging would be lawful for him till he fulfills it, after which he must stop begging; if one was befallen by a catastrophe, which destroyed his property, begging would be lawful for him till he gets what sustains him or provides him with reasonable subsistence; and if a person was struck by poverty, as confirmed by three intelligent men of his people saying: "Soand-so was befallen by a great poverty), then, begging would be lawful for him till he gets what sustains him or provides him with fair subsistence. O Qabisa! Except for those three types, begging is forbidden, and the One who practices it does what is forbidden."

[37] It is lawful to accept what is given (to you), with neither begging nor greediness

110-(1045) Salim Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar narrated from his father: I heard Umar "Allah be pleased with him" saying: Whenever Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave me something, I would say to him: "would you give it to a poorer and more needy one than me?" once, he gave me some property, and I said to him: "would you give it to a poorer and more needy one than me?" We also used to recite a Sura resembling one of the Suras starting with glorification, which I was made to forget, except for the following statement which I remember from it: "Oh people who believe! Why do you say that which you do not do?...That is recorded in your necks as a witness (against you) and you would be asked about it on the Day of Judgement.""

[40] One's richness never lies in the abundance of goods

[41] Feeling afraid of what would be brought out of the luxuries of the world

121-(1052) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed the people saying: "No, by Allah! I am not afraid for your sake but of what Allah would bring to you out of the pleasures and splendours of the world." Somebody said: "O Allah's Apostle! Can the good bring forth evil?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" remained silent for a while, after which he said (to the questioner): "What did you say?" he said: "I said: O Messenger of Allah! Can the good bring forth evil?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "(Real) good never brings forth but good. Indeed whatever grows on the banks of a water-stream either kills or nearly causes the animal to perish (particularly because of eating from it so much), except that animal which eats the vegetation, and when its flanks are swollen (out of satisfaction), it faces the sun, then chews its cud, defecates, urinates, and returns to eat again. So, whoever takes that wealth rightly, would be blessed in it, and whoever takes it with no right, would be like the one who eats, but is never satisfied."

٤١ ـ باب تخوّف ما يخرجُ من زَهْرَة الدنيا

الما الله المنه ا

122-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The thing of which I am afraid most for your sake is what Allah would bring to you out of the pleasures and splendours of the world." We asked: "What are the pleasures and splendors of the world, O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "They are the blessings (natural resources) of the earth." They asked once again: "O Messenger of Allah! Does good brings forth evil?" he said: "Good never produces but good. Good never brings forth but good. whatever grows on the banks of a water-stream either kills or are about to kill the animals, except that (animal) which eats the vegetation, and when its flanks are swollen, it faces the sun, then defecates, urinates and chews its cud, and returns to eat once again. No doubt this wealth is (as fresh as) sweet fruit. So, if one took it rightly, and spent it rightly, then what a good support it would be (for him)! and whoever took it with no right, he would be like the one who eats but is never satisfied."

123-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat on a pulpit and we sat around him. Then he said: "The things of which I am afraid most for your sake (concerning what will befall you after me) are the pleasures and splendours of the world and its beauties which will be disclosed to you." Somebody said: "O Allah's Apostle! Can the good bring forth evil?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" remained silent for a while. It was said to that person: "What is wrong with you? You are talking to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he is not talking to you." Then we noticed that he was being inspired divinely. Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wiped off his sweat and said: "Where is the questioner?" It seemed as if The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" praised him (for his question). Then he said: "Good never brings forth evil. Indeed whatever grows on the banks of a water-stream either kills or makes the animals sick, except that (animal) which eats its fill vegetation, and when its flanks are swollen, it faces the sun, then chews its cud, urinates and grazes again. No doubt this wealth is (as fresh as) sweet fruit. Blessed is the wealth of a Muslim from which he gives the poor, the orphans, the needy, and the travellers. (Or The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said something similar to it) He who takes it illegally will be like the one who eats but is never satisfied, and his wealth will be a witness against him on the Day of Judgement."

[42] The merit of abstention (from begging) and of patience

124-(1053) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Some people from among the Ansar asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to give them something), and he gave them. They again asked him and he gave them once again, until what he had was used up. Then, he said: "Whatever good (such as wealth, goods or so) I have, I will not withhold from you. He who abstains from begging, Allah protects him against need; he who seeks for independence (from asking people), Allah causes him to be independent; and he who proves to be patient, Allah supports him to be patient. None is endowed with anything better and greater than endurance."

127-(1056) Salman Ibn Rabie'a narrated: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" said: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed some property among some people. I said: "By Allah, O Messenger of Allah, there are some else, who have more right to take this property than those (among whom you distributed it)." He (The Prophet) said: "They (begged me so much importunately to the extent that they) forced me to choose whether (they would) ask me awkwardly, or they would accuse me of stinginess; and I'm not a miser."

128-(1057) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I was walking with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who was wearing a Najrani garment with a thick border. A Bedouin met him and pulled the garment so violently that I saw the traces of its border on the neck of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" because of this violent pulling. Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to them:" You will find after me, others given preference over you. Then be patient till you meet Allah and His Apostle; and I will be (expecting you) at The Fount (in Paradise)." They said: "We will keep patient."

- 133-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gathered the Ansar and said to them: "Is there anyone else other than you?" they replied: "No, except for one, who is a son of our sister." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, a son of the people's sister belongs to them." Then he said: "The people of Quraish are still close to the period of ignorance (since they embraced Islam very recently), and they are still suffering from a calamity. So, I wanted to help them, and make their hearts adhere (to Islam). Won't you be pleased to see the people returning with the world (fortune) and you will return with The Messenger of Allah to your houses? If the people took their way through a valley, and the Ansar took their way through a mountain pass, I would take my way through the mountain pass of the Ansar."

Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the day of the Conquest of Mecca, when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had given (from the booty) the Quraish, the Ansar said: "By Allah, this is indeed very strange. Though our swords are still dribbling with their blood, our war spoils are distributed amongst them." When this news reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he called the Ansar and said: "What is this news that has reached me from you?" They used not to tell lies, so they replied: "What has reached you is true." He said: "Doesn't it please you that the people take the booty to their homes and you take The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to your homes? If the Ansar took their way through a valley or a mountain path, I would follow the Ansar's valley or a mountain path."

135-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the day (of The Holy Battle) of Hunain, the tribes of Hawazin and Ghatafan and others, with their animals and offspring came to fight against The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had with him ten thousand men in addition to some of those who had been set free as Muslims (on The Day of Mecca Conquest). The companions fled, leaving The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" alone. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then made two calls, which were clearly distinguished from each other. He turned right and said: "O community of Ansar!" They said: "We are answering your call, O Messenger of Allah! Rejoice, for we are with you!" Then he turned left and said: "O community of Ansar!" They said: "We are responding to your call! O Messenger of Allah! Rejoice, for we are with you!"

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at that time was riding his white mule. Then he dismounted and said: "I am Allah's Messenger." The infidels then were defeated. On that day The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got a large amount of booty which he distributed amongst the Immigrants and those set free; and he did not give anything to the Ansar. The Ansar said: "When there is a difficulty, we are called, but the booty is given to others than us." The news reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who gathered them in a leather tent and said: "What is this news which reached me from you, O community of Ansar?" They kept silent. He further said: "O community of Ansar! Won't you be happy that the people take the worldly things and you take The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to your homes, keeping him for yourself?" They said: "Yes." Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the people took their way through a valley, and the Ansar took their way through a mountain pass, I would take the Ansar's mountain pass." Hisham said: "O Abu Hamza (Anas)! Did you really attend that (event)? "He replied: "And how could I be absent from it!"

136-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We conquered Mecca and then we went forth to (the holy battle of) Hunain. The pagans came in the best rows I have ever seen. made into rows. We (people) were large in number, and we (Muslims) were six thousand. On one side, Khalid Ibn Al-Walid was leading the cavalry. But, at once our horses turned back from behind us. We could hardly keep steadfast when our horses were exposed. The Bedouins and the people whom we knew retreated.

Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made the following call: "O Emigrants! O Emigrants!" He then. said: "O Ansar! O Ansar!" (Anas said: "This Hadith is narrated by a group of preeminent people.") We said: "Here we are responding to your call, O Messenger of Allah." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proceeded. By Allah, we had not yet reached them when they were defeated by Allah. Then, we seized the wealth and then marched towards Ta'if, which we besieged for forty nights, after which we returned to Mecca and descended (at a certain place). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started to give a hundred camels to each one. (The rest of the Hadith is the same as narrated by Quatada, Abu At-Taiyyah, and Hisham Ibn Zaid).

137-(1060) Abaya Ibn Rafi narrated from Rafi Ibn Khadij: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave Abu Sufyan Ibn Harb, Safwan Ibn Umaiyya, Uyaina Ibn Hisn and Al-Aqra Ibn Habis a hundred camels each. He gave Abbas Ibn Mirdas less than that, upon this, Abbas Ibn Mirdas said (the following poetic verses):

"Have you distributed the share of my booty and my horse among Uyaina and Al-Aqra? However, Neither Badr, nor Habis were more excellent than Mirdas (my father) in the gatherings. I'm not to be less than anyone of them, and whoever is lowered today, would never be raised."

He (the narrator) said: So, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" completed his gift to one hundred (camels).

Umar Ibn Sa'id Ibn Masruq narrated the same Hadith, with the same chain of transmitters, according to which he reported that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed the war booty of Hunain as follows: He gave one hundred camels to Abu Sufyan Ibn Harb...and the rest is the same, with this addition: He gave Alqama Ibn Ulatha one hundred (camels).

139-(1061) Abdullah Ibn Zaid narrated: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" conquered Hunain he distributed the war booty, and he gave those whose hearts are intended to adhere to Truth. He was informed that the Ansar expected to be given the same as the people (of Quraish) had got. Upon this the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up and, after having praised and lauded Allah, he addressed them saying: "O community of Ansar! Did I not find you going astray and Allah guided you aright through me, destitute and Allah made you independent from need through me, and disunited (opposing one another) and Allah united you through me?" They (the Ansar) said: "Allah and His Messenger are more generous."

He said: If you wish, you could say so and so, and the matter was such and such" (and he mentioned many things, Amr (a sub-narrator) alleged that he doesn't memorize them). He (the Prophet) said: "Won't you be pleased that the people should go away with goats and camels, and you would go to your houses with the Messenger of Allah? The Ansar are (as close to me as) the inner garment and (other) people are (like) the outer garment. Had it not been for the migration, I would have been from among the Ansar. If the people were to take their way through a valley or a mountain path, I would follow the valley or the mountain path of the Ansar. Soon, you would find after me people given preference (over you in getting worldly benefits). So you should keep patient until you meet me at the Fount."

140-(1062) Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with him" reported: On the day of Hunain, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" favoured some people in the distribution of the booty (to the exclusion of others); he gave Al-Aqra Ibn Habis one-hundred camels and Uyaina the same amount, and also gave to some of the eminent Arabs preference in this regard. Then a person came and said: "By Allah, in this distribution justice has not been observed, nor has Allah's Pleasure been aimed at." I said (to him): "By Allah, I will inform The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." I went and informed him of what he (this man) had said. (The colour of) his face changed (as red) as blood, and he said: "If Allah and His Apostle did not act justly, who else would act justly? May Allah be merciful to Moses, for he was harmed with more than this, yet he kept patient." Abdullah said: I said (to myself): I would never inform him (The Prophet) of any unpleasant thing afterwards.

Then, he said: "No doubt, Moses was harmed with more than this, yet he kept patient."

142-(1063) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: A person came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at Al-Ji'rana on his way back from Hunain, where there was in the clothes of Bilal some silver, of which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took a handful and distributed it among the people. He (the person) said to him: "O Muhammad! Do justice." He (the Prophet) said: "Woe to you! Who would do justice if I do not do justice! You would be very unsuccessful and loser if I do not do justice."

Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" said: "O Messenger of Allah! Give me permission to kill this hypocrite." Upon this he (the Prophet) said: "I seek refuge with Allah from the fact that people would say that I kill my companions. This man and his companions would recite the Qur'an but it would not go beyond their throats (as they do not act upon it), and they would deviate from it just as the arrow goes through the prey."

(...)Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated, through another chain of transmitters, that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was distributing some war booty...and the rest is the same.

143-(1064) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Ali "Allah be pleased with him" sent from Yemen a piece of gold to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who distributed it among four persons: Al-Aqra Ibn Habis Al-Hanzali, Uyaina Ibn Badr Al-Fazari, Alqama Ibn Ulatha Al-Amiri who belonged to (the tribe of) Banu Kilab and Zaid at-Ta'i who belonged to (the tribe of) Banu Nabhan. So the people of Quraish became angry and said: "He (The Prophet) gives the chiefs of Najd and does not give us." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I give them so as to attract their hearts (to Islam)."

Then a man with a thick beard, prominent cheeks, sunken eyes, a raised forehead, and a shaven head, came (in front of The Prophet) and said: "Be afraid of Allah, O Muhammad!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace

Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "From the offspring of this man, there will be some who will recite the Qur'an but the Qur'an will not reach beyond their throats (because they will recite it without understanding or acting on it). 144-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" sent from Yemen a piece of gold not yet taken out of its ore, in a tanned leather container to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed it amongst four Persons: Uyaina Ibn Badr, Aqra Ibn Habis, Zaid Al-Khail and the fourth was either Alqama or Amir Ibn At-Tufail. On that, one of his companions said: "We are more deserving of this (gold) than these (persons)." When that news reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he said: "Don't you trust me though I am the trustworthy man of the One in the Heavens, and I receive the news of Heaven (revelation) both in the morning and in the evening?"

There got up a man with sunken eyes, prominent cheek bones, raised forehead, a thick beard, a shaven head and a waist sheet that was tucked up and said: "O Allah's Apostle! Be afraid of Allah." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Woe to you! Am I not from amongst all the people of the earth the most entitled to fear Allah?" Then that man went away. Khalid Ibn Al-Walid said: "O Allah's Apostle! Shall I chop off his neck?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No, for he may offer prayers." Khalid said: "There are a lot of those who offer prayers and say by their tongues what is not in their hearts." Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who was distributing some property, there came Dhul-Khuwaisira At-Tamimi and said: "O Allah's Apostle! Do Justice." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Woe to you! Who could do justice if I did not? You would be unsuccessful and loser if I did not do justice."

Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" said: "O Allah's Apostle! Give me the permission to chop off his head." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let him, for he has companions who pray and fast in such a way that you will consider your fasting and prayer inferior to theirs. They would recite the Qur'an but it would not go beyond their collarbones. They will desert (the religion of Islam) as an arrow goes through a prey, so that the hunter, on looking at the arrow's feathers, would see nothing on it. He would look at its blade and see nothing. He would look at its strings and see nothing (neither meat nor blood), for the arrow has been too fast even for the blood and excretions to smear. The sign by which they will be recognized is that among them there will be a black man, one of whose arms (or said one of whose breasts) will resemble a woman's breast or a lump of meat moving loosely. This faction will appear when there will be disputes amongst the people."

Abu Sa'id further said: I testify that I heard this narration from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and I testify that Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" fought with such people, and I was in his company. The man (described by The Prophet) was ordered to be brought. He was looked for, and was found. Then, he was brought, at whom I looked and noticed that he was exactly as The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had described.

149-(1065) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioned a sect that would appear from among his nation when there would be dissension among the people. Their distinctive mark would be shaven heads. They would be the worst creatures or the worst of the creatures. They would be killed by the faction, which, from among the two (opposing) factions, would be much closer to the truth.

١٥٤ _ (١٠٦٦) _ حدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ نُمَيْرٍ وَعَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ الأَشَجُّ. جَمِيعاً عَنْ وَكِيعٍ. قَالَ الأَشَجُّ: حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ: حَدَّثَنَا الأَعْمَشُ، عَنْ خَيْثَمَةً، عَنْ سُويْدِ بْنِ غَفَلَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: إِذَا حَدَّثُتُكُمْ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَلأَنْ أَخِرَّ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ أَحَبُّ إِلَيَّ مِنْ أَنْ أَقُولَ عَلَيْهِ مَا لَمْ يَقُلْ. وَإِذَا حَدَّثُتُكُمْ فِيمَا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ فَإِنَّ الْحَرْبَ خَدْعَةٌ، سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «سَيَخْرُجُ فِي آخِرِ الزَّمَانِ قَوْمٌ أَحْدَاثُ الْحَرْبَ خَدْعَةٌ، سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «سَيَخْرُجُ فِي آخِرِ الزَّمَانِ قَوْمٌ أَحْدَاثُ

beyond their throats (because They will not understand it, or act upon its principles). They will abandon the religion (of Islam) as an arrow goes through the prey. So wherever you meet them, kill them, for he who kills them shall get a reward from Allah on the Day of Judgement."

- (...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, and in this narration, the following statement was not mentioned: "They will abandon the religion (of Islam) as an arrow goes through the prey."
- 155-(...) Abida narrated from Ali "Allah be pleased with him" that he mentioned the religious Secessionists (Khawarij) saying that there would be a person among them with an imperfect or short or fleshy hand. Had you not been uncontrollable, , I would have told you what Allah promised those who would kill them on the tongue of (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I (Abida) asked him: Did you really hear it from (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? He (Ali) said: Yes, by the Lord of Kaba, Yes, by the Lord of Kaba, yes, by the Lord of Ka'ba.
- (...) Abida said: I will not relate to you nothing but what I had heard from him (Ali). Then, he narrated a Hadith like that transmitted by Aiyyub.
- 156-(...) Zaid Ibn Wahb Al-Juhani who was among the army led by Ali "Allah be pleased with him" which set out (to fight) the religious Secessionists (Khawarij) narrated: Ali "Allah be pleased with him" said: O people! I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "There would emerge from among my nation people who would recite the Our'an in such a way that you would regard your recital as insignificant as compared with theirs, your prayer as inferior to theirs, and your fast as unimportant in relation to theirs. They would recite the Qur'an thinking that it would be an evidence in their favour, , though it would be an evidence against them. Their recital does not go beyond their collarbones. They would deviate from Islam just as the arrow goes through the prey."

If the (people of the) army, which would fight them, knew (what great benefit) has been assured to them by their Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", they would completely rely upon this deed. Their (Khawarij's) clear mark is that there would be (among them) a person whose wrist would be with no arm, and the end of his wrist would be fleshy الأَسْنَانِ، سُفَهَاءُ الأَحْلاَمِ، يَقُولُونَ مِنْ خَيْرِ قَوْلِ الْبَرِيَّةِ، يَقْرَؤُونَ الْقُرْآنَ لاَ يُجَاوِزُ حَنَاجِرَهُمْ، يَمْرُقُونَ مِنَ الدَّينِ كَمَا يَمْرُقُ السَّهْمُ مِنَ الرَّمِيَّةِ، فَإِذَا لَقِيتُمُوهُمْ فَاقْتُلُوهُمْ، فَإِنَّا فِي قَتْلِهِمْ أَجْراً لِمَنْ قَتَلَهُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ».

like the nipple of the breast on which there would be white hair. Are you going to proceed towards Mu'awiya and the people of Sham and leave them behind among your children and property (to cause harm)? By Allah, I expect that those are the people (against whom you were ordered to fight). for they shed the forbidden blood, and raided the animals of the people. So go forth in the name of Allah (to fight them).

Salama Ibn Kuhail (a sub-narrator) said: Zaid Ibn Wahb mentioned to me every stage at which they dismounted (and resumed) till we crossed a bridge. Abdullah Ibn Wahb Ar-Rasibi was leading Khawarij when we fought them. He said to his army: "Throw the spears and unsheathe your swords, for I fear that they might attack you as they attacked you on the day of (the battle of) Harura." They went back, threw their spears and unsheathed their swords. The people fought them with spears with the result that they were killed one after another. On that day, only two persons were killed of the people (from among the army of Ali).

Ali "Allah be pleased with him" said: "Look for the one of defective (hand) from among (the dead bodies of) them." They looked for him, but they did not find him. Ali "Allah be pleased with him" himself stood up and (proceeded) until he came to the people who had been killed one after another. He said: "look for them to the last." They found (the dead body of) him near the earth. He (Ali) magnified Allah and said: "Allah told the Truth and His Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reported it."

Then, Abida As-Salmani stood in front of him and said: "O Commander of the Believers! by Allah, with Whom there is no god! Did you really hear this Hadith from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" He said: "Yes, by Allah, with Whom there is no god." He requested him to take an oath thrice and he did.

157-(...) Ubaidullah Ibn Abu Rafi, the freed slave of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: When those of Harura (the Khawarij) set out (and he was in the company of Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him") they said: "There is no judgement but that of Allah." Ali said: "Though this statement is true, it is intended to support falsehood. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" described some people whose characteristics I found in those (Khawarij). They utter the truth with their tongue, but it does not go beyond this part of their bodies (he pointed to his throat). The most hateful one of the creatures of Allah is a black man among them. One of his hand is like the teat of a goat or the nipple of a breast."

When Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" killed them, he said: "Look for (his dead body)." They looked for him, but found nothing. He said: "Go (and look for him) once again. By Allah, neither did I tell a lie, nor was the lie told about me." Ali said this twice and thrice. They then found (the dead body of) him in a hole. It was brought until it was put in front of him (Ali). Ubaidullah said: I was present when this happened and when Ali said what he had said about them. #### [49] The religious Secessionists are the worst of creatures

158-(1067) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "After me, from among my nation (or there will come out from among my nation) some people, who will recite The Qur'an, though it will not go beyond their throats. They will renegade from the religion (of Islam) just as an arrow goes through a prey. Then, they will never return to it. They are the worst of all the creatures."

Ibn As-Samit said: I met Rafi Ibn Amr Al-Ghifari, the brother of Al-Hakam Al-Ghifari, and I said to him: "Tell me about such-and-such a Hadith I heard from Abu Dharr Al-Ghifari." I mentioned it to him. he said: "I also heard it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

159-(1068) Usair Ibn Amr narrated: I asked Sahl Ibn Hunaif: Did you hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioning the religious Secessionists (Khawarij)?" he said: I heard him saying (and he pointed with his hand towards the East): "They are people, who would recite The Qur'an with their tongue, though it would not go beyond their collarbones. They would deviate from the religion (of Islam) just as an arrow goes through a prey."

- 161-(1069) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once Al-Hasan Ibn Ali took a date of the dates given in charity and put it in his mouth. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Kakhin! Kakhin! Throw it! Don't you know that we (Muhammad and his offspring) do not eat what is given in charity?"

[51] Avoiding the appointment of the family of The Prophet to be in charge of the charity

167-(1072) Abd Al-Muttalib Ibn Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith narrated that Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith and Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib met together and said: "By Allah, if we sent these two young boys (I and Fadl Ibn Al-Abbas) to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in order to talk to him, he would appoint them (to be in charge) of some of those charity (jobs). Indeed, they would (collect them and) fulfill (to him) as other (collectors) fulfill and would get a share as other people get." Meanwhile, there came Ali Ibn Abu Talib and stood before them, to whom they mentioned that. Ali Ibn Abu Talib said: "Don't do that. By Allah he (The Prophet) would not do that." Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith turned to him and said: "By Allah! You say so only out of your envy against us. By Allah! When you became the son-in-law of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we had no jealousy against you." Ali said: "Then, send them (if you wish)."

They set out and Ali lay on the bed. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the noon prayer, we preceded him to his chamber beside which we stood till he came out. He took hold of our ears (out of kindness) and said: "Give out what you kept in your chests." He entered (the chamber) and we also entered. On that day, he was in (the house of) Zainab Bint Jahsh (since it was her turn). We urged each other to speak. Then one of us said: "O Messenger of Allah! You are the best and the most pious from among the people, and the best to keep good relations with kith and kin. We have reached the age of marriage. We came so that you would appoint us to be in charge of these charity (jobs). We would fulfill to you just as the (other collectors) fulfill to you, and get our share as others get theirs."

He (The Prophet) kept silent for a long time to the extent that we wished we should talk to him (once again in that matter). At the same time, Zainab pointed to us from behind the curtain not to talk (once again). He (The Prophet) said: "(Accepting) the charity objects is not legal for the family of Muhammad since they are the impurities of people (i.e. by which, they purify their wealth and property). Call to me Mahmiya (and he was in charge of the one-fifth of the booty assigned to the treasury), and Nawfal Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib."

حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي، عَنْ قَتَادَةَ، عَنْ أَنسٍ؛ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ وَجَدَ تَمْرَةً فَقَالَ: «لَوْلاَ أَنْ تَكُونَ صَدَقَةً لأَكْلتُهَا».

قَالَ: فَبَيْنَمَا هُمَا فِي ذٰلِكَ جَاءَ عَلِيُّ بْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ فَوَقَفَ عَلَيْهِمَا، فَذَكَرَا لَهُ ذٰلِكَ. فَقَالَ عَلِيُّ بْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ: لاَ تَفْعَلاَ، فَوَاللَّهِ مَا هُوَ بِفَاعِلٍ، فَانْتَحَاهُ رَبِيعَةُ بْنُ الْحَارِثِ فَقَالَ: وَاللَّهِ، مَا تُصْنَعُ هٰذَا إِلاَّ نَفَاسَةٌ مِنْكَ عَلَيْنَا، فَوَاللَّهِ لَقَدْ رَبِيعَةُ بْنُ الْحَارِثِ فَقَالَ: وَاللَّهِ، مَا تُصْنَعُ هٰذَا إِلاَّ نَفَاسَةٌ مِنْكَ عَلَيْنَا، فَوَاللَّهِ لَقَدْ نِلْتَ صِهْرَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَمَا نَفِسْنَاهُ عَلَيْكَ. قَالَ عَلِيٍّ: أَرْسِلُوهُمَا، فَانْطَلَقَا وَاضْطَجَعَ عَلِيٍّ.

قَالَ: فَلَمَّا صَلَّىٰ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ الظُّهْرَ سَبَقْنَاهُ إِلَىٰ الْحُجْرَةِ فَقُمْنَا عِنْدَهَا حَتَّىٰ جَاءً فَأَخَذَ بِآذَانِنَا ثُمَّ قَالَ: «أَخْرِجَا مَا تُصَرِّرَانِ» ثُمَّ دَخَلَ وَدَخَلْنَا عَلَيْهِ، وَهُوَ يَوْمَئِذٍ عِنْدَ زَيْنَبَ بِنْتِ جَحْشٍ، قَالَ: فَتَوَاكُلْنَا الْكَلاَمَ، ثُمَّ تَكَلَّمَ أَحَدُنَا فَقَالَ: يَهُو يَوْمَئِذٍ عِنْدَ زَيْنَبَ بِنْتِ جَحْشٍ، قَالَ: فَتَوَاكُلْنَا الْكَلاَمَ، ثُمَّ تَكَلَّمَ أَحَدُنَا فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أَنْتَ أَبُرُ النَّاسِ وَأَوْصَلُ النَّاسِ وَقَدْ بَلَغْنَا النِّكَاحَ، فَجِئْنَا لِتُوَمِّرَنَا عَلَىٰ بَعْضِ هٰذِهِ الصَّدَقَاتِ، فَنُؤَدِّيَ إِلَيْكَ كَمَا يُؤَدِّي النَّاسُ وَنُصِيبَ كَمَا يُصِيبُونَ. عَلَىٰ بَعْضِ هٰذِهِ الصَّدَقَاتِ، فَنُؤَدِّي إِلَيْكَ كَمَا يُؤَدِّي النَّاسُ وَنُصِيبَ كَمَا يُصِيبُونَ. قَالَ: فَمَكَتَ طَوِيلاً حَتَّىٰ أَرَدْنَا أَنْ نُكَلِّمَهُ. قَالَ: وَجَعَلَتْ زَيْنَبُ تُلْمِعُ عَلَيْنَا مِنْ وَرَاءِ الْحِجَابِ أَنْ لاَ تُكَلِّمَاهُ. قَالَ: "إِنَّ الصَّدَقَةَ لاَ تَنْبَغِي لاّلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَرَاءِ الْحِجَابِ أَنْ لاَ تُكَلِّمَاهُ. قَالَ: "إِنَّ الصَّدَقَةَ لاَ تَنْبَغِي لاّلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَرَاءِ الْحِجَابِ أَنْ لاَ تُكَلِّمَاهُ. قَالَ: "إِنَّ الصَّدَقَةَ لاَ تَنْبَغِي لاّلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَرَاءِ الْحِجَابِ أَنْ لاَ تُكَلِّمَاهُ. قَالَ: "إِنَّ الصَّدَقَةَ لاَ تَنْبَغِي لالِلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَرَاءِ الْحِجَابِ أَنْ لاَ تُكَلِّمِ الْمُؤَلِي مَحْمِيةً ـ وَكَانَ عَلَى الْخُمُسِ ـ وَنَوْفَلَ بْنَ الْمُعَلِبِ».

They came to him. He (The Prophet) said to Mahmiya: "Marry your daughter to this young man" (i.e. Al-Fadl Ibn Al-Abbas), and he married her to him. He said to Nawfal Ibn Al-Harith: "Marry your daughter to this young man" (meaning me, the narrator, Abd Al-Muttalib Ibn Rabie'a), and he married her to me. He said to Mahmiya: "Pay so much as a dower on behalf of both from this one-fifth of the booty." Az-Zuhri said: He (Abdullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Nawfal) did not mention it (the amount of dower).

168-(...) Abd Al-Muttalib Ibn Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib narrated: Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib and Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib said to Abd Al-Muttalib Ibn Rabie'a and Al-Fadl Ibn Al-Abbas: "Go to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...", and the rest is the same, but with the following addition: Ali spread his garment, on which he lay down and said: "I am the father of Al-Hasan, and I am the chief. By Allah, I would not leave my place until your sons return to you with the answer of that for which you sent them to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." He (The Prophet) said: "Verily those charity objects are the impurities of people, and they are not legal for Muhammad and for the family of Muhammad." He (the narrator) mentioned: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" also said to me: "Call Mahmiya Ibn Jaz", and he belonged to Banu Asad. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had appointed him as a collector of the one-fifth of the booty (assigned to the treasury).

[52] Permissibility of accepting the present by The Prophet and his family from the sons of Hashim and the sons of Abd Al-Muttalib, even if its giver possessed it by way of charity; and if one took the object of charity, then, it would no longer become a charity, and accepting it after that would be permissible by everyone for whom it was prohibited earlier

169-(1073) Juwairiya "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated that once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon her and asked: "Do you have any food?" she replied: "No, by Allah, O Messenger of Allah. We have no food except some bones (covered with meat) of a goat, given in charity to my freed slave." Upon this, he said: "Bring it to me, for it has reached its destination (since it no longer became an object of charity, and in this way, it is lawful for us)."

قَالَ: فَجَاءَاهُ، فَقَالَ لِمَحْمِيَةَ: «أَنْكِحْ لهذَا الْغُلاَمَ ابْنَتَكَ» للْفَضْلِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ لَ فَأَنْكَحَهُ، وَقَالَ لِنَوْفَلِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ: «أَنْكِحْ لهذَا الْغُلاَمَ ابْتَتَكَ» لي له فَأَنْكَحَنِي، وَقَالَ لِنَوْفَلِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ: «أَنْكَحْنِي، وَقَالَ لِمَحْمِيَةَ: «أَصْدِقْ عَنْهُمَا مِنَ الْخُمُسِ كَذَا وَكَذَا».

[10] The time of breaking the fast and ending the day

- 51-(1100) Umar "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the night falls, the day vanishes, and the sun sets, then it is the time for the fasting person to break his fast." Ibn Numair (a sub-narrator) did not mention "then".
- 52-(1101) Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We were in the company of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on a journey during the month of Ramadan. When the sun had sunk, he said to a man: "O so-and-so! Get down and mix powdered parley with water for us." The man said: "The sun (has not set yet), O Allah's Apostle." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" again said to him: "Get down and mix powdered parley with water for us." The man dismounted and mixed powdered parley with water for him. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" drank it and then beckoned with his hand and said: "When the sun sinks from that side, and the night falls from this side, then a fasting person should break his fast."

[11] It is forbidden to keep fasting continuously (without breaking it)

- 55-(1102) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade fasting continuously (without breaking it). They said to him: "But, you keep fasting continuously (without breaking it)." Upon this, he said: "I'm not like anyone of you. I'm provided (by Allah) with food and drink."
- 56-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept fasting continuously (without breaking it) during (the month of) Ramadan. When the companions did the same, he forbade them. It was said to him: "But, you keep fasting continuously (without breaking it)." He said: "I'm not like anyone of you. I'm given food and drink (by Allah)."
- (...) This Hadith was narrated by Ibn Umar from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through another chain of transmitters, but he did not mention here "during (the month of) Ramadan".
- 57-(1103) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade uninterrupted fasting. A man said to him: "But you practice it, O Allah's Apostle!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Who amongst you is similar to me? I am given (the power of the one who is provided with) food and drink during my sleep by my Lord." So, when the people refused to stop observing uninterrupted fasts, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fasted uninterruptedly along with them for a day and then another. Then they saw the new moon (of the month of Shawwal). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to them (angrily): "Had It (the new moon) not appeared, I would have made you fast uninterruptedly for a longer period." That was as a punishment for them when they refused to stop fasting uninterruptedly.
- 58-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Beware of fasting continuously." They said to him: "But you practice it, O Allah's Apostle!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Who amongst you is similar to me in that matter? I am given food and drink during my sleep by my Lord. Do the deeds which you can bear."
- (...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", with the following change of words: "Do those deeds which are within your ability."

59-(1104) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was offering the Prayer during Ramadan. I came and stood by his side. Then another man came and stood likewise till we became a group. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" noticed that we were behind him, he lightened the Prayer. He then went to his dwelling place and offered a Prayer (the length of which) he never offered with us. When it was morning we asked him: "Did you take notice of us during the night?" He said: "Yes, and it was that which led me to do what I did."

He (the narrator) resumed: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started Fasting uninterruptedly at the end of the month (of Ramadan). Many from among his Companions started such an interrupted Fasting. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "What about those men who Fast uninterruptedly? (...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters. Yahya (a sub-narrator) said that Sufyan said: I do not know who said the following statement: "It is the last word of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that should be admitted (since it abrogated what was earlier)."

It was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri with the same chain of transmitters that breaking the fast (in a journey) was the latest of the two commands (of observing fast or leaving it), and it is the last command of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that should be admitted. Az-Zuhri said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reached Mecca in the morning of the thirteenth day of (the month of) Ramadan.

- (...) A Hadith like that narrated by Al-Laith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab, with the same chain of transmitters. Ibn Shihab said: They (the companions) used to adopt the latest order, which was the last of his (The Prophet's) orders, considering it the one, which abrogated the previous ones.
- (...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: During (the month of) Ramadan, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out (aiming at Mecca). He observed fasts until he reached Usfan. He ordered that a cup of water be brought to him, from which he drank openly, in order that the people would see him. Then, he left fasting until he arrived in Mecca. Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" commented: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (did the two things during the journey, i.e. he) observed fasts (for some days of the journey) and left fasting (for some days of the journey too). So, if one wishes, he could observe fast (on journey), and if one wishes, he could leave fasting.
- 89-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Do not criticize the one who observed fasts or the one who left fasting (on journey), because The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (did the two, i.e. he) observed fasts (for some days on journey) and left fasting (for some days).
- 90-(1114) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out to Mecca during (the month of) Ramadan in the year of (Mecca) Conquest.

There were also some among us who sheltered (themselves) against the rays of the sun with the help of their hands. Those who observed Fast fell down (because of their weakness resulting from their fast on journey), and Those who did not observe fast got up, put up the tents and watered the mounts. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Today those who did not observe fast have gone with the reward."

When the people dispersed from him, I said to him: "I would not ask you about what those (people) asked you." Then, I asked him about observing fast on journey. Upon this he said: Once, we set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Mecca, during (the month of) Ramadan. We got down at a certain place, whereas The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You became at a near distance from your enemy, and breaking fast is to make you stronger." So, it was a concession (given to us), but, some from among us kept fasting, and others broke fasting.

Then, we (proceeded on until we) got down at a certain place, whereas he (The Prophet) said: "You are going to meet your enemy in the morning, and breaking fast is to make you more powerful. So, you should break fast" It was also a concession given to us; and we broke our fast. Afterwards, we used to observe fasts while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on journey.

[20] On which day fasting is observed for Ashura

- 132-(1133) Al-Hakam Ibn Al-A'raj narrated: I came to Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" while he was reclining on his mantle which he used as a pillow beside (the well of) Zamzam, to whom I said: "Tell me (on which day one can observe) fast for Ashura?" he said: "When you see the new moon of (the month of) Muharram, count (nine days) and get up fasting in the morning of the ninth day." I asked: "Was it like this that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to fast it?" he answered in the affirmative.
- (...) Al-Hakam Ibn Al-A'raj narrated: I asked Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" while he was reclining on his mantle which he took as a pillow beside (the well of) Zamzam about the fasting of Ashura...and the rest is the same as narrated by Hajib Ibn Umar.
- 133-(1134) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" observed fast on the day of Ashura, and ordered (Muslims) to fast on it, they said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! This is a day which both the Jews and the Christians respect." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When it is the next year, Allah willing, we would observe fast on the ninth day (of Muharram besides that day)." But, it was not until the next year that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had died.
- 134-(...) Abdullah Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If I survive to the coming (year), I would surely observe fast on the ninth (day of Muharram)." He added in the narration of Abu Bakr: "He meant the day of Ashura."

[21] He, who ate on the day of Ashura, should stop (from eating) for the remaining of the day

- 135-(1135) Salama Ibn Al-Akwa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that on the day of Ashura, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a man from (the tribe of) Aslam, to make the following announcement: "He, who intended to fast should observe fast, and he, who (did not intend to fast and) ate should refrain (from eating) until the fall of the night."
- 136-(1136) Ar-Rubaiy Bint Mu'awwidh narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a messenger to the villages of the Ansar surrounding Medina in the morning of the tenth day of Muharram

Since then we used to fast on that day regularly and also make our boys fast. If they cried (for food), we would give them those toys to divert them until they completed their fast.

[22] The forbiddance to fast on the days of Al-Fitr and Al-Adha

138-(1137) Abu Ubaid, the freed slave of Ibn Azhar narrated: I attended the festival "Id" with Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him", who came, offered the prayer, and then (after finishing the prayer) addressed the people saying: "Those are two days, on which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (us) to observe fast, i.e. the day of breaking your fast (after the month of Ramadan), and the day on which you eat from your (sacrifices which you slaughter as) offering to Allah."

139-(1138) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (Muslims) to observe fast on the day of Breaking Fast "Al-Fitr", (following the month of Ramadan) and the day of Sacrifice "Al-Adha".

140-(827) Qaza'a narrated: I heard from Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" a Hadith, which won my admiration. I asked him: "Did you really hear it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he said: "Would then I tell about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" what I did not hear (from him)?" he said: I heard him saying: "The fasting would not be held valid on two days: the day of Sacrifice, and the day of Breaking Fast following (the month of) Ramadan."

141-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade fasting on two days: The day of Breaking Fast "Al-Fitr" and the day of Sacrifice (i.e. tenth of Dhul-Hijja).

الزِّنَادِ، عَنِ الأَعْرَجِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ رضي الله عَنْه، رِوَايَةً، قَالَ: "إِذَا أَصْبَحَ أَحَدُكُمْ up in the morning as fasting, he should neither use obscene language, nor should he do any act of ignorance. If anyone insulted him, or quarreled with him, he should say: "I'm fasting! I'm fasting!""

[30] The excellence of fasting

- Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" said: "All the deeds of the son of Adam are for him except fasting, which is for Me, for which I give rewards." By Him, in Whose Hand is the soul of Muhammad! The unpleasant breath of the fasting person is sweater, in Allah's sight, than the odor of musk."
- 162-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Fasting is a shield (from the fire)."
- 163-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him?" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah said: "All the deeds of the son of Adam are for him, except fasting which is for Me, for which I will give the reward." Fasting is a shield (or protection from the fire and from committing sins). If there comes a day on which anyone of you is fasting, he should avoid using obscene language and raising his voice. If somebody insults or quarrels with him, he should say: "I am fasting." By Him, in Whose Hands my soul is, the unpleasant smell coming out from the mouth of a fasting person is sweater, in the sight of Allah on the Day of Judgement, than the odor of musk. There are two pleasures for the fasting person: When he breaks his fast, he will be pleased because of breaking his fast, and when he meets his Lord, then he will be pleased because of his fasting."
- 164-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every act of the son of Adam would be multiplied, in such a way that every good deed will be recorded as ten to seven hundredfold. Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He," said: "Except fasting, which is done for My sake, for which I give rewards. He abandons his (sexual) desire and diet for My sake." No doubt, the fasting person has two pleasures: One at the time of breaking his fast, and the other at the time of meeting his Lord (on the Day of Judgement). Verily, the unpleasant smell of his (the fasting person's) mouth is sweater, in the sight of Allah, than the odor of musk."

١٨٢ _ (...) _ وحدَّثنا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُحَمَّدِ الرُّومِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا النَّضْرُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدِ: حَدَّثَنَا عِكْرِمَةُ - وَهُوَ ابْنُ عَمَّارٍ - حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَىٰ قَالَ: انْطَلَقْتُ أَنَا وَعَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يَزِيدَ حَتَّىٰ نَأْتِيَ أَبَا سَلَمَةً، فَأَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهِ رَسُولاً، فَخَرَجَ عَلَيْنَا وَإِذَا عِنْدَ بَابِ دَارِهِ مَسْجِدٌ. قَالَ: فَكُنَّا فِي الْمَسْجِدِ حَتَّىٰ خَرَجَ إِلَيْنَا. فَقَالَ: إِنْ تَشَاؤُوا أَنْ تَدْخُلُوا، وَإِنْ تَشَاؤُوا أَنْ تَقْعُدُوا هَاهُنَا. قَالَ: فَقُلْنَا: لاَ. بَلْ نَقْعُدُ هَاهُنَا.

فَحَدِّثْنَا قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ رضي الله عنهما قَالَ: كُنْتُ أَصُومُ الدَّهْرَ وَأَقْرَأُ الْقُرْآنَ كُلَّ لَيْلَةٍ. قَالَ: فَإِمَّا ذُكِرْتُ لِلنَّبِيِّ ﷺ، وَإِمَّا أَرْسَلَ إِلَيَّ فَأَتَيْتُهُ. فَقَالَ لِي: «أَلَمْ أُخْبَرْ أَنَّكَ تَصُومُ الدَّهْرَ وَتَقْرَأُ الْقُرْآنَ كُلَّ لَيْلَةٍ؟» فَقُلْتُ: بَلَىٰ يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ، وَلَمْ أُرِدْ بِذٰلِكَ إِلاَّ الْخَيْرَ. قَالَ: «فَإِنَّ بِحَسْبِكَ أَنْ تَصُومَ مِنْ كُلِّ شَهْرِ ثَلاَثَةَ أَيَّامِ " قُلْتُ: يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ، إِنِّي أُطِيقُ أَفْضَلَ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ. قَالَ: «فَإِنَّ لِزَوْجِكَ عَلَيْكَ حَقًّا، وَلِزَوْرِكَ عَلَيْكَ حَقًّا، وَلِجَسَدِكَ عَلَيْكَ حَقًّا». قَالَ: «فَصُمْ صَوْمَ دَاوُدَ نَبِيِّ اللَّهِ _ ﷺ - فَإِنَّهُ كَانَ أَعْبَدَ النَّاسِ». قَالَ: قُلْتُ: يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ، وَمَا صَوْمُ دَاوُدَ؟ قَالَ: upon you, and your body has a right upon you." Then he (The Prophet) said: "Observe fast like the fasting of David, The Prophet of Allah "Peace be upon him". Indeed, he was the best worshipping one among the people." I asked: "O Prophet of Allah! How is the fasting of David?" he said: "He used to observe fast on a day and leave fasting on another (i.e. to fast on alternate days)."

Then he said: "(On the other hand it is enough for you to) recite The Our'an (and finish it once) every month." I said: "O Prophet of Allah! I have strength to do more than that." He said: "Then, recite (and finish it once) every twenty (nights)." I said: "O Prophet of Allah! I have power to do more than that." He said: "Then, recite (and finish it once) every ten (nights)." I said: "O Prophet of Allah! I have power to do more than that." He said: "Then, recite (and finish it once) every week, and do not do more than that. Indeed, your wife has a right on you, your guests have a right on you, and your body has a right on you." he (Abdullah) said: In this way, when I was vigorous on myself, I was put to difficulty. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "You do not know, perhaps you would live a long life (until you become so much old and weak that you would be forced to bear those hard burdens for a long time)." He (Abdullah) commented: Then, I turned (to live a long life and was obliged to bear those hard burdens) as The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said to me. When I grew old, I wished I had accepted the concession given by The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

- 183-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Abu Kathir with the same chain of transmitters, and he added here after these words "three days monthly", "You would receive, for every good deed, (the reward of) ten times (like it) and that is (equal to) perpetual fasting." He also mentioned that he (Abdullah) said: I said: "What is the fast of David, The Prophet of Allah?" He said: "Half the time (i.e. fasting on alternate days forever)." In this narration, no mention was made of the recital of the Qur'an, and he did not mention that he (The Prophet) said: "Your visitors have a right upon you", but he said: "Your children have a right upon you."
- 184-(...) Abu Salama narrated: Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As "Allah be pleased with both" told: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "(It is enough for you to) recite The Qur'an (and finish it once) every month." I said: "I have strength (to do more)." He said: "Then, recite (and finish it once) every twenty (nights)." I said: "I have power (to do more)." He said: "Then, recite (and finish it once) every week, and do not do more."

[36] It is desirable to observe three fasts monthly, and to fast on the days of Arafat (for the non-pilgrim), Ashura, and on every Monday and Thursday

194-(1160) Mu'adha Al-Adawiyya narrated: I asked A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": "Did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" use to observe three fasts monthly?" she replied in the affirmative. I asked her: "On which days of the month did he use to observe fasts?" she said: "It was of no account to him on which days of the month he would observe fasts."

195-(1161) Imran Ibn Husain "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him (or asked another person and he (Imran) was listening): "O so-and-so! Did you observe any Fasts from the middle of this month (of Sha'ban)?" He said: "No." He (The Prophet) said: "If you left fast, then observe two Fasts."

196-(1162) Abu Quatada narrated: A man came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! How do you fast?" Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became angry. When Umar "Allah be pleased with him" saw his anger, he said: "We have been pleased with Allah as our Lord, Islam as our religion and Muhammad as our Prophet. We seek refuge with Allah from the anger of Allah and the anger of His Messenger." Umar "Allah be pleased with him" went on repeating this statement until his (The Prophet's) anger calmed down.

Then, Umar said: "O Messenger of Allah! What about him, who observes perpetual fasts?" He said: "He (is like the one who) neither fasted nor did he break fast (or said he did not fast and he did not break fast)." He (Umar) asked: "What about him, who fasts for two days and then breaks fast for one day?" He (The Prophet) said: "Could anyone endure that?" He asked: "What about the one who fasts a day and breaks fast on another?" He said: "This is the fast of (The Prophet) David "Peace be upon him"." I'tikaf for the last ten days (of the month); so whoever was in I'tikaf with me should stay at his place of seclusion. I have verily been shown (the date of) this Night (of Qadr) but I have forgotten it. So search for it in the odd nights of the last ten (of this month). I also saw myself (in the dream) prostrating in mud and water."

On the night of the twenty-first, the sky was covered with clouds and it rained, and the rainwater started leaking through the roof of the mosque at the praying place of the Prophet. I saw with my own eyes the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at the completion of the Morning Prayer leaving with his face covered with mud and water.

214-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe I'tikaf (in the mosque) in the middle third of Ramadan...and the rest is the same, but mentioned here that he (The Prophet) said: "let him remain in his place of seclusion", and "with his forehead covered with mud and water."

215-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" observed I'tikaf (in the mosque) in the first ten days (of Ramadan). Then, he observed I'tikaf for the middle ten in a Turkish tent, with a straw mat hanging on its gate. Then, he took the straw mat with his hand, and placed it at a corner of the tent. Then, he put out his head and talked to the people, who came close to him. He said: "I observed I'tikaf in the first ten (days) seeking for this night (of Power). Then, I observed I'tikaf in the middle ten (days seeking for it too). But, (an angel) was sent to me, and I was informed that it would be in the last ten (nights). So, he, who wished to observe I'tikaf, let him do."

So, the people observed I'tikaf with him. He (The Prophet) resumed: "I saw that it would be on an odd night, and that I would prostrate in the morning following it on mud and water." Then, he got up in the morning, following the twenty-first night (of Ramadan). He stood up to offer the Morning prayer. Meanwhile, the sky (was covered with clouds and it) rained. The rainwater started to leak through the roof of the mosque, and I saw both mud and water. After he (The Prophet) had finished the Morning prayer, he went out, with his forehead and nose tip having the traces of mud and water. It was the twenty-first night from among the last ten nights.

216-(...) Abu Salama narrated: We celebrated the Night of Power. I came to Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" who was a friend of mine and said: "Won't you come with us to the garden of datepalms?" he came out, having a square shirt over him. I said to him: "Did you hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" talking about The Night of Power (Qadr)?" He said: "Yes. We observed I'tikaf (in the mosque) in the middle third of the month of Ramadan with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". In the morning of the twentieth of Ramadan, we came out, and The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed us saying: "I was informed of (the date of) The Night of Power but I forgot it (or I was caused to forget it); so search for it in the odd nights of the last ten nights of the month of Ramadan. (In the dream) I saw myself prostrating in mud and water (as a sign). So, whoever observed I'tikaf with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" should return to it with me (for another ten day's)."

So we returned. At that time there was no sign of clouds in the sky. But suddenly a cloud came and it rained till rainwater started leaking through the roof of the mosque, which was made of date-palm leaf stalks. Then the prayer was established and I saw Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prostrating in mud and water and I saw the traces of mud on his forehead."

- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Abu Kathir, with the same chain of transmitters, but with the following slight change of wording: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he had finished the prayer, with the traces of mud on his forehead and nose tip.
- 217-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" observed I'tikaf during the middle ten (days of Ramadan) seeking for the Night of Power, before it was shown to him. When they elapsed, he ordered that the tent should be pulled down. But (a while later) it was shown to him. So, he ordered that the tent should be pitched once again. Then, he came out to the people and said: "O People! The Night of Power was shown to me, and I came out to inform you of it, but there came two men, each of whom was demanding his right from the other, having the Devil with them. So, I forgot it. But, you could seek for it in the last ten nights of Ramadan. Seek for it either in the ninth, in the seventh, or in the fifth (night)."

I (a sub-narrator) said: "O Abu Sa'id! You know the numbers better than us." He said: "Yes, we have more right than you in this respect." I said to him: "Then, tell me what are the ninth, the seventh, and the fifth?" he said: "When twenty one (nights) passed, the next one is the twenty-second, and it is the ninth; and when twenty three (nights) passed, the next one is the seventh; and when twenty five (nights) passed, the next one is the fifth." (Ibn Khallad replaced "each of whom was demanding his right from the other" with "and they were quarreling with one another").

Abdullah Ibn Unais used to say that (the Night of Power is on) the twenty-third night.

No doubt, he knew that it is in Ramadan, particularly in the last ten nights, and that it is, namely, the twenty-seventh night." He (Ubai) took an oath without restrictions (such as to say: "Allah willing") that it is the twenty-seventh night. I (the subnarrator) asked: "On which thing do you depend in saying that, O Abu Al-Mundhir?" he said: "I depend upon the portent or the sign, of which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told us. It is that the sun would rise bright on that day without rays."

Shu'ba (a sub-narrator) had a doubt concerning the statement: "it was that night, on which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to stand for (supererogatory) prayer". That was narrated to me from him by a companion of mine.

222-(1170) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We mentioned the Night of Power while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "Who among you does remember that night, on which the moon appeared like half a bowl?" (It means that it is towards the end of the month. That is because the moon never takes such a form except towards the end of the month).

وَإِنَّمَا شَكَّ شُعْبَةُ فِي هٰذَا الْحَرْفِ: هِيَ اللَّيْلَةُ الَّتِي أَمَرَنَا بِهَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، قَالَ: وَحَدَّثَنِي بِهَا صَاحِبٌ لِي عَنْهُ.

6-(1173) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended to observe I'tikaf, he would offer the Dawn prayer and then enter his place of seclusion. Once, he intended to observe I'tikaf in the last ten (days) of Ramadan. So, he ordered that his tent should be pitched. Then, Zainab ordered that a tent should be pitched for her. Then, some of the wives of The Prophet ordered that tents should be pitched for them. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the Dawn prayer, he looked and saw the tents (of his wives). Upon this he said: "Do you intend to do righteousness?" then, he ordered that his tent should be pulled down, and he left observing I'tikaf in Ramadan, and practiced I'tikaf in the first ten days of Shawwal.

The man was wearing a cloak, which had traces of perfume (or a yellowish colour). The man asked (the Prophet): "What do you order me to perform in my Umra?  Umar, suddenly there came to him a man wearing a woollen cloak and he was perfumed excessively. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! What is your opinion regarding a man wearing a cloak, who assumed Ihram for Umra after applying perfume to his body?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" looked at him and kept silent for a while during which the revelation came down to him. Umar signalled with his hand to Ya'li to come. Ya'li came and put his head (under that cloth sheet) and saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" red-faced and he was snoring for a while. When that state (of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") was over, he said: "Where is him, who asked me about the Umra?" The man was looked for and brought to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "As for the perfume you applied to your body, wash it off your body thrice, and take off your cloak, and then do in your Umra what you do in your Hajj."

On the other hand, Umar screened him, for whenever the Revelation came down to him (The Prophet) Umar would shade him (with a cloth). I had said to Umar "Allah be pleased with him": "I wish I would get in the cloth whenever he was Divinely revealed." When he was Divinely revealed, Umar "Allah be pleased with him" covered him with the cloth. Then, I came to him and put my head in the cloth with him, and I looked at him. When this state was over, he asked: "Where is the one who asked about Umra?" the man stood up to him, to whom he (The Prophet) said: "Put off your cloak, and wash the traces of the scent off your body. Then, do in your Umra what you would have done in your Haji (if you had faced such a problem)."

[2] The places from which Ihram for Hajj and Umra is to be assumed

11-(1181) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made Dhul-Hulaifa as the Miqat (the place from where people could assume Ihram) for the people of Medina, Al-Juhfa for the people of Sham, Qarn Al-Manazil for the people of Najd, and Yalamlam for the people of Yemen. These locations of assuming Ihram are for the people who live in those very places, and besides, for those who come through those places with the intention of performing Hajj and Umra. Whoever is living within these boundaries (i.e. between Mecca and those places of assuming Ihram) can assume Ihram from his (dwelling) place (since he is one of their inhabitants, and it is not necessary for him to go to the very place to assume Ihram), and even the people of Mecca could assume Ihram from it.

٢٥ ـ (١١٨٧) ـ وحدثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ قَالَ: قَرَأْتُ عَلَىٰ مَالِكِ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْمَقْبُرِيِّ، عَنْ عُبَيْدِ بْنِ جُرَيْجِ؛ أَنَّهُ قَالَ لِعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ رضي الله عنهما: يَا أَبَا عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَانِ، رَأَيْتُكَ تَصْنَعُ أَرْبَعاً لَمْ أَرَ أَحَداً مِنْ أَصْحَابِكَ يَصْنَعُهَا. قَالَ: مَا هُنَّ يَا ابْنَ جُرَيْجٍ؟ قَالَ: رَأَيْتُكَ لاَ تَمَسُّ مِنَ الأَرْكَانِ إِلاَّ الْيَمَانِيَيْنِ، وَرَأَيْتُكَ تَلْبَسُ النَّيْعَالَ السَّبْتِيَّةَ، وَرَأَيْتُكَ تَصْبُعُ بِالصُّفْرَةِ، وَرَأَيْتُكَ إِذَا كُنْتَ بِمَكَّةَ أَهَلَّ النَّاسُ إِذَا رَأَوا النَّاسُ إِذَا رَأُوا الْهَلالَ، وَلَمْ تُهْلِلْ أَنْتَ حَتَّىٰ يَكُونَ يَوْمُ التَّرْوِيَةِ.

فَقَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ: أَمَّا الأَرْكَانُ، فَإِنِّي لَمْ أَرَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَمَسُّ إِلاَّ الْيَمَانِيَيْنِ. وَأَمَّا النِّعَالُ السِّبْتِيَّةُ، فَإِنِّي رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَلْبَسُ النِّعَالَ الَّتِي لَيْسَ فِيهَا

Regarding the tanned leather shoes, no doubt I saw Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wearing non-hairy shoes and he used to perform ablution while wearing the shoes (by washing his feet and then putting on the shoes). So I love to wear similar shoes. As for dyeing with yellow, no doubt I saw Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" dyeing with it; that is why I like to dye with it. Regarding Ihram, I did not see Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having assumed Ihram till his mount started proceeding with him (towards Mina, and that was on the eighth of Dhul-Hijja)."

- 26-(...) Ubaid Ibn Juraij narrated: I accompanied Abdullah Ibn Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with both" for twelve times of pilgrimage, whether greater or minor. I said to him: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! I saw you doing four (peculiar) things..." and the rest is the same except the case of assuming Ihram, in connection with which, he differed from the narration of Al-Maqburi.
- 27-(...) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" put his feet in the stirrup, and his mount (stood up and) started proceeding with him, he would start Talbiya at Dhul-Hulaifa.
- 28-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started Talbiya when his she-camel got upright with him.
- 29-(...) Salim narrated that Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" said: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having ridden his mount at Dhul-Hulaifa. Then, he started pronouncing Talbiya when it stood upright with him.

Some of us had assumed Ihram while the others had not. I noticed that some of my companions were watching something, so I looked up and saw an onager. I saddled my horse which I rode and took the spear and whip, but my whip fell down and I asked my companions, who were in the state of Ihram, to pick it up for me, but they said: "By Allah! We, by no means, will help you as we are in a state of Ihram." So, I dismounted and picked it up myself. Then, I rode my horse and attacked the onager from behind a hillock. I stabbed it with my spear and slaughtered it. I then brought it to my companions. Some of them said: "Eat it." While some others said: "Do not eat it." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was ahead of us and I made my horse proceed on (while I was riding it) until I joined him. (I asked him about it and) he replied: "Eat it. Ka'b Ibn Ujra "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that he was in the state of Ihram when he set out in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". then, the lice increased in great number in his head and beard, of which The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was informed. He sent for him, and called the shaver, and he shaved his head. Then he (The Prophet) asked him: "Do you have an offering?" he (Ka'b) said: "I cannot afford for it." He then ordered him to fast three days or feed six persons, with a Sa for each two. Allah revealed in connection with his case in particular: " And whoever among you is sick or hath an ailment of the head must pay a ransom of fasting or almsgiving or offering" (The Heifer 196). But, it came to apply to all Muslims in general afterwards.

[12] It is permissible for the one in a state of Ihram to treat his eyes

89-(1204) Nubaih Ibn Wahb narrated: We set out in the company of Aban Ibn Uthman (while being in the state of Ihram). When we were at Malal (twenty-two or twenty-eight miles from Medina) the eyes of Umar Ibn Ubaidullah became sore. When we reached Rawba the pain increased. He (Nubaih Ibn Wahb) sent to Aban Ibn Uthman to ask him (what to do). He sent to him (telling him) to apply aloes to them, for Uthman "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told that if there was a person whose eyes were sore and he was in the state of Ihram he would apply aloes to them.

90-(...) Nubaih Ibn Wahb narrated that the eyes of Umar Ibn Ubaidullah Ibn Ma'mar grew swollen, and he intended to treat them with antimony. ## [13] It is permissible for the one in the state of Ihram to wash his body and head

91-(1205) Abdullah Ibn Hunain narrated: Abdullah Ibn Abbas and Al-Miswar Ibn Makhrama differed at Al-Abwa. Ibn Abbas said that the one in the state of Ihram could wash his head, while Al-Miswar insisted that he should not do so. Abdullah Ibn Abbas sent me to Abu Aiyyub Al-Ansari whom I found taking a bath between the two wooden posts (of the well) and was screened with a sheet of cloth. Abu Aiyyub asked me who I was. I answered: "I am Abdullah Ibn Hunain and I am sent by Ibn Abbas to Tell us how The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" washed himself while he was in the state of Ihram." Abu Aiyyub caught hold of the sheet of cloth and lowered it till his head appeared before me, and then told somebody to pour water on his head. He poured water on his head. Abu Aiyyub rubbed his head with his hands by bringing them from back to front and from front to back and said: "I saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" doing like this."

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that he should be Washed with water mixed with fused leaves of lote tree and shrouded in two pieces of cloth, and not to apply perfume to him, and to keep his head out (of the shroud). Shu'ba (a sub-narrator) said: Later on, he narrated it to me once again, adding to it: And to keep his head and face out (of the shroud) for he will be resurrected on the Day of Judgement pronouncing Talbiya.

night of Arafat came I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I had assumed Ihram for Umra, what would I do with my Hajj?" he said: "Undo and comb your hair, then leave Umra and assume Ihram for Hajj." When I finished my Hajj, he ordered (my brother) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr (to accompany me to perform Umra). He made me ride behind him, and made me perform Umra from At-Tan'im, in lieu of that which I left.

A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: We set out in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "Whoever among you wants to assume Ihram for Hajj and Umra, let him do, and whoever wants to assume Ihram for Hajj, let him do, and whoever wants to assume Ihram for Umra, let him do." A'isha said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assumed Ihram for Hajj, and so did some people along with him. some people assumed Ihram for both Umra and Hajj, and others assumed Ihram for Umra; and I was one of those who assumed Ihram for Umra.

I was one of those who assumed the Ihram for Umra.

Then, we proceeded on until we reached Mecca. (I got my menses, and) when it was the day of Arafat, I was still menstruating, and I did not finish my Umra. I complained of that to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He told me to postpone my Umra, undo and comb my hair, and to assume the Ihram for Hajj; and I did so. He said: "This is a thing, which Allah has ordained for the daughters of Adam. So do what all the pilgrims do with the exception of the Circumambulation round the House until you get clean."

When we reached Mecca, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered his companions (who had no sacrificial animals with them) to make it Umra (instead of Hajj). So, the people finished their Ihram (after completing the rituals of Umra) except for those, who had the sacrificial animals with them. Indeed, there were sacrificial animals with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Abu Bakr, and Umar, in addition to those wealthy people. Then, they (i.e. those who finished their Ihram) assumed Ihram (for Hajj when they went to Mina on the eighth day of Dhul-Hijja, which is the day of Tarwiya).

When it was the day of Slaughtering Sacrifice "Nahr" I got clean. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered me to offer the Ifada circumambulation. Then, some beef was brought to us, about which I said: "What is it?" they said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sacrificed cows on behalf of his wives." When it was the night of Hasba, I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Everyone is returning with (the reward of) both Hajj and Umra, and I'm returning with (the reward of) Hajj only." Upon this, he ordered (my brother) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr (to accompany me to At-Tan'im), and he made me ride behind him on his camel. I still remember that at this time I was a girl of tender age, and whenever I got drowsy, (I would be inclined to the extent that) my face would touch the bind part of the howdah until we reached At-Tan'im, where I assumed Ihram for Umra, which was in lieu of the Umra (I was obliged to leave, which) the people offered.

The following statement was not mentioned: at this time I was a girl of tender age, and whenever I dozed off, (I would be inclined to the extent that) my face would touch the bind part of the howdah.

123-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: We set out with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assuming Ihram for Hajj, in the months of Hajj, at the time and places of Hajj, and in the nights of Hajj. We dismounted at Sarif (a village ten miles from Mecca). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then addressed his companions and said: "Anyone who has not got the sacrificing animal and likes to do Umra instead of Hajj may do so (Tamattu) and anyone who has got the sacrificing animal should not do so."

A'isha added: Some of them (the companions of The Prophet) who did not have the sacrificial animals with them performed it (the Umra), and others (who had sacrificial animals with them) did not do so. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and some of his companions were resourceful and had Sacrificial animals with them. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to me and saw me weeping and said: "What does make you weep?" I replied: "I have heard your conversation with your companions and I cannot perform the Umra." He asked: "What is wrong with you?" I replied: "I do not offer the prayers (as I have my menses)." He said: "It will not harm you. Keep on with your intention for Hajj and Allah may bestow upon you with it. Indeed, you are one of the daughters of Adam, and Allah has written for you (this state) as He has written it for them."

A'isha added: Then we proceeded for Hajj till we reached Mina and I became clean from my menses. Then I went out from Mina and circumambulated Ka'ba. Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" dismounted at Al-Muhassab (a valley outside Mecca). He called Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr and said to him: "Take your sister outside the sanctuary of Mecca and let her assume Ihram for Umra, and then circumambulate the House, and I will wait for you both here."

He struck my foot as if he was striking the camel. I said to him: "Do you see anyone here?" She added: I assumed Ihram for Umra. When we reached Sarif, she got her menses. We proceeded on till we reached (Mecca) and circumambulated Ka'ba and compassed round Safa and Marwa. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that whoever among us had no sacrificial animal with him should put off Ihram. We asked: "What does that (putting off Ihram) imply?" He said: "It implies to get completely free from the state of Ihram." In this way, we (put off Ihram and) approached our wives, applied perfume and put on our clothes. That was at a distance (as long as to be covered in) four night's from Arafat. Then, we assumed Ihram (for Hajj) on the day of Tarwiya (eighth of Dhul-Hijja).

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" and saw her weeping. He asked: "What is the matter with you?" She said: "The matter is that I got my menses, and the people put off Ihram (after completing the rituals of Umra), but I neither did so, nor did I circumambulate the House. The people are now going for Hajj (and I cannot go)." He said: "It is a matter which Allah has ordained for the daughters of Adam. So, now take a bath and assume Ihram for Hajj."

She did accordingly, and stayed at the places of staying till the menses was over. She then circumambulated Ka'ba, and (compassed round) Safa and Marwa. He (the Prophet) said (to her): "Now both your Hajj and Umra are complete." But, she said: "I feel in my mind that I missed the circumambulation (of Umra) of the House (which I did not do) till I performed Hajj." He (The Prophet) said: "O Abd Ar-Rahman! Take her to At-Tan'im to (make her) perform Umra." That was the night of Hasba.

١٤١ ـ (١٢١٦) ـ وحدّثني مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ حَاتِم: حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ سَعِيدٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي عَطَاءٌ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ جَابِرَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ رضي الله عنهما، فِي نَاسٍ مَعِي. قَالَ: أَهْلَلْنَا، أَصْحَابَ مُحَمَّدٍ ﷺ، بِالْحَجِّ خَالِصاً وَحْدَهُ. قَالَ عَطَاءٌ: قَالَ جَابِرٌ: فَقَدِمَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ صُبْحَ رَابِعَةٍ مَضَتْ مِنْ ذِي الْحِجَّةِ، فَأَمَرَنَا أَنْ نَحِلَّ. قَالَ عَطَاءٌ: قَالَ: intercourse). Ata said: He did not make it obligatory for them, but it became permissible. Jabir resumed) We said: "When only five days remained to Arafat, he (the Prophet) ordered us to have sexual intercourse with our wives. And in this case, we would reach Arafat just after having sexual intercourse (with our wives)." (He (Ata) said: Jabir pointed with his hand, as if I am observing his hand as it moved).

At the same time, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood among us and said: "You know very well that I am the most Allah-fearing, the most truthful and the most pious among you. Had I not brought the sacrificial animals with me, I would also have put off Ihram as you have put off. Had I known earlier what I have come to know later, I would not have brought sacrificial animals with me." So they (the Companions) put off Ihram and so did we, and, in this way, we listened to and obeyed (the order of the Prophet).

Jabir said: Ali came with the tribute (from Yemen). He (the Prophet) asked: "For what did you assume Ihram (i.e. for Hajj and Umra together or Hajj and Umra separately)?" He said: "I assumed Ihram with the same intention as that of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." Thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Offer a sacrificial animal, and keep on the state of Ihram." Ali brought a sacrificial animal for him (The Messenger of Allah).

Suraqa Ibn Malik Ibn Ju'shum said: "O Messenger of Allah! Is it (this concession of putting off Ihram of Hajj or Umra) to be held valid only this year, or is it held valid perpetually?" He said: "It is held valid perpetually."

142-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We assumed Ihram for Hajj with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and when we reached Mecca, he ordered us to make it Umra and put off Ihram. We felt it hard, and we were disturbed by that. This news reached The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". we do not know whether he was Divinely inspired of anything (in connection with this news) or he was informed by the people. He said: "O people! Put off Ihram. Were it not for the sacrificial animals I have with me, I would have done what you did." We put off Ihram, (so completely) that we had sexual intercourse with our wives, and did everything the one who is not in the state of Ihram is permissible to do. When it was the day of Tarwiya (eighth day of Dhul-Hijja), we turned our backs to Mecca and assumed Ihram for Hajj (as we were leaving for Mina).

143-(...) Musa Ibn Nafi reported: I came to Mecca to perform Umra of Tamattu (i.e. to perform Umra firstly, then put off Ihram, and then assume it once again for Hajj). I reached Mecca four days before the day of Tarwiya (eighth of Dhul-Hijja). Some people of Mecca said to me: "Your Haji will be like the Haji performed by Meccans." So I went to Ata Ibn Abu Rabah asking him his view about it. He said: Jabir Ibn Abdullah Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with both" reported: I performed Hajj with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the year when he drove the sacrificial animals with him. The people had assumed Ihram only for Hajj (Ifrad). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered them to finish their Ihram after circumambulating Ka'ba, and between Safa and Marwa and to cut short their hair. Then they would stay there (in Mecca) as non-Muhrim till the day of Tarwiya (eighth of Dhul-Hijja) when they would assume Ihram for Hajj. They were ordered to make the Ihram with which they had come for Umra only. They asked: "How can we make it Umra (Tamattu) as we have intended to perform Haji?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do what I have ordered you. Had I not brought the Sacrifice with me, I would have done the same, but I cannot finish my Ihram till the Sacrifice reaches its destination (by being slaughtered)." So, they did (what he ordered them to do).

144-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We came with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", assuming Ihram for Hajj. But, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to make it Umra, and consequently put off Ihram (after completing the rituals of Umra). He (Jabir) added: But, since he (The Prophet) had the sacrificial animals with him, he was not able to make it Umra.

[18] Offering Hajj and Umra separately "At-Tamattu"

145-(1217) Abu Nadra narrated: Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" used to give permission to the people to offer Umra and Hajj separately (i.e. to assume Ihram for Umra during the months of Hajj, then put off Ihram after completing its rituals, and then assume Ihram for Hajj once again, and it is called) Mut'a. But Ibn Az-Zubair used to forbid it. I mentioned that to Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both", who said: It is through me that this Hadith became in circulation. We performed Hajj and Umra separately "Mut'a" while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's

But The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to make it Umra.

[19] The (Farewell) pilgrimage of The Prophet "p.b.u.h"

147-(1218) Ja'far Ibn Muhammad narrated from his father: We went to Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" who started inquiring about the people (who came with me) till he reached me. I said: "I am Muhammad Ibn Ali Ibn Husain." He placed his hand upon my head and opened my upper button and then the lower one. Then he placed his palm between my breasts (out of compassion). I was still a young man. He said: "You are welcome, O my nephew. Ask about whatever you want." I asked him. indeed, he was blind, and the time of prayer came. He stood up wrapping himself in a mantle, which was so short that whenever he placed its ends upon his shoulders they slipped down. Another mantle was hanging on the clothes rack beside him. He led us in the prayer.

(After he had finished the prayer) I said to him: "Tell me about the Hajj of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." He pointed nine with his hand, and said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stayed in (Medina) for nine years without offering Hajj. Then he announced publicly in the tenth year that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was going to offer Hajj. A great number of people came to Medina, all of whom were eager to follow The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and do the same as his doing.

We set out with him till we reached Dhul-Hulaifa. Asma Bint Umais delivered Muhammad Ibn Abu Bakr. She sent to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asking him: "What should I do?" He said: "Take a bath, bandage your privates and assume Ihram (for Hajj)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered prayer in the mosque and then rode (his she-camel known as) Al-Qaswa. When it stood upright with him at Al-Baida, I stretched my sight as far as it could reach, and I couldn't see in front of me but riders and pedestrians. (I saw also) on my right like this, on my left like this, and behind me like this. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was among us, on whom The Holy Qur'an was being sent down.

It is he, who knows well its (truly right) interpretation. Whatever he did, we also did. He uttered the (statement affirming the) Oneness of Allah: "I'm responding to Your call, O Allah, I'm responding to Your call, You have no partner with You, I'm responding to Your call. All the praises and blessings be to You, All the dominion be for You. You have no partner with You." (LabbaikAllahumma labbaik. Labbaika la sharika laka labbaik. Innalhamda wan-ni'mata laka walmulk. La sharika lak). The people also pronounced their Talbiya, which they used to pronounce, from which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not reject anything. But The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stuck to his own Talbiya.

Jabir said: We did neither have any intention but that of Hajj only, nor did we know (that we would assume Ihram for) the Umra. When we came with him to the House, he touched the corner and circumambulated (Ka'ba seven times), three of which as running and four as walking. Then he went to the Station of Abraham, and recited: "And take the Station of Abraham as a place of prayer." He made the Station between him and the Qibla.

(The narrator said): My father said (and I do not know except that he had mentioned it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") that he recited in the two Rak'as (he offered): "Say: He is Allah, The One and Only" and "say: O unbelievers!" He then returned to the corner (of the Black Stone) and kissed it. He went out of the gate to Safa. When he came near it he recited: "Safa and Marwa are from amongst the signs appointed by Allah." (He said): "I start with what Allah (ordered me to) start."

He first ascended Safa till he saw the House. Facing Qibla, he declared the Oneness of Allah Whom he magnified, and said: "There is no god but فَخَرَجْنَا مَعَهُ حَتَّىٰ أَتَيْنَا ذَا الْحُلَيْفَةِ، فَوَلَدَتْ أَسْمَاءُ بِنْتُ عُمَيْسٍ مُحَمَّدَ بْنَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ، فَأَرْسَلَتْ إِلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ؛ كَيْفَ أَصْنَعُ؟ قَالَ: «اغْتَسِلِي، وَاسْتَنْفِرِي بِتَوْبٍ وَأَحْرِمِي».

فَصَلَّىٰ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ، ثُمَّ رَكِبَ الْقَصْوَاءَ، حَتَّىٰ إِذَا اسْتَوَتْ بِهِ نَاقَتُهُ عَلَى الْبَيْدَاءِ، نَظَوْتُ إِلَىٰ مَدِّ بَصَرِي بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ، مِنْ رَاكِبٍ وَمَاشٍ، وَعَنْ يَمِينِهِ مِثْلَ ذَٰلِكَ، وَعَنْ يَسَارِهِ مِثْلَ ذَٰلِكَ، وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِ مِثْلَ ذَٰلِكَ، وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَمْ يَعْرِفُ تَأْوِيلَهُ، وَمَا عَمِلَ بِهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ عَمِلْنَا بَيْنَ أَظْهُرِنَا وَعَلَيْهِ يَنْزِلُ الْقُرْآنُ. وَهُوَ يَعْرِفُ تَأْوِيلَهُ، وَمَا عَمِلَ بِهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ عَمِلْنَا بِهِ.

فَأَهَلَّ بِالتَّوْحِيدِ «لَبَيْكَ اللَّهُمَّ لَبَيْكَ، لَبَيْكَ لاَ شَرِيكَ لَكَ لَبَيْكَ، إِنَّ الْحَمْدَ وَالنِّعْمَةَ لَكَ وَالْمُلْكَ، لاَ شَرِيكَ لَكَ». وَأَهَلَّ النَّاسُ بِهٰذَا الَّذِي يُهِلُّونَ بِهِ. فَلَمْ يرُدَّ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ تَلْبِيَتَهُ.

قَالَ جَابِرٌ رضي الله عنه: لَسْنَا نَنْوِي إِلاَّ الْحَجَّ. لَسْنَا نَعْرِفُ الْعُمْرَةَ، حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَتَيْنَا الْبَيْتَ مَعَهُ، اسْتَلَمَ الرُّكْنَ فَرَمَلَ ثَلاَثاً وَمَشَىٰ أَرْبَعاً، ثُمَّ نَفَذَ إِلَىٰ مَقَام إِبْرَاهِيمَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلاَمُ فَقَرَأً: ﴿ وَآَيِّذِنُوا مِن مَقَامِ إِبْرَهِ عَمَ مُصَلِّ ﴾ [البقرة: ١٢٥] فَجَعَلَ الْمَقَامَ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ الْبَيْتِ.

فَكَانَ أَبِي يَقُولُ ـ وَلاَ أَعْلَمُهُ ذَكَرَهُ إِلاَّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ ـ: كَانَ يَقْرَأُ فِي الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ: ﴿قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ ﴾، و ﴿قُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْكَافِرُونَ ﴾.

ثُمَّ رَجَعَ إِلَى الرُّكْنِ فَاسْتَلَمَهُ، ثُمَّ خَرَجَ مِنَ الْبَابِ إِلَى الصَّفَا، فَلَمَّا دَنَا مِنَ السَّفَا قَرَأَ: ﴿إِنَّ ٱلصَّفَا وَٱلْمُرُوَةَ مِن شَعَآبِرِ ٱللَّهِ ﴾ [البقرة: ١٥٨] «أَبْدَأُ بِمَا بَدَأَ اللَّهُ بِهِ» فَبَدَأَ بِالصَّفَا، فَرَقِيَ عَلَيْهِ، حَتَّىٰ رَأَى الْبَيْتَ فَاسْتَقْبَلَ الْقِبْلَةَ فَوَحَّدَ اللَّه، وَكَبَّرَهُ وَقَالَ:

Allah, The One, with Whom there is no partner. To Him be the Dominion, and to Him be the praise, and He has Power over everything. There is no god but Allah The One, Who accomplished His promise, enabled His servant to emerge victorious, and (He) Alone defeated the confederates." He invoked (Allah) in that way, reciting such statements thrice. He then descended and walked towards Marwa. When his feet came down in the bottom of the valley, he walked fast. When he started to ascend he walked normally till he reached Marwa, where he did as he had done at Safa.

When it was his last round at Marwa he said: "Had I known earlier what I have come to know later, I would not have driven the sacrificial animals and would have made it Umra. So, whoever among you does not have the sacrificial animal with him should put off Ihram and make it Umra." Suraqa Ibn Malik Ibn Ju'shum got up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Does it apply only to this year or perpetually?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intertwined the fingers (of one hand) into the other and said twice: "The (rituals of) Umra became included in the (ceremonies of) Hajj" (adding): "No, but perpetually and everlastingly."

Ali "Allah be pleased with him" came from Yemen with the sacrificial animals of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and found (his wife) Fatima "Allah be pleased with her" among those who had put off Ihram. She put on dyed clothes and put kohl (in her eyes). He denied that from her. But, she said: "It is my father who ordered me to do so." (He (the narrator) said that Ali used to say in Iraq: I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" showing my disturbance from Fatima for what she had done, in order to ask about the religious verdict of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" concerning what she had told about him. I told him that I was angry with her. He said: "She has told the truth; she has told the truth. Anyway, what did you say when you intended to perform Hajj?" I (Ali) said: "O Allah! I assume Ihram with the same intention as that of Your Messenger." He said: "I have the sacrificial animals with me, so do not put off Ihram."

He (Jabir) said: The number of those sacrificial animals brought by Ali from the Yemen and of those brought by The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was one hundred. Then all the people put off Ihram, and cut short their hair, except The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and those who had the sacrificial animals with them. When it was the day of Tarwiya (eighth of Dhul-Hijja) they went to Mina and assumed Ihram for Hajj. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode and led the Dhuhr, Asr, Maghrib, Isha and Fajr prayers. He waited a little until the sun rose, and ordered that a tent of hair should be pitched for him at (the area of) Namira. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proceeded on, and (the people of) Quraish had no doubt that he would halt at the sacred site "Al-Mash'ar Al-Haram" as they used to do in the pre-Islamic period of ignorance.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proceeded on till he came to Arafat where he found that the tent had been pitched for him at Namira. He halted till the sun had declined. He ordered that (his she-camel) Al-Qaswa should be brought and saddled for him. Then he came to the bottom of the valley, and addressed the people saying: "Verily your blood and property are as sacred and unbreakable as the sanctity of this day of yours, in this month of yours, in this town of yours. Behold! Everything belonging to the Days of pre-Islamic period of Ignorance is to be under my feet, fully abolished.

The blood (claims) of retaliations of the Days of the pre-Islamic period of Ignorance are to be annulled. The first claim of ours on blood of retaliation, which I abolish, is that of Ibn Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith, who was nursed in the tribe of Sa'd and then killed by (the tribe of) Hudhail. The usury of the pre-Islamic period of ignorance is also to be abolished. The first usury of ours I abolish is that of Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib, for it is entirely abolished. Fear Allah concerning women! Verily you have taken them under the protection of Allah, and sexual intercourse with them has been made lawful for you by words of Allah. You also have right over them, i.e. they should not allow anyone whom you do not like to sit on your bed. But if they do that, you can chastise them but not severely. Their rights upon you are that you should fairly provide them with food and clothing.

I have left among you the Book of Allah, and if you hold fast to it, you would never go astray. You would be asked about me (on the Day of Judgement): Then, what would you say?" They (the people) said: "We will testify that you reported (Allah's message), fulfilled (the duties of Prophethood) and presented good (sincere) advice." He (The Prophet) lifted his index finger towards the sky and pointed it at the people, (saying): "O Allah! be witness! O Allah! be witness!" he said it thrice. Then, he (The Prophet ordered Bilal to pronounce Adhan, and he) pronounced Adhan and فَصَلَّىٰ بِهَا الظُّهْرَ وَالْعَصْرَ وَالْمَغْرِبَ وَالْعِشَاءَ وَالْفَجْرَ، ثُمَّ مَكَثَ قَلِيلاً حَتَّى طَلَعَتِ الشَّمْسُ، وَأَمَرَ بِقُبَّةٍ مِنْ شَعَرٍ تُضْرَبُ لَهُ بِنَمِرَةً، فَسَارَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَلاَ تَشُكُ قُرَيْشٌ إِلاَّ أَنَّهُ وَاقِفٌ عِنْدَ الْمَشْعَرِ الْحَرَامِ، كَمَا كَانَتْ قُرَيْشٌ تَصْنَعُ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ، فَأَجَازَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَتَّىٰ أَتَىٰ عَرَفَةً، فَوَجَدَ الْقُبَّةَ قَدْ ضُرِبَتْ لَهُ بِنَمِرَةً، فَنزَلَ بِهَا.

then pronounced the prayer establishment. He (The Prophet) led the Dhuhr prayer. He (Bilal) then pronounced the prayer establishment once again and he (The Prophet) led the Asr prayer. He offered no other prayer in between them.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then rode his she-camel and came to the place of stay, making his she-camel Al-Qaswa turn towards the direction of the rocks, having the path of walkers in front of him, and he was facing the Qibla. He kept staying there till the sun set, the yellow light had gone a little, and the disc of the sun had disappeared. He made Usama ride behind him. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" pulled the nose string of Al-Qaswa so forcefully that its head touched the saddle (in order to have complete control over it). He pointed out to the people with his right hand to be calm (and moderate in speed). Whenever he happened to pass over an elevated tract of sand, he slightly loosened it (the nose string of his shecamel) till it climbed up. He kept doing so until he reached Al-Muzdalifa, where he led the Maghrib and Isha prayers with one Adhan and two calls for prayer establishment. He did not glorify (i.e. offer supererogatory prayers) in between them.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then lay down till the dawn appeared. He offered the Fajr prayer with an Adhan and Iqama when the light of the morning was clear. He rode Al-Qaswa (and proceeded on). When he came to the Sacred Site (Al-Mash'ar Al-Haram), he faced Qibla, supplicated and Glorified Allah, and pronounced His Uniqueness and Oneness (i.e. There is no god but Allah). He kept standing till the daylight was very clear.

He then proceeded on quickly before the sun rose, and made Al-Fadl Ibn Al-Abbas ride behind him, who was a man of beautiful hair, fair complexion and handsome face. While The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was advancing, there was a group of women (walking side by side with them). Al-Fadl started looking at them. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" put his hand on the face of Al-Fadl who turned his face to the other side, and starting looking, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned his hand to the other side and put it on the face of Al-Fadl. He turned his face to the other side till he came to the bottom of Muhassir. He (The Prophet) urged it (al-Qaswa) a little. Taking his way through the middle road, which comes out at the greatest Jamra, he came to the Jamra near the tree, which he threw with seven small pebbles, magnifying Allah with every throwing in a manner in which the small pebbles are thrown (with fingers) and he did so in the bottom of the valley.

He then went to the place of sacrifice, and sacrificed sixty-three (camels) with his own hand, and confided to Ali to slaughter the rest, whom he made share sacrifice with him. He then ordered that a piece of flesh from each sacrificial animal should be put in a pot. Then, it was cooked, from which both of them (The Prophet and Ali) ate some meat and drank its soup. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode and came to the House, and offered the Dhuhr prayer at Mecca. He came to the sons of Abd Al-Muttalib, who were supplying water (to the people) at Zamzam. He said (to them): "Draw water O sons of Abd Al-Muttalib! But for the fact that people would overpower you in your right of supplying water, I would have drawn it with you." They gave him a bucket (full of water) from which he drank.

Ja'far Ibn Muhammad narrated from his father: I came to Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" and asked him about the (Farewell) Pilgrimage of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...and the rest is the same, but with the following addition: It was Abu Sayyara among the Arabs (during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance) who used to carry (people from Muzdalifa to Mina). When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out from Muzdalifa to Al-Mash'ar Al-Haram, (the people of) Quraish had no doubt that he would halt there and that it would be his place of stay. But he passed on (without staying) there, and paid no attention to it until he came to Arafat where he stayed.

150-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" arrived in Mecca, he came to the (Black) Stone, which he kissed. Then, he started walking (in circumambulation) to his right. He made three circuits as walking fast, and four as walking normally.

[21] What about the stay, in view of Allah's saying: "Then pass on at a quick pace from the place whence it is usual for the multitude so to do"

151-(1219) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: (The people of) Quraish (during the Pre-Islamic period of ignorance) and those who followed their religious practices stayed at Al-Muzdalifa, and they named themselves as Hums (strictly religious radicals), whereas all other Arabs stayed at Arafat. When Islam appeared, Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He" ordered His Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to come to Arafat and stay there, and then pass on a quick pace from there. This is the meaning of Allah's saying: "Then pass on at a quick pace from the place whence it is usual for the multitude so to do." (The Heifer 199)

152-(...) Urwa narrated: During the Pre-Islamic period of Ignorance, the Arabs used to circumambulate Ka'ba naked except the Hums (strictly religious radicals), that is Quraish and their offspring. They used to circumambulate as naked except if Quraish gave them clothes. The men among them used to give clothes to the men, and the women (of Quraish) used to give women., The Hums (of Quraish) used not to get out of Muzdalifa, but all the people used to go to Arafat. Hisham added: My father narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" had said: The following verse was revealed by Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He" in connection with the Hums: "Then pass on a quick pace from the place whence it is usual for the multitudes so to do." (Heifer 199) she said: the people used to depart from Arafat, while they (those of Quraish) used to depart from Al-Muzdalifa, saying: "We would not depart except from the Sanctuary." But, when Allah revealed: "Then pass on a quick pace from the place whence it is usual for the multitudes so to do", they went to (depart from) Arafat.

153-(1220) Jubair Ibn Mut'im "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I lost my camel and went in search of it on the day of Arafat, and I saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" staying along with people in Arafat. I exclaimed: "By Allah ,he is from the Hums

[22] Abrogating the permissibility of putting off Ihram before completing (both Hajj and Umra)

154-(1221) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I came upon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he was at Al-Batha. He asked me: "Have you intended to perform Hajj?" I replied in the affirmative. He asked: "For what have you assumed Ihram?" I replied: I have assumed Ihram with the same intention as that of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You have done well! Go and circumambulate the House and compass round Safa and Marwa, and then put off Ihram (since you did not bring the sacrificial animals with you)." Then I circumambulated the House, compassed round Safa and Marwa, and went to one of the women of Banu Qais who took out lice from my head. Then, I assumed Ihram once again for Hajj.

So, I used to give this religious verdict (to the people concerning this matter) till the Caliphate of Umar "Allah be pleased with him" when a person said to him: "O Abu Musa, or O Abdullah Ibn Qais! Stick to restraint in giving some religious verdicts of yours, for you do not know what has been made after you by the Commander of the Believers in the rituals (of Hajj)." He said: "O people! Whomever we gave the religious verdict (concerning putting off Ihram) let him wait, for the Commander of the Believers is going to come to you, and you should follow him."

Umar "Allah be pleased with him" then came to whom I mentioned that, whereupon he said: "If we follow the Holy Book, then it orders us to complete (the rituals of Hajj and Umra). If we follow the tradition of Allah's Apostle then Allah's Apostle did not finish his Ihram till the sacrifice had reached its destination (by being slaughtered)."

Later on, he (Abu Musa) met and asked him (Umar about that). Umar said: "I know that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions did that (Hajj At-Tamattu), but I dislike that they (men) might have sexual intercourse with their wives under the shade of the trees, and then set out for Hajj with their heads dripping water."

[23] The permissibility of (offering Hajj) Al-Mut'a

158-(1223) Abdullah Ibn Shaqiq narrated: Uthman "Allah be pleased with him" used to forbid (offering Hajj) Al-Mut'a, but Ali "Allah be pleased with him" used to permit it. Uthman said something to Ali, whereupon Ali said: "You know that we offered (Hajj) Al-Mut'a while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." he replied: "Yes, but we were afraid."

- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters.
- 159-(...) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated that Ali and Uthman "Allah be pleased with both" met at Usfan. Uthman used to forbid offering (Hajj) At-Tamattu and Umra (during the months of Hajj), whereupon Ali said: "Do you forbid but a matter which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did?" Uthman said: "Let's alone!" he (Ali) said: "I cannot let you alone." When Ali saw this, he assumed Ihram for both (Hajj and Umra together).
- 160-(1224) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: (Practicing) Mut'a in Hajj was particular for the companions of (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".
- 161-(...) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: It (practicing Mut'a in Hajj) was a concession given to us.
- 162-(...) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" told: "The two types of Mut'a have not been held valid but for us in particular." He meant the temporary marriage with women and offering Hajj At-Tamattu.

Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Ash-Sha'tha narrated: I met Ibrahim At-Taimi and Ibrahim An-Nakh'i, to whom I said: "I intend to offer both Hajj and Umra together this year" (in the form of Tamattu). [24] Offering sacrifice is obligatory for the one who continued Umra unto Hajj (if he could afford it), and if he could not afford it, he should fast three days during Hajj in addition to seven when he returns

174-(1227) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: in the Farewell pilgrimage of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he continued Umra onto Hajj. He drove the Sacrificial animals along with him from Dhul-Hulaifa. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started by pronouncing his response to Allah's call for Umra "Talbiya" and then he pronounced the response to Allah's call for Hajj. The people, too, continued the Umra onto Hajj along with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Some of them brought the Sacrifice and drove it along with them, while the others did not.

So, when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" arrived in Mecca, he said to people: "Whoever among you has driven the Sacrifice, should not finish his Ihram till he completes his Hajj. Whoever among you has not (driven) the Sacrifice with him, should circumambulate the House and compass round Safa and Marwa, then cut short his hair and finish his Ihram, and should later assume Ihram for Hajj; but he must offer a Sacrifice. If anyone cannot afford a Sacrifice, he should fast for three days during the Hajj and seven days when he returns home."

Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" circumambulated the House on his arrival in Mecca. He touched the (Black Stone) corner first of all and then walked fast with moving the shoulders during the first three rounds of the seven, and during the last four rounds he walked (normally). After finishing circumambulation of Ka'ba, he offered a two-rak'a prayer at Abraham's Station. Then he went to Safa and Marwa and compassed them round seven times and did not do any deed forbidden because of Ihram, till he finished all the ceremonies of his Hajj and slaughtered his sacrifice on the day of slaughtering (tenth of Dhul-Hijja). He then hastened onwards (to Mecca) where he circumambulated the House and then everything that was forbidden because of Ihram became permissible. Those who took and drove the sacrifice with them did the same as Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did.

175-(1228) Urwa narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told him about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he continued Umra onto Hajj and so did the people along with him the same as Salim narrated to me, from Abdullah (Ibn Umar) "Allah be pleased with him" about The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

He circumambulated the House seven times and compassed between Safa and Marwa seven times. (He made all of that once for both Hajj and Umra) without no addition to it since he thought it to be sufficient for him. Then, he offered sacrifice.

181-(...) Nafi narrated that both Salim Ibn Abdullah and Abdullah Ibn Abdullah talked to (their father) Abdullah (when he intended to set out for Hajj) at the time Al-Hajjaj came to fight Ibn Az-Zubair), saying: "There would be no harm for you if you did not (set out and) offer Hajj this year. However, we are afraid that the fighting would break up among the people, with the result that you might be detained from (reaching) the House." He said: "If I'm detained from it (the House), I would do the same as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did, and I was with him, when the pagans of Quraish detained him from the House. Indeed, I make you witness that I made the Umra obligatory for me."

He set out until he reached Dhul-Hulaifa, where he assumed Ihram for Umra and said: "If I'm left (to reach the House), then, I would perform my Umra, and if I'm detained from it, I would do the same as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did, and I was with him." then he recited (Allah's saying): "Verily, you have in The Messenger of Allah a beautiful pattern." Be witness that I made Hajj obligatory for me along with Umra."

Then, he proceeded and bought a sacrificial animal from (the place of) Qudaid. (When he reached Mecca) he offered (a seven-round) circumambulation round the House and between Safa and Marwa for both (Hajj and Umra). He did not put off Ihram (from Umra) until he finished from Hajj on the day of Slaughtering Sacrifice.

He should not put off Ihram (from Umra) until he finishes from both of them.

182-(...) Nafi reported: Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" intended to perform Hajj in the year when Al-Hajjaj attacked Ibn Az-Zubair. It was said to Ibn Umar: "There is a danger of a looming war between them, and we are afraid that you might be detained (from the House)." Ibn Umar said: "Verily, in Allah's Apostle you have a beautiful pattern. (And if it happened as you say) then I would do the same as Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had done. I make you witness that I have decided to perform Umra."

Then he set out and when he reached Al-Baida, he said: "The ceremonies of both Hajj and Umra are similar. I make you witness that I have made Hajj compulsory for me along with Umra." He drove (to Mecca) a sacrifice, which he had bought from (a place called) Qudaid. Then, he proceeded on, pronouncing Talbiya for both until he reached Mecca. He circumambulated the House and compassed between Safa and Marwa, and did not do more than that. He neither slaughtered the sacrifice, nor did he put off Ihram, nor did he shave or cut short his hair. (In other words) he did not do anything from which he was prohibited because of being in the state of Ihram till the day of slaughtering the sacrifices (tenth of Dhul-Hijja). He slaughtered his sacrifice and shaved his head. Indeed, he regarded his first circumambulation as sufficient for Hajj and Umra. Ibn Umar said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did so."

183-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Aiyyub, from Nafi, from Ibn Umar, and The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was mentioned only in the beginning of the Hadith.

[27] Offering Hajj and Umra solely or jointly

184-(1231) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We assumed Ihram for Hajj solely with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (according to the narration of Yahya, and according to the narration of Ibn Awn, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assumed Ihram for Hajj solely).

185-(1232) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" pronouncing the response to Allah's call "Talbiya" for both Hajj and Umra jointly. Bakr (a sub-narrator) said: I told that to Ibn Umar who said: "He pronounced Talbiya for Hajj solely." Later, I met Anas and told him of what Ibn Umar had said. Upon this Anas said: "You deal with us but as children! I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying:

186-(...) Bakr Ibn Abdullah narrated that Anas "Allah be pleased with him" told that he saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having combined both (i.e. Hajj and Umra jointly). Bakr (a subnarrator) said: I asked Ibn Umar (about that) and he said: "WE assumed Ihram for Hajj solely." I returned to Anas and told him of what Ibn Umar had said. Upon this he said: "(You deal with us) as if we were children!"

[28] What is obligatory for the one who assumes Ihram for Hajj and then enters Mecca, concerning circumambulation

187-(1233) Wabara narrated: I was sitting with Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" when a man came and asked him: "Could I circumambulate the House before going to the place of stay (at Arafat)?" Ibn Umar answered in the affirmative. The man said: "But Ibn Abbas says: Do not circumambulate the House until you have come the place of stay (at Arafat)." Upon this Ibn Umar said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered Hajj, in which he circumambulated the House before he came to the place of stay. Then, would you rather stick to the tradition of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" or to the statement of Ibn Abbas, if you are truthful?"

188-(...) Wabara narrated: A man asked Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": "Could I circumambulate the House, after I had assumed Ihram for Hajj?" He said: "What does prevent you from doing so?" He said: "I saw the son of so-and-so denying it. However, you are dearer to us than him, since he is fascinated by the world." He said: "Who among you and us is not fascinated by the world?" He further said: "We saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having assumed Ihram for Hajj in which he circumambulated the House and then compassed between Safa and Marwa. No doubt, the tradition set by Allah and that prescribed by His Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is more entitled to be followed than that of so-and-so, if you are truthful."

189-(1234) Amr Ibn Dinar narrated: We asked Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" about a man who came to perform Umra, in which he circumambulated the House, but did not compass between Safa and Marwa: Is he able to (put off Ihram and consequently) approach his wife? Upon this he said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came (for Umra) and circumambulated the House seven times, offered a two-Rak'a prayer behind the station of Abraham, compassed between Safa and Marwa seven times; and verily, there is, in The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", a beautiful pattern for you."

[29] If one (who assumed Ihram for Umra and Hajj jointly) circumambulated the House and compassed between Safa and Marwa should not put off Ihram (before completing all rites of Hajj)

190-(1235) Muhammad Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that a man from the people of Iraq said to him: "Ask Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair on my behalf about a man who assumed Ihram for Hajj, and then he circumambulated the House, could he put off Ihram? If he said to you that he could not put off Ihram, tell him that there is a certain man who adopts such an opinion." I asked him and he replied: "The one who assumed Ihram for Hajj should not put off Ihram except (when he finish all the rites of) Hajj." I said to him: "There is a certain man, who adopts that opinion." He said: "What a bad opinion he adopts."

Then, the man met me and I mentioned him what he (Urwa) had said. He said to me: "Tell him then that a certain man narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had done so. Furthermore, why did Asma and Az-Zubair do so?" I came to him (Urwa) and mentioned that to him. he said to me: "Who is that man (who asked you)?" I said: "I do not know." He (Urwa) said: "Then, why does he not come to me to ask me by himself? I think he is an Iraqi man." I said: "I do not know." He said: "However, he has told a lie.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performed Hajj, and A'isha told me that the first thing he started with when he reached Mecca was that he performed ablution, and then he circumambulated the House. Later Abu Bakr performed Hajj and the first thing he started with was to circumambulate the House, and it was not Umra (alone). Then Umar did the same. Then Uthman performed Hajj and the first thing he started with was to circumambulate the House and it was also not Umra (alone). Then Mu'awiya and Abdullah Ibn Umar did the same. Then I saw The Emigrants and Ansar doing the same and it was not Umra only. The last person I saw doing the same was Ibn Umar, and he did not break it with another Umra. Now here is Ibn Umar present amongst the people! Why do they not ask him or anyone of the previous ones? All these people, on entering Mecca, would not start with anything but that they would circumambulate the House, and would not put off Ihram (before completing the rites of Hajj). No doubt, I saw my mother and my aunt, on entering Mecca doing nothing before circumambulating the House, and they would not put off Ihram (before completing the rites of Hajj). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever has sacrificial animals with him should keep on his state of Ihram, and whoever has no sacrificial animals with him should put off Ihram." Since I had no sacrificial animals with me, I put off Ihram. But Az-Zubair had sacrificial animals with him. So, he did not put off Ihram.

evening we assumed Ihram for Hajj." Harun said in his narration "the freed slave of Asma" and did not mention "Abdullah".

[30] Concerning the Mut'a in Hajj

194-(1238) Muslim Al-Qurri narrated: I asked Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" about the Mut'a in Hajj, and he permitted it. But, Ibn Az-Zubair forbade it. He (Ibn Abbas) said: "This is (Asma) the mother of Ibn Az-Zubair confirming that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had permitted it, so you'd rather go to her and ask her about it." He (Muslim) said: We entered upon her and she was a bulky blind woman. (When we asked her) she said: "No doubt, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" permitted it."

195-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters.

196-(1239) Muslim Al-Qurri narrated that he heard Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assumed Ihram for Umra (along with Hajj), and his companions assumed Ihram for Hajj. In this way, neither The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" nor his companions who had sacrificial animals with them put Ihram. But, the rest of them (who drove no sacrificial animals with them) put off Ihram (after completing the rites of Umra). However, Talha Ibn Ubaidullah was among those who drove sacrificial animals with them. So, he did not put off Ihram.

197-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters, with the following change: From among those who had no sacrificial animals with them, a mention is made of Talha Ibn Ubaidullah and another man. So, they put off Ihram.

[31] Permissibility of offering Umra in the months of Hajj

198-(1240) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The people (of the Pre-Islamic Period) used to think that to perform Umra during the months of Hajj was one of the major sins on earth. They also used to consider the month of Safar as a forbidden (Sacred) month and they used to say: "When the wounds of the camel's back heal up (after they return from Hajj), the signs of those wounds vanish, and the month of Safar passes away, by then Umra is permissible for the one who wishes to perform it." In the morning of the fourth of Dhul-Hijja, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions reached Mecca, assuming Ihram for Hajj. But he ordered his companions to make it (the intention of Ihram) for Umra only (instead of Hajj). So, they considered his order as something great and were puzzled, and said: "O Allah's Apostle! What kind of putting off Ihram is allowed?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Put off Ihram completely (like a non-Muhrim who is allowed everything)."

- 199-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assumed Ihram for Hajj. He came when four days had passed from Dhul-Hijja, and offered the Morning prayer. After he had finished the prayer, he said (to his companions): "Whoever likes to make it (the intention of Ihram) for Umra, then let him make it Umra."
- 200-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters. As for Rawh and Yahya Ibn Kathir, they mentioned in their narration, as Nasr did: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assumed Ihram for Hajj. According to the narration of Abu Shihab: We set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", pronouncing Talbiya for Hajj. All of their narrations agreed on the fact that he offered the Morning prayer at Al-Batha, except for Al-Jahdami, who did not mention that.
- 201-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions came (for Hajj) when four days had passed from the first ten (of Dhul-Hijja), while they were pronouncing Talbiya for Hajj. He ordered them to make it Umra.
- 202-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the Morning prayer at Dhu-Tawa. Then, when four days of Dhul-Hijja had passed, he ordered his companions to turn their Ihram for Hajj into Umra, except for those who had sacrificial animals with them.
- 203-(1241) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "This is Umra of which we took advantage. So, whoever had no sacrificial animals with him, let him put off Ihram completely, for indeed, the Umra became included in Hajj until the Day of Judgement."
- 204-(1242) Abu Jamra Ad-Dab'i narrated: I intended to perform Hajj of Tamattu and the people advised me not to do so. I asked Ibn Abbas "Allah

[32] Garlanding and marking the sacrificial animals on assuming Ihram

205-(1243) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered Dhuhr prayer at Dhul-Hulaifa. Then, he ordered that his (sacrificial) shecamel should be brought to him, which he marked (by making a small wound) in the right side of its hump, and removed the blood from it. Then, he tied two sandals round its neck. Then, he rode his mount, and when it stood upright with him at Al-Baida, he pronounced Talbiya for Hajj.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Quatada, with the same chain of transmitters, but mentioned here: When The Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to Dhul-Hulaifa...and did not say that he offered Dhuhr prayer at it.

206-(1244) Abu Hassan Al-A'raj narrated that a man from sons of Hujaim said to Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both": "What is this religious verdict of yours which has attracted the people or which has become controversial among them that the one who circumambulated the House can put off Ihram?" he said: "This is the tradition of your Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", even if you deny it (or accept it with humiliation)."

207-(...) Abu Hassan narrated: It was said to Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" that this matter had attracted the people (or had become in circulation among the people), i.e. that the one who circumambulates the House is permitted to circumambulate for Umra (even though his Ihram is assumed for Hajj). He said: "This is the tradition of your Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", even if you deny it (or accept it with humiliation)."

208-(1245) Ata narrated: Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" used to say: "No one, whether offering Hajj or Umra, circumambulates the House but that he could put off Ihram (after that)." I (Ibn Juraij, a subnarrator) said: "From which authority does he say that?" he said: "He says it on the authority of Allah's saying: "In the end their place Of Sacrifice is Upon this he (Jabir) said: "We practiced it (that of Hajj) while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and then Umar forbade us to do it. So, we did not practice it again.

[36] The excellence of offering Umra in Ramadan

- 221-(1256) Ata narrated: I heard Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" saying: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked an Ansari woman (Ibn Abbas named her but Ata forgot her name): "What prevented you from performing Hajj with us? " She replied: "We have two camels used for carrying water. The father of so-and-so and his son (she meant her husband and her son) offered Hajj on one and left one for us to use for carrying water." He said (to her): "Perform Umra when Ramadan comes, for Umra in Ramadan is equal to Hajj (in reward)."
- 222-(...) Ibn Abbas saying: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked an Ansari woman called Umm Sinan: "What prevented you from performing Hajj with us? "She replied: "There were only two camels used for carrying water owned by so-and-so (meaning her husband). He and his son offered Hajj on one, and the other was left to be used for irrigation." He said (to her): "Then, Umra (offered) in Ramadan is equal to Hajj or Hajj with me (in reward)."
- [37] It is desirable to enter Mecca from the upper side, and get out from it through the lower side, and it is desirable to enter the town through a way different from that through which one gets out from it
- 223-(1257) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to come out (from Medina) via Ash-Shajara way and enter via Mu'arras way. Furthermore, whenever he intended to enter Mecca, he would enter from the upper side, and (whenever he got out from it) he would get out from the lower side.
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned in the narration of Zuhair: From the side, which is at Batha.
- 224-(1258) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to Mecca, he entered it from its upper part, and got out from its lower part.
- 225-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: In the year of the conquest of Mecca, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered Mecca from Kada at the higher place of Mecca. (Hisham, a sub-narrator said: " My father (Urwa) used to enter (Mecca) from both (i.e. Kada and Kuda) though he often entered through Kada)."

[38] It is desirable to spent the night at Dhu-Tawa when one intends to enter Mecca, and it is desirable to take a bath on entering it, and it is better to enter it by day

226-(1259) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" spent the night in Dhu-Tawa till it was morning when he entered Mecca. Nafi told that Abdullah used to do the same. In the narration of Ibn Sa'id, he said: Until he offered the Morning prayer. Yahya said: Or until it was morning.

227-(...) Nafi narrated: Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" did not come to Mecca but that he passed the night at Dhu-Tawa until it was morning. Then, he would take a bath and enter Mecca by day. He told that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did so.

228-(...) Nafi narrated that Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" told him that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to descend at Dhu-Tawa, on his way to Mecca. He used to stay the night till he got up (in the morning) to offer The Dawn prayer. The praying place of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was on a rough hillock, other than the place in which the mosque was built later, but at the lower side of that, on a rough hillock.

229-(1260) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had faced the two hillocks which intervene between him and the long mountain towards the direction of Ka'ba. In this way, the mosque, which was established there, was at the left of the hillock. Lower of that, there was the place of prayer of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the black hillock. He used to leave ten cubits or so from the hillock and then he would pray, facing the two hillocks of the long mountain, which is between you and Ka'ba.

[39] It is desirable to walk fast in the circumambulation of Umra and in the first circumambulation of Hajj

230-(1261) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the first circumambulation round the House, he would walk fast (with moving the shoulders) in the first three rounds (of the seven), and walk (normally) in the remaining four. He also used to run in the bottom of the valley (between Safa and Marwa), whenever he compassed between Safa and Marwa. Ibn Umar used to do the same.

254-(1273) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" circumambulated the House while he was riding his camel during the Farewell Hajj. He touched the Stone with his crook-headed stick in order that the people would see him, and he would be prominent, so that they would be able to ask him (questions concerning religious matters) because the people had gathered (in great numbers) around him.

Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" circumambulated the House and between Safa and Marwa while he was riding his camel during the Farewell Hajj, in order that the people would see him, and he would be prominent, so that they would be able to ask him (questions concerning religious matters) because the people had gathered (in great numbers) around him. In the narration of Ibn Khashram, there is no mention of "In order to ask him".

256-(1274) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: During the Farewell, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" circumambulated round the House, while being on his camel, and touched the Corner (of the Black Stone) because he disliked that the people would be driven away from him.

257-(1275) Abu At-Tufail narrated: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" circumambulating the House, touching the Corner (of the Black Stone) with the crook-headed stick he had, and then kissing this crook-headed stick.

258-(1276) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: I complained to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that I was sick. He told me to perform circumambulation from behind the people while riding. I did so while Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was praying beside Ka'ba and reciting the Sura of AtTur, starting with "By At-Tur! And by a certain lined book!"

٤٣ ـ باب بيان أن السَّعْيَ بين الصَّفَا والمَرْوَة رُكْنٌ لا يَصِحُّ الحَجُّ إلا به عَنْ هِشَام بْنِ ٢٥٩ ـ (١٢٧٧) ـ حدِّثنا يَحْيَىٰ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنْ هِشَام بْنِ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ. قَالَ: قُلْتُ لَهَا: إِنِّي لأَظُنُّ رَجُلاً، لَوْ لَمْ يَطُفْ بَيْنَ الصَّفَا round Safa and Marwa, there will be no harm to him (as regards Hajj)." She asked: "Why (do you think so)?" I said: "For Allah says: "Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah. So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times should compass them round, it is no sin in them. And if any one obeyeth his own impulse to good - be sure that Allah is He Who recogniseth and knoweth." (Heifer 158)

She said: "Allah never regards as complete the Hajj or Umra of a person in case he does not compass between Safa and Marwa. Were it so as you said, then, the statement would have been: "There is no sin for him if he does not compass them round." Do you know the occasion (in connection with which this verse was revealed)? The Ansar in the Days of Ignorance used to assume Ihram for two idols (lying) on the bank of the river, which were called Isaf and Na'ila. The people used to go there, and then compass between Safa and Marwa and then got their heads shaved. When Islam appeared, they (Muslims) disliked compassing between them as they used to do during the Days of Ignorance. It was on this occasion that Allah, "Exalted and Hallowed be He", revealed: Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah. So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times should compass them round, it is no sin in them. And if any one obeyeth his own impulse to good - be sure that Allah is He Who recogniseth and knoweth."" She said: "Then, the people began to compass.

260-(...) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that he said to A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": "I think there will be no harm to me if I do not compass round Safa and Marwa (as regards Hajj)." She asked: "Why (do you think so)?" I said: "For Allah says: "Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah. So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times, should compass them round, it is no sin in them. And if any one obeyeth his own impulse to good - be sure that Allah is He Who recogniseth and knoweth." (Heifer 158)

upon this she said: "Were it so as you said, then, the statement would have been: "There is no sin for him if he does not compass them round." But in fact, this divine inspiration was revealed concerning the Ansar who used to assume Ihram for an idol called "Manah" (near the place of Qudaid) which they used to worship during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, and whoever assumed Ihram (for the idol), would consider it not right to compass round Safa and Marwa. When they (embraced Islam and) came with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for Hajj, they mentioned that to him. So Allah revealed this Verse. By my life! Allah never regards as complete the Hajj or Umra of one if he does not compass between Safa and Marwa."

261-(...) Sufyan narrated: Urwa said: I said to A'isha, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "I think there would be no harm to him who did not compass round Safa and Marwa, and as for myself, I never mind whether or not I compass round them." Upon this, she said: "What a bad statement you had said, O my nephew! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the Muslims compassed (between them) and it became Sunna. Indeed, (it was the habit that) whoever assumed Ihram for (the idle of) Manat (whose worshipper were) disobedient, which was at Al-Mushallal, should not compass round Safa and Marwa. When Islam came, we asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. So, Allah revealed: "Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah. So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times, should compass them round, it is no sin in them. And if any one obeyeth his own impulse to good - be sure that Allah is He Who recogniseth and knoweth." (Heifer 158) Were it so as you said, then, the statement would have been: "There is no sin for him if he does not compass them round."

Az-Zuhri said: I mentioned that to Abu Bakr Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Hisham, who admired it and commented: That is the perfect knowledge. I heard many religious scholars saying: Those, from among the Arabs, who did not compass round Safa and Marwa, used to say: Our compassing between those two stones is a matter, which belonged to the days of ignorance. Others from the Ansar said: We have been ordered to circumambulate round the House, and not co compass between Safa and Marwa. So, Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" revealed: ""Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah." Abu Bakr Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman said: I think it was revealed in connection with both.

262-(...) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated: I asked A'isha "Allah be pleased with her"...and the rest is the same, according to which, it was mentioned: They asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that, saying: "O Messenger of Allah! We were reluctant to compass round Safa and Marwa." So, Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" revealed: "Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah. So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times, should compass them round, it is no sin in them. And if any one obeyeth his own impulse to good - be sure that Allah is He Who recogniseth and knoweth." (Heifer 158) A'isha said: No doubt, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stipulated the circumambulation between them. So, no one is permitted to abandon circumambulating between them.

263-(...) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated: A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told me: The Ansar used, before they embraced Islam, along with Ghassan, to assume Ihram for (the idle of) Manat. So, they felt reluctant to compass round Safa and Marwa. That was a tradition among their fathers, i.e. whoever assumed Ihram for Manat should not compass between Safa and Marwa. When they embraced Islam, they asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that, on that occasion, Allah revealed: "Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah. So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times, should compass them round, it is no sin in them. And if any one obeyeth his own impulse to good - be sure that Allah is He Who recogniseth and knoweth." (Heifer 158)

264-(1278) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Ansar disliked to compass between Safa and Marwa, until Allah Almighty revealed: "Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah. So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times, should compass them round, it is no sin in them." (Heifer 158)

[44] Compassing (between Safa and Marwa) should not be repeated

265-(1279) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Neither The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", nor his companions compassed round Safa and Marwa but once (i.e. they offered one circumambulation containing of seven rounds).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Juraij, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned: But one circumambulation, i.e. his first circumambulation.

When he returned, I poured water from a pot over him, and he performed ablution. Then, he rode (and proceeded on) until he came to Muzdalifa, wherein he offered both Maghrib and Isha prayers together.

- 295-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: "I wished I had asked for permission of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to leave) as Sawda asked for his permission, in order that I would offer the Morning prayer at Mina, and then stone the Jamra before the rush of the people (in crowds)." It was said to A'isha: "Did Sawda ask for his permission (to proceed from Muzdalifa)?" She said: "Yes. She was a bulky slow man. So, she asked for the permission of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to leave before the people), and he gave her permission."
- 296-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Qasim, with the same chain of transmitters.

She again prayed for another period and then asked: "Has the moon set?" I replied: "Yes." So she said that we should set out (for Mina), and we departed and went on till she stoned the Jamra (of Aqaba) and then she returned to her dwelling place and offered the Morning Prayer. I asked her: "O you! I think we have come (to Mina) early when it was still dark (before dawn)." She replied: "O my son! Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave permission to the women to do so."

- 298-(1292) Ibn Shawwal (the freed slave of Umm Habiba) narrated that once he entered upon Umm Habiba "Allah be pleased with her", who told him that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent her from Muzdalifa (early before the people) at night.
- 299-(...) Salim Ibn Shawwal narrated from Umm Habiba "Allah be pleased with her": We used to do that during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", i.e. to proceed from Muzdalifa to Mina when it was still dark (before dawn). According to the narration of An-Naqid: We used to proceed from Muzdalifa in the darkness (before the dawn).

Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated, telling about the Hajj performed by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": He (The Prophet) ordered us, as we were about to put off Ihram, to offer sacrificial animals, in such a way that every group (containing of seven persons) of us would share in one sacrificial animal. That was when he ordered them to put off Ihram from their Hajj.
- 355-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We offered the Umra of Mut'a along with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and we sacrificed a cow on behalf of (every) seven persons of us, who shared in it.
- 356-(1319) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: On the day of Sacrificing, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sacrificed a cow on behalf of A'isha.
- 357-(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated that he heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sacrificed on behalf of his wives, (or sacrificed a cow on behalf of A'isha in her Hajj, according to the narration of Abu Bakr).

[63] Slaughtering camels while being fettered, in a standing posture

358-(1320) Ziyad Ibn Jubair narrated that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" came upon a man who was slaughtering his (sacrificial) camel which was kneeling down. Upon this he said to him: "Let it be in a standing posture and fettered (and then slaughter it) according to the Sunna of your Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

[64] It is desirable to send the sacrificial animals to the Sanctuary if one does not want to go himself, and it is desirable to garland them, and twisting the garlands, and their sender does not become in a state of Ihram, with the result that nothing would become unlawful for him

359-(1321) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to send the sacrificial animals from Medina and I used to twist the garlands for them; and he did not keep away from any of these things from which a Muhrim keeps away.

both" said: "An idea has occurred to me according to which I think that you should repair what was damaged, and leave the House (as such) on which the people embraced Islam and (leave) those stones (in their state) on which the people accepted Islam, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sent."

Ibn Az-Zubair said: "If the house of any one of you was burnt, he would not be satisfied until he renews it; then what about the House of your Lord? I would ask Allah (to guide me) to better choice thrice and then I would decide what to do in this matter." After asking Allah (to guide him) to the better choice thrice, he decided to demolish it. The people expected that calamity might fall from heaven on the first person who would climb (over the House to demolish it), till one ascended it and threw down one of its stones. When the people saw that no calamity had befallen him, they followed him, and started demolishing it until it was pulled down to the ground. Then Ibn Az-Zubair set up pillars and hung curtains on them (in order that the people would face them in the prayers as their Qibla, and know the position of Ka'ba). Then, the walls were raised.

Ibn Az-Zubair said: I heard A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" saying that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had the people not been close to (the time of) unbelief, and had I had the (necessary) resources to reconstruct it, I would have included in it five cubits from (the area of) Al-Hijr. I would also have built a door for the people to enter, and a door for them to exit." (Ibn Az-Zubair further added) "Now, I have the resources to spend and I have no fear from the part of the people (that they would object to that)." So he added five cubits from the (area of) Al-Hijr to it, to the extent that there appeared (the original) foundation (laid by The Prophet Abraham), which The people saw. it was upon this base that the wall was raised. The length of the Ka'ba was eighteen cubits. when this addition was made to it (in breadth), the length seemed to be small (in proportion with the breadth). For that reason, ten cubits were added to its length. Two doors were also built, one for entrance and the other for exit.

When Ibn Az-Zubair was killed, Al-Hajjaj wrote to Abd Al-Malik Ibn Marwan telling him about it, stating that Ibn Az-Zubair rebuilt (the House) upon those original foundations (laid by The Prophet Abraham) and which reliable men from among the Meccans had seen. Abd Al-Malik wrote to him: "Criticizing Ibn Az-Zubair (for what he had done) is of no significance for us. As for the addition made by him in length, you should fix it, and as for what he added from the direction of Al-Hijr, revert it to (its previous) foundation. Wall up the door which he had opened." In this way, he (Al-Hajjaj) demolished that (part) and rebuilt it on (its previous) bases.

403-(...) Abdullah Ibn Ubaid narrated that Al-Harith Ibn Abdullah came leading a delegate to Abd Al-Malik Ibn Marwan during his caliphate. Abd Al-Malik said: "I do not think that Abu Khubaib (i.e. Ibn Az-Zubair) heard from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" what he alleged that he heard from her (concerning the rebuilding of Ka'ba)." Al-Harith said: "But, I myself heard that from her." He said: "What did you hear from her?" He said that she (A'isha) told that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Your people reduced (an area) from the building of the House, and had they not been still close to the (time of) heathenism, (since they did not embrace Islam but very recently), I would have added to it what they had left out of it. If it seemed to your people after me to rebuild it, then come along with me so as to show you what they have left out of it." He showed her about seven cubits (from the direction of Al-Hijr).

This is the narration transmitted by Abdullah Ibn Ubaid. Al-Walid Ibn Ata added the following: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (resuming his previous statement): "I would have made two doors at the level of the ground, one towards the east and the other towards the west. Do you know why your people raised its (the House's) door?" She said: "No." He said: "That was out of pride so that none but whomever they wanted should enter into it. When a person intended to get into it, they let him go upstairs, and as he was about to enter, they would push him and he would fall down."

Abd Al-Malik said to Al-Harith: "Did you hear her saying that?" He answered in the affirmative. He (Al-Harith) said that he (Abd Al-Malik) scratched the ground with his stick for some time after which he said: "I wished I had left what he (Ibn Az-Zubair) had done there."

[75] What one says when he rides (and sets out) for Hajj or anything else

- 425-(1342) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set firm on his mount for a journey, he would magnify Allah thrice and then say: "Glory be to Him, Who subdued that (mount) for us, and (had it not been for that reason) we would not have been able to bear its (power and obstinacy), and to our Lord we are returning. O Allah! We ask You in this journey of ours (to enable us to do) righteousness and piety, and from the deeds whatever You are pleased with. O Allah! Make easy this journey of ours, and fold up for us its far distance. O Allah! You are the companion in the journey, and the Guardian of our families. O Allah! I seek refuge with You from the troubles of the journey, the gloominess of sight, and the evil changes in property and family (on return)." Whenever he (The Prophet) returned (from journey) he would repeat it, and add: "We are returning (as) repentant, worshipping, and praising our Lord."
- 426-(1343) Abdullah Ibn Sarjis narrated that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out on journey, he would seek refuge (with Allah) from the trouble of the journey, the evil changes on return, disgrace after honour, the curse of the oppressed one, and the gloominess of sight in family and property.

[82] Sanctifying Mecca, its games, vegetation, trees, and its fallen things

445-(1353) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: On the day of the conquest of Mecca, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no more emigration (from Mecca) but Jihad (holy war) and intentions, and whenever you are called for Jihad, you should go forth immediately." He said also on the day of Conquest of Mecca: "No doubt, Allah has made this town (Mecca) a sanctuary since the creation of the heavens and the earth and will remain a sanctuary till the Day of Judgement as Allah has ordained its sanctity. Fighting was not permissible in it for anyone before me, and even for me it was allowed only for a portion of a day. So, it is a sanctuary with Allah's sanctity till the Day of Judgement. Upon this Rafi Ibn Khadij called him saying: "Why do I see you having mentioned (the superiority of) Mecca, its people and sanctity, and did not mention (the superiority of) Medina, its people and sanctity, though The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made (the area) between its two mountains a sanctuary, as recorded in a (piece of) Khawlani parchment? If you liked, I would let you read it." Marwan kept silent (for a while, after which) he said: "I heard some of that."

458-(1362) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "No doubt, Abraham made Mecca a sanctuary, and I also make Medina, i.e. (the area) between its two stony grounds a sanctuary. So, its thorny shrubs should not be cut, nor should its game be chased."

459-(1363) Amir Ibn Sa'd narrated from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I sanctify (the area) between the two mountains of Medina, in such a way that its thorny shrubs should not be cut, and its game should not be chased." He (The Prophet) further said: "No doubt, Medina is better for them if they were to know it. There is no one, who leaves it out of dislike to it, but that Allah will place in it a better one than him. furthermore, there is no one endures its troubles and difficulties but that I will be an intercessor for him (or a witness in favour of him) on the Day of Judgement."

460-(...) Amir Ibn Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas narrated from his father from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same as transmitted by Ibn Numair, and added here: "No one, who intends to do any evil to the inhabitants of Medina, but that Allah will melt him in the fire (of Hell) as the lead is melted, or as the salt is dissolved in the water."

461-(1364) Amir Ibn Sa'd narrated that while Sa'd was riding (and going) to his palace in Aqiq, he found a slave cutting down the trees, or beating off their leaves. Upon this he stripped him off his belongings (as punishment so that he should not return to what he had done). When Sa'd returned, the masters of the slave came to him and asked him to return to their slave or to them what he had taken from their slave. But, he said: "Allah forbid that I should return anything which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has given me as spoil." He rejected to give back anything to them.

[87] Saving Medina from the entrance of the plague and Ad-Dajjal

485-(1379) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "On the ravines of Medina, there are angels in order that neither the plague nor Ad-Dajjal would be able to enter into it."

[88] Medina drives away the evil ones among its people

487-(1381) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A time will come for the people (of Medina) when a man will invite his cousin and any other near relation: "Come (and live) at (a place) where living is cheap, come to (a place) where there is abundance." But Medina will be better for them, if they were to know it. By Him in Whose Hand is my life! None among them would go out (of Medina) out of dislike for it, but that Allah would make his successor in it somebody better than him. Medina is like furnace, which eliminates from it the impurities. The Last Hour will not come until Medina drives away its evils just as a furnace eliminates the impurities of iron."

488-(1382) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I was ordered (to emigrate and then settle) in a town which would overpower all of towns. They (some people) call it Yathrib, but its real name is Medina. It would drive away the evil ones (among its people) just as the furnace eliminates the impurities of iron."

He came (for the third time) to him and said: "Cancel my pledge of allegiance." But he (The Prophet) refused. The Bedouin went away (abolishing the pledge of allegiance on his own part). Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Medina is like a furnace which drives away its impurities, while its good is purified."

490-(1384) Zaid Ibn Thabit "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is Taiba (good), meaning Medina. It drives away impurities just as a furnace eliminates the impurities of silver."

[94] The excellence of the prayer in the two mosques of Mecca and Medina (i.e. the Sacred House and the mosque of The Prophet)

505-(1394) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Verily, a single prayer (to be offered) in my mosque is more superior than one thousand prayers (to be offered) in any mosque else except the Sacred mosque."

That is because The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is the last Prophet, and his mosque is the last of the mosques."

Abu Salama and Abu Abdullah (sub-narrators in this chain of transmission) said: We had no doubt that what Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" had said was narrated by him from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and it was that, which prevented us to verify from Abu Huraira of this Hadith until Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" died. We discussed this matter among ourselves and blamed one another that we did not talk to Abu Huraira about it, so that he could attribute this narration to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" if he had heard It from him. While we were discussing it, Abdullah Ibn Ibrahim Ibn Qariz came and sat along with us. We mentioned this Hadith, and our failure (to verify of) its direct transmission by Abu Huraira from him (the Prophet), Abdullah Ibn Ibrahim said to us: "I testify that I heard Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" saying that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I am the last of The Prophets and my mosque is the last of the mosques.""

(16) The Book Of Marriage

- [1] The desirability of marriage for the one who has longing for it and can afford to it, and the one who cannot afford to it should occupy himself with observing fasts
- 1-(1400) Algama narrated: While I was with Abdullah at Mina, Uthman met him and got up with him in order to talk to him. Uthman said: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! Abdullah said: "Since you said that, (then let me tell you that) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "O young men! Whoever among you can afford to marry, should marry, because it helps him refrain his sight from looking at other women, and guard his private parts from committing adultery, and whoever cannot afford to marry, would fast, because fasting diminishes his sexual power.""

- 5-(1401) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Some of the companions of The Prophet asked his wives about what The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do (of acts of worship) privately. (When they were informed, they considered their deeds as insufficient and) one of them said: "I will never marry women forever." Another one said: "I will never eat the meat." A third one said: "I will never lie down on bed." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" praised Allah and lauded Him. then he said: "What about some people who say so-and-so? No doubt, I perform prayer (at night) and sleep, I fast (for some time) and break my fast (for some time), and I also marry women. So he, who abandons my Sunna, is not from me (not one of my followers)."
- 6-(1402) Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rejected (the idea that) Uthman Ibn Maz'un would (abstain from marrying women and) live in celibacy. Had he allowed him to do so, we would have got castrated.

[2] If one saw a woman who appealed him, he should come to his wife or slave-girl to have sexual intercourse with her

- 9-(1403) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw a woman, then he came to his wife Zainab, who was tanning a leather and had sexual intercourse with her. Then, he came out to his Companions and said to them: "Verily, a woman comes and returns in a shape of a Satan. So when one of you saw a woman (who appealed him), he should come to his wife (and have sexual intercourse with her), for that will keep away what he feels in his heart."

[10] The father gives the young virgin in marriage

69-(1422) Hisham narrated from his father that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married me when I was a girl of six (years), and I was brought to his house (and he consummated marriage with me) when I was nine years old. We went to Medina and then I suffered from fever for a month and my hair (fell down, and later on when I recovered it) grew (as long as to reach) down to the earlobes. My mother, Umm Ruman, came to me while I was playing in a swing with some of my girl friends. She called me, and I went to her, not knowing what she wanted to do to me. She caught me by the hand and made me stand at the door of the house. I kept saying "ha, ha" (since I was breathless then), and when my breathing became all right, she took me into the house, wherein some Ansari women were gathering, and they said: "Best wishes and Allah's Blessing and a good luck." Then she entrusted me to them and they washed my head and prepared me (for the marriage). Unexpectedly, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to me in the forenoon to whom they handed me over.

"Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Did you cast a glance at her? However, there is something in the eyes of the Ansar." he answered in the affirmative. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "For what (dower) did you contract to marry her?" he said: "For four ounces (of silver)." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "For four ounces? it seems as if you dig out silver from the side of this mountain (so that you have what you would pay for such a dower). We have nothing to give you. But, we may send you to an expedition where you may gain some (booty)." He sent an expedition to Banu Abs, in which that man was involved.

[13] The dower, and it might be one's knowledge of The Qur'an, and it might be (as little as even) a ring or iron, and it is desirable to be five hundred Dirhams

76-(1425) Sahl Ibn Sa'd "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: A woman came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I came to present myself to you." He raised and then lowered his sight, looking at her. Then he lowered his head. When the woman saw that he did not make any decision, she sat down. On that, a man from his companions got up and said: "O Allah's Apostle! If you are not in need of this woman, then marry her to me." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have anything to give to her (as a dower)?" He replied:" No, by Allah, O Allah's Apostle!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Go to your family so that you can find something."

Went and returned, the man said: "No, by Allah, O Allah's Apostle! I found nothing." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Try to find something, even an iron ring." He went again and returned, saying: "No, by Allah, O Allah's Apostle, not even an iron ring. But I have this waist sheet of mine (and he had no upper garment) and she might get half of it (as dower)." So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What would she do with your waist sheet? If you wear it, she will have nothing of it over her body, and if she wears it, you will have nothing over your body." Thus, the man sat for a long while. When he got up, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw him. So he ordered somebody to call him. When he came, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "How much of the Qur'an do you know?" He replied: "I know such Sura,

[14] The excellence of manumitting and then marrying a slave-girl

84-(1365) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went on an expedition to Khaibar, we offered the Fair prayer there early in the morning when it was still dark. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode and Abu Talha rode too and I was riding behind Abu Talha. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed through the lane of Khaibar quickly and my knee was touching the thigh of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He uncovered his thigh and I saw the whiteness of the thigh of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When he entered the town, he said: "Allah is greater! Khaibar is ruined. Whenever we approach near a (hostile) nation (to fight) then evil will be the morning of those who have been warned." He repeated this thrice. The people came out for their jobs and some of them said: "Muhammad (has come)." (Abd Al-Aziz, a sub-narrator, added: "With his army.") We conquered Khaibar, took the captives, and the booty was collected. Dihya came and said: "O Allah's Prophet! Give me a slave girl from the captives." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Go and take any slave girl." He took Safiyya Bint Huyai.

A man came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! You gave Safiyya Bint Huyai to Dihya; she is the chief mistress of the tribes of Quraidha and An-Nadir, and she befits none but you." So The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bring him along with her." Dihya came with her. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw her, he said to Dihya: "Take any slave girl from the captives other than her." Anas added: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then manumitted and married her.

١٤ ـ بابُ فَضِيلَةِ إعْتَاقِهِ أَمَتَه ثُمَّ يَتَزَوَّجُها

٨٤ ـ (١٣٦٥) ـ حدثني زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْب: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ ـ يَعْنِي ابْنَ عُلَيَّةَ ـ عَنْ عَبْدِ الْعَزِيزِ، عَنْ أَنَس، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ غُزَا خَيْبَرَ. قَالَ: فَصَلَّيْنَا عِنْدَهَا صَلاَةَ الْغَدَاةِ بِغَلَس، فَرَكِبَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَرَكِبَ أَبُو طَلْحَةَ وَأَنَا رَدِيفُ أَبِي طَلْحَةَ، فَأَجْرَىٰ الْغَدَاةِ بِغَلَس، فَرَكِبَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَانْحَسَرَ الإِزَارُ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَي رُقَاقِ خَيْبَرَ، وَإِنَّ رُكْبَتِي لَتَمَسُّ فَخِذَ نَبِيِّ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَلَمَّا دَخَلَ الْقَرْيَةَ قَالَ: هَنْ فَخِذِ نَبِيِّ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَلَمَّا دَخَلَ الْقَرْيَةَ قَالَ: «اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، خَرِبَتْ خَيْبَرُ، إِنَّا إِذَا نَزَلْنَا بِسَاحَةِ قَوْمٍ فَسَاءَ صَبَاحُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ * قَالَهَا ثَلاَثَ مَرَّاتٍ. قَالَ: وَقَدْ خَرَجَ الْقَوْمُ إِلَىٰ أَعْمَالِهِمْ، فَقَالُوا: مُحَمَّدٌ، وَاللَّهِ.

قَالَ: وَأَصَبْنَاهَا عَنْوَةً، وَجُمِعَ السَّبْيُ، فَجَاءَهُ دَحْيَةُ، فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أَعْطِنِي جَارِيَةً مِنَ السَّبْيِ. فَقَالَ: «اذْهَبْ فَخُذْ جَارِيَةً» فَأَخَذَ صَفِيَّةَ بِنْتَ حُيَيِّ، فَجَاءَ رَجُلُّ إِلَىٰ نَبِيً اللَّه ﷺ فَقَالَ: يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ، أَعْطَيْتَ دَحْيَةَ صَفِيَّةَ بِنْتَ حُييٍّ، سَيِّدِ قُرَيْظَةَ وَالنَّضِيرِ؟ نَبِيِّ اللَّه ﷺ قَالَ: فَجَاءَ بِهَا، فَلَمَّا نَظَرَ إِلَيْهَا النَّبِيُّ ﷺ قَالَ: «أَعْوهُ بِهَا» قَالَ: فَجَاءَ بِهَا، فَلَمَّا نَظَرَ إِلَيْهَا النَّبِيُ ﷺ قَالَ: «خُذْ جَارِيَةً مِنَ السَّبْي غَيْرَهَا» قَالَ: وَأَعْتَقَهَا وَتَزَوَّجَهَا.

Anas was asked: "O Abu Hamza! What was her dower?" he answered: "Her dower was that she was manumitted."

Anas added: "While being on the way, Umm Sulaim dressed her for marriage (ceremony) and at night she sent her as a bride to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". in this way, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became a bridegroom. He said: "Whoever has anything (of food) should bring it." He spread out a leather sheet (for the food) and some brought cooking butter, others dates, and others cottage cheese. So, they prepared a great deal of food. That was the marriage banquet of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

85-(...) It was narrated by Anas, through another chain of transmitters that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" manumitted Safiyya, and her manumission was considered as her dower. According to the narration of Mu'adh on the authority of his father: He (The Prophet) married Safiyya and gave her manumission as her dower.

86-(154) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "For the one who emancipates his slave-girl and then marries her, there would be a double reward."

87-(1365) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I was riding behind Abu Talha on the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, and my foot was touching that of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". he said: We came to them when the sun rose, and they had got out driving their cattle, carrying their axes, baskets and spades. (When they saw us) they said: "Muhammad and the army!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Khaibar is ruined. Whenever we approach near a (hostile) nation (to fight) then evil will be the morning of those who have been warned."

He (Anas) said: Then, Allah defeated them, and a beautiful slave-girl fell in the share of Dihya, whom The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" take (from him) in exchange of seven heads. Then, he gave her to Umm Sulaim, in order to embellish and prepare her for him (to marry her). (I (the sub-narrator) think he said: "and to stay the period of Iddat in her house). She (this slave-girl) was Safiyya Bint Huyai. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made her wedding banquet (containing of) dates, cottage cheese and cooking butter. Pits were dug and the leather sheets were brought and spread, in which the cottage cheese and the cooking butter were put. The people ate their fill.

فَقَالَ لَهُ ثَابِتٌ: يَا أَبَا حَمْزَةَ، مَا أَصْدَقَهَا؟ قَالَ: نَفْسَهَا، أَعْتَقَهَا وَتَزَوَّجَهَا، حَتَّىٰ إِذَا كَانَ بِالطَّرِيقِ جَهَّزَتْهَا لَهُ أُمُّ سُلَيْم، فَأَهْدَتْهَا لَهُ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ، فَأَصْبَحَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ عَرُوساً. فَقَالَ: «مَنْ كَانَ عِنْدَهُ شَيْءٌ فَلْيَجِيءُ بِهِ " قَالَ: وَبَسَطَ نِطَعاً. قَالَ: فَجَعَلَ الرَّجُلُ يَجِيءُ بِالأَقِطِ، وَجَعَلَ الرَّجُلُ يَجِيءُ بِالتَّمْرِ، وَجَعَلَ الرَّجُلُ يَجِيءُ بِالسَّمْنِ، فَحَاسُوا حَيْساً. فَكَانَتْ وَلِيمَةَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

Then the people said: "In fact, we do not know, whether he married her, or took her as a slave-girl." They said: "If he veiled her, then she is her wife, and if he did not veil her, then, she is his slave-girl." When he wanted to ride, he veiled her, and she sat on the back of the camel, whereupon, they knew that he had married her. When we came near Medina, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proceeded at a faster pace, and so did we with him. but, the she-camel (called) Al-Atba stumbled, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fell down, and she also fell down. He got up and screened her, and the women looked towards her and said: "Might Allah keep away this Jewess!"

I (a sub-narrator) said: "O Abu Hamza (meaning Anas)! Did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fall down?" he said: "Yes, by Allah! He really fell down."

87-(1428) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" said: I attended the wedding banquet of (the marriage of The Prophet with) Zainab Bint Jahsh, in which the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" served us meat and bread, and made the people eat their fill. He sent me to invite people. When he finished, he stood up and I followed him, but two persons who were busy in conversation stayed in the house after the meal, and they did not get out. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" began to visit the apartments of his wives, greeting each one of them: "Peace be unto you! How are the inhabitants of the house?" They would say: "We are fine, O Messenger of Allah! how did you find your wife (Zainab)?" He would say: "She is in a good state."

When he finished (visiting his wives) he returned, and I returned along with him. when he reached the door, he found those two men still (sitting in the house) busy in their talk. When they saw him having returned, they stood up and went out. By Allah! I do not know whether I had informed him or he (the Prophet) was Divinely revealed that the people had gone out. He returned and I also returned along with him. when he put his foot on the threshold of the door, he threw a curtain between me and him. Then, Allah Almighty revealed the following Verse: "O you who believe, enter not the houses of the Prophet unless permission is given to you." (Al-Ahzab 53)

88-(1365) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Safiyya fell in the share of Dihya in the war booty (of Khaibar). They (the people) praised her (beauty and position as the daughter of the chief of the Jews) to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "We have never seen the like of her among the captives of war." He sent to Dihya and he (requested him to take her and) gave him whatever he wanted (in exchange). He then sent her to my mother and asked her to embellish her (and prepare her for marriage). Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then went out of Khaibar until when he was on the other side of it, he halted, and a tent was pitched for him.

When it was morning Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever has surplus of provision with him should bring it to us." Some brought the surplus of dates, and others surplus of powdered barley until there became a large heap of food. They started eating from that Hais and drinking from the pool situated by their side which had the water of rainfall. Anas said: That was the wedding banquet of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

He added: We proceeded until we saw the walls of Medina, thereupon we became happy. We made our mounts proceed faster and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" also made his mount proceed faster. Safiyya was at his back, since Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made her ride behind him. The mount of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stumbled and he (The Prophet) fell down and she also fell down. None among the people looked at both of them until Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up and screened her. We came to him and he said: "We had no harm." We entered Medina where there came out the young women of his (The Prophet's) household. They looked (and incited each other to look) at her (Safiyya), showing their joy for her falling down.

[15] The marriage of Zainab Bint Jahsh (to The Prophet) and revealing the (Verse of) screening (The Prophet's wives), and what about the wedding banquet

89-(1428) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When the period of Iddat of Zainab (Bint Jahsh) had finished, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Zaid (Ibn Haritha): "Demand her hand for me." Zaid went to her, while she was fermenting her dough. When I saw her, I respected her so much that I could no longer be able to look at her, because The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioned her (offering the proposal of marrying her). I turned my back towards her, and then turned on my heels. I said: "O Zainab! until I ask my Lord for the better guidance." Then, she got up and went to her praying place. But, The Qur'an was revealed (in connection with this matter). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came and entered upon her without asking for her permission.

He (Anas) added: I saw ourselves and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" served us with bread and meat when the day rose. Then, all the people went out (of the house) except a few men, who stayed talking after the meal. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out, and I followed him. he started visiting the chambers of his wives, greeting them, and they would ask him: "O Messenger of Allah! How did you find your wife?"

He (Anas) added: indeed, I do not know whether I told him or he told me that the people (who were still in the house after the meal) had gone out. He (Anas) said: He went until he entered the house. I went to enter along with him, but, he threw the curtain between him and me. Then, the (Verse of) screening The Prophet's wives was revealed, and the people were instructed with that with which they were instructed. Ibn Rafi added in his narration (the recitation of Allah's saying): "O ye who Believe! enter not the Prophet's houses- until leave is given you- for a meal, (and then) not (so early as) to wait for its preparation: but when ye are invited, enter; and when ye have taken your meal, disperse, without seeking familiar talk. Such (behavior) annoys the Prophet: he is ashamed to dismiss you, but Allah is not ashamed (to tell you) the truth." (The Confederates "Al-Ahzab" 53)

- 90-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I've never seen The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" presenting a wedding banquet of (the marriage of) any woman (of his wives) as he presented in that of Zainab, in which he slaughtered a goat.
- 91-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I've never seen The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" presenting a wedding banquet of (the marriage of) any woman of his wives more (or better) than he presented in that of Zainab. Thabit Al-Bunani (a subnarrator) asked: "What did he present in that wedding banquet?" he said: "He served them with bread and meat (so much) until they left it (because they ate their fill)."
- 92-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married

Zainab Bint Jahsh, he invited the people to a meal. They took the meal and remained sitting and talking. Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seemed to be ready to get up, but they did not get up. When he noticed that (there was no response), he got up, followed by the others (Asim and Ibn Abd Al-A'la added in their narration) except three persons who kept on sitting. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came back in order to enter his house (but he went away again). Then they left, whereupon I set out and went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to tell him that they had departed, so he came and entered his house. I wanted to enter along with him, but he put a screen between me and him. Then Allah revealed: "O ye who Believe! Enter not The Prophet's houses- until leave is given you- for a meal, (and then) not (so early as) to wait for its preparation: but when ye are invited, enter; and when ye have taken your meal, disperse, without seeking familiar talk. Such (behaviour) annoys The Prophet: he is ashamed to dismiss you, but Allah is not ashamed (to tell you) the truth. And when ye ask (his ladies) for anything ye want, ask them from before a screen: that makes for greater purity for your hearts and for theirs. Nor is it right for you that ye should annoy Allah's Messenger, or that ye should marry his widows after him at any time. Truly such a thing is in Allah's sight an enormity." (Al-Ahzab 53)

93-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I know best of all (the occasion of) this verse of screening (The Prophet's wives). Ubai Ibn Ka'b "Allah be pleased with him" used to ask me about it. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" consummated marriage with Zainab Bint Jahsh, whom he had married in Medina. He invited the people to have a meal (of wedding) after the day had risen. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat and some people sat down along with him after (they had finished their meal and) the people had got up and left. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up and walked, and I walked along with him until he reached the door of A'isha's chamber. Thinking they had gone out, he came back and I came back with him. but, they were still sitting in their place. He returned, and I returned along with him once again (and he walked) until he reached A'isha's chamber. Then, he came back (to the house) and I came back with him. at that time, they had stood up and left. Then, he threw the curtain between him and me, and Allah revealed the Verse of screening (The Prophet's wives).

94-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married, and when he consummated marriage with his wife, my mother Umm Sulaim prepared a Hais which she put in a earthen pot and said to me: "O Anas! Go with this (food) to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and say to him: My mother sent that (food) to you and she is greeting you and saying: "That's for you, though it is little, from us, O Messenger of Allah." He (Anas) said: I went with it and said: My mother sent that (food) to you and she is greeting you and saying: "That's for you, though it is little, from us, O Messenger of Allah." He said to me: "Put it."

Then, he (The Prophet) said: "Go and invite on my behalf so-and-so and whomever you meet." He named some persons. He (Anas) said: I invited those whom he had named in addition to whomever I met. I (sub-narrator) said to Anas: "How many were they?" He said: "They were three hundred." Then Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "O Anas! Bring that earthen pot." They started entering until the courtyard and the chamber were crowded. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Make a circle of ten (persons), and let everyone eat from what is nearest to him." They started eating, until they ate their fill. A group came out (after finishing), and another group entered until all of them had eaten. He (The Prophet) said to me: "O Anas! Raise it (the earthen pot)." I raised it, and, however, I did not know whether it had more (food) when I put it or when I raised it (after they had eaten from it).

A group among them started talking in the house of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sitting and his wife was sitting, with her face turned towards the wall. That was difficult for Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". So Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out and greeted his wives. Then, he came back. When they (the people who were still talking in the house) saw that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had come back, they felt that they (by their overstay) caused him to be troublesome. Consequently, they hastened towards the door and went out entirely. Then, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came, threw a curtain and went in, while I was still sitting in his chamber. He did not stay but for a short while, when he came to me and this Verse (of screening The Prophet's wives) was revealed.

Anas said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Go and invite on my behalf (for that wedding meal) whomever you met of Muslims." I (went and) invited on his behalf whomever I met. They started entering upon him and eating and then coming out (after finishing in groups).

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" placed his hand over the food, and invoked (Allah's blessing) upon it, and said what Allah willed him to say. I did not let anyone whom I met but that I invited him, until all of them ate their fill. Then, all of them came out except a group of them, who were busy in talking. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt ashamed to say anything to them (i.e. to ask them to leave). So, he went out and left them in the house. Then, Allah revealed:

"O ye who Believe! Enter not The Prophet's houses- until leave is given you- for a meal, (and then) not (so early as) to wait for its preparation: but when ye are invited, enter; and when ye have taken your meal, disperse, without seeking familiar talk. Such (behaviour) annoys The Prophet: he is ashamed to dismiss you, but Allah is not ashamed (to tell you) the truth. And when ye ask (his ladies) for anything ye want, ask them from before a screen: that makes for greater purity for your hearts and for theirs."

فَخَرَجَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَقَرَأَهُنَّ عَلَى النَّاسِ: ﴿ يَتَأَيُّهَا ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُواْ لَا نَدْخُلُواْ بُنُوتَ ٱلنَّبِيِّ إِلَّا أَن يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ إِلَى طَعَامٍ غَيْرَ نَظِرِينَ إِنَاهُ وَلِنَكِنْ إِذَا دُعِيتُمْ فَٱدْخُلُواْ فَإِذَا طَعِمْتُمْ فَٱنتَشِرُواْ وَلَا مُسْتَقْنِسِينَ لِحَدِيثٍ إِنَّ ذَلِكُمْ كَانَ يُؤْذِى ٱلنَّبِيَّ ﴾؛ إلَى آخِرِ الآية ِ الأحزاب: ٥٣].

١٧ ـ باب لا تَحِلُ المطلقةُ ثلاثاً لمُطلِّقِهَا حتى تَنْكِحَ زوجاً غيره ويَطأها ثم يفارقها وتنقضي عدتها

الما ـ (١٤٣٣) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَعَمْرُو النَّاقِدُ ـ وَاللَّفْظُ لِعَمْرِو ـ قَالاً: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ، عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ: جَاءَتِ امْرَأَةُ رِفَاعَةَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ عَيْقِةٍ فَقَالَتْ: كُنْتُ عِنْدَ رِفَاعَةَ، فَطَلَّقَنِي فَبَتَّ طَلاَقِي، فَتَزَوَّجْتُ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَانِ بْنَ النَّبِيِّ عَيْقِةٍ فَقَالَتْ: كُنْتُ عِنْدُ مِثْلُ هُدْبَةِ الثَّوْبِ، فَتَبَسَّمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ عَيْقِةً. فَقَالَ: «أَتُرِيدِينَ أَنْ تَرْجِعِي إِلَىٰ رِفَاعَةً؟ لاَ، حَتَّىٰ تَذُوقِي عُسَيْلَتَهُ ويَذُوقَ عُسَيْلَتَكِ».

قَالَتْ: وَأَبُو بَكْرٍ عِنْدَهُ، وَخَالِدٌ بِالْبَابِ يَنْتَظِرُ أَنْ يُؤْذَنَ لَهُ. فَنَادَىٰ: يَا أَبَا بَكْرٍ، أَلاَ تَسْمَعُ هٰذِهِ مَا تَجْهَرُ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ؟! [البخاري: كتاب الشهادات، باب شهادة المختبىء، رقم: ٢٦٣٩].

١١٢ ـ (...) ـ حدّثني أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ وَحَرْمَلَةُ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ ـ وَاللَّفْظُ لِحَرْمَلَةَ ـ ـ قَالَ أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ: حَدَّنَنِي يُونُسُ، عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ: أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ: حَدَّنَنِي عُرْوَةُ بْنُ الزُّبَيْرِ، أَنَّ عَائِشَةَ زَوْجَ النَّبِيِّ عَيْقَ أَخْبَرَتْهُ: أَنَّ رِفَاعةَ الْقُرَظِيَّ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ فَبَتَ طَلاَقَهَا، فَتَزَوَّجَتْ بَعْدَهُ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَانِ بْنَ الزَّبِيرِ، فَجَاءَتِ النَّبِيِّ عَيْقَ أَغْرَاتُهُ فَبَتَ طَلاَقَهَا، فَتَزَوَّجَتْ بَعْدَهُ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَانِ بْنَ الزَّبِيرِ، فَجَاءَتِ النَّبِيَّ عَيْقَ فَطَلَقَهَا آخِرَ ثَلاَثِ بَطْدِهُ وَالنَّهِ، فَتَزَوَّجْتُ بِعُدَهُ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَانِ بْنَ الزَّبِيرِ، وَإِنَّهُ وَاللَّهِ، مَا مَعَهُ إِلاَّ مِثْلُ الْهُدْبَةِ، وَأَخَذَتْ بِهُدْبَةٍ مِنْ بِعُدْهُ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَانِ بْنَ الزَّبِيرِ، وَإِنَّهُ وَاللَّهِ، مَا مَعَهُ إِلاَّ مِثْلُ الْهُدْبَةِ، وَأَخَذَتْ بِهُدْبَةٍ مِنْ جِلْبَابِهَا. قَالَ: فَتَبَسَّمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ عَيْقَ ضَاحِكاً.

فَقَالَ: «لَعَلَّكِ تُرِيدِينَ أَنْ تَرْجِعِي إِلَى رِفَاعَةَ. لاَ، حَتَّىٰ يَذُوقَ عُسَيْلَتَكِ وَتَذُوقِي عُسَيْلَتَكُ». وَأَبُو بَكْرِ الصِّدِيقُ جَالِسٌ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، وَخَالِدُ بْنُ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْعَاصِ عُسَيْلَتَهُ». وَأَبُو بَكْرٍ الصِّدِيقُ جَالِسٌ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهُ عَالَ: فَطَفِقَ خَالِدٌ يُنَادِي أَبَا بَكْرٍ: أَلاَ تَزْجُرُ هٰذِهِ عَمَّا تَجْهَرُ بِهِ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ؟

- 113-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Rifa'a Al-Qurazi divorced his wife thrice (i.e. irrevocably). Then, Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Az-Zubair married her. But, she came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Rifa'a divorced her thrice (i.e. irrevocably)..." and the rest is the same.
- 114-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about the woman who is divorced (irrevocably) and then is married to another man, and then is divorced from him before consummating marriage with him (i.e. without having sexual intercourse with her): Is it legal for her to return then to her first husband? He said: "No, until he (the latter husband consummates marriage with her and) tastes the pleasure of sexual intercourse with her."
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters.
- 115-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: A man divorced his wife thrice. Then she married another man who also divorced her before consummating marriage (i.e. before having sexual intercourse) with her then, her first husband wanted to marry her again. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about that. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "No, she cannot marry the first husband unless the second husband (consummates his marriage and) tastes the pleasure of sexual intercourse with her, just as the first husband had done."
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah, with the same chain of transmitters.

[18] What is desirable to be said at the time of sexual intercourse

- 116-(1434) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of them says, when having sexual intercourse with her wife: "In the name of Allah! O Allah! Keep Satan away from us, and let it be far from what you bestow upon us!" then, if they are destined to have a child, Satan will not be able to cause harm to their child."
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Mansur, but in the narration of Shu'ba, there is no mention of "In the name of Allah". In the narration of Abd Ar-Razzaq from Ath-Thawri, a mention is made of "In the name of Allah." In the narration of Ibn Numair, Mansur said: I think he said "In the name of Allah."

[19] It is permissible to have sexual intercourse with one's wife from her front or from her back, but not through the anus

117-(1435) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Jews used to say that if one had sexual intercourse with his wife through vagina, but from her back, the child would have squint. So, Allah revealed His saying: "Your wives are as a tilth unto you; so approach your tilth when or how ye will." (The Heifer 223)

Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Jews used to say that if you had sexual intercourse with your wife through vagina, but from her back, and then she became pregnant, the child would have squint. So, the following Verse was sent down: "Your wives are as a tilth unto you; so approach your tilth when or how ye will." (The Heifer 223)

119-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Jabir, through another chain of transmitters. But, it was added in the narration of Az-Zuhri: "If he wished, he might (have sexual intercourse) from her back or from her front, but through one opening (i.e. vagina)."

[20] Prohibition of a wife's keeping away from lying with her husband

120-(1436) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "If a woman spent the night abandoning the bed of her husband, the angels would keep cursing her until morning." (This is a proof of the prohibition of the woman's keeping herself away from the bed of her husband, without legal excuse, even the menstruation, since menstruation is not considered as a legal excuse, because the husband has the right to enjoy of her (by having sexual intercourse with her) from behind the cloth).

- 121-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Him, in Whose hand my life is! ### [21] It is forbidden to divulge the woman's secret

123-(1437) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The worst one among the people in Allah's sight on the Day of Judgement will be a man who has sexual intercourse with his wife, and then he discloses her secret."

[22] What about coitus interruptus

125-(1438) Ibn Muhairiz narrated: I and Abu Sirma entered upon Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri, whom Abu Sirma asked: "O Abu Sa'id! Did you hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying anything pertaining coitus interruptus?" Abu' Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: "Yes. We set out with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for the holy battle of Banu Al-Mustaliq and we got captives from among the distinguished Arab women. The celibacy became long for us. Since we desired to get the ransom (for those captives), we wished to enjoy (of having sexual intercourse with those women) and, at the same time do coitus interruptus. So when we intended to do so, we said: "How can we do so before asking Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who is present among us?" We asked (him) about it and he said: "There will be no harm to you if you do not do so, for if any soul is predestined to exist to the Day of Judgement, it will exist."

- 126-(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Hibban with the same chain of transmitters, and (mentioned here that the Prophet) said: "Allah has ordained whomever he has to create until the Day of judgment."
- 127-(...) Ibn Muhairiz narrated that Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" told him: We got captives of women (during a certain holy battle), with whom we (had sexual intercourse with them, and) practiced coitus interruptus. Then, we asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that, and he said to us: "Do you do so? Do you

(17) The Book Of Fosterage

[1] Fosterage forbids what consanguinity forbids

- 1-(1444) Amra narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told her that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was with her, when she heard a voice of a man asking permission (to be admitted) in the house of Hafsa. A'isha said: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! This is a man asking permission (to be admitted) in your house." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I think he is so-and-so (Hafsa's foster uncle)." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Had so-and-so (her foster uncle) been alive, would he have been permitted to enter upon me?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes, however, the fosterage forbids what consanguinity forbids."
- 2-(...) Amra narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Fosterage forbids what consanguinity forbids."
- (...) A Hadith like the one narrated by Hisham Ibn Urwa was transmitted on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abu Bakr.

[2] The forbiddance of fosterage applies also to any paternity relation

- 3-(1445) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: Aflah, the brother of Abu Al-Qu'ais, asked permission to visit me her, and he was her foster uncle, after the order of the veil was revealed. She said: I refused to give him permission. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came, I told him of what I had done. He ordered me to admit him.
- 4-(...) Urwa narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": My foster uncle Aflah Ibn Abu Al-Qu'ais came to ask my permission to visit me...and the rest is the same, in which he added: I (A'isha) said: "It was the woman who suckled me and not the man." Upon this he (The Prophet) said: "May your hands (or right hand, the narrator was in doubt about it) be covered with dust! (i.e. you are mistaken in this understanding)"
- 5-(...) Urwa narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" that Aflah, the brother of Abu Al-Qu'ais, asked her permission to visit her after the order of the veil was revealed. Indeed, Abu Al-Qu'ais was A'isha's foster father. A'isha said: I said: "By Allah! I will not permit Aflah unless I take permission of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about him for it was not Abu Al-Qu'ais but his wife that suckled me." When

[7] Suckling of the young man

26-(1453) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Qasim narrated from his father that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: Sahla Bint Suhail came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I observe the signs (of disgust) in the face of Abu Hudhaifa, on the entering of Salim (his ally while I was in the house)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Give suck to him." She said: "Then, how could I suckle him and he is a young man?" upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled and said: "No doubt, I know that he is a young man." Amr added in his narration that he took part in the holy Battle of Badr. According to the narration of Abu Umar he (the narrator) said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" laughed.

(This Hadith is particular to the case of Sahla, the wife of Abu Hudhaifa, and Salim, who was his freed slave and then he manumitted him and made him his ally. According to most famous religious scholars, it should not be applicable to anyone else. On the other hand, it was said that she did not give suck to Salim directly from her breast, but she milked her breast in a pot or so, which she gave to him).

27-(...) Ibn Abu Mulaika narrated from Al-Qasim that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told: Salim, the freed slave of Abu Hudhaifa, lived in the house of Abu Hudhaifa and his wife. She (the daughter of Suhail, the wife of Abu Hudhaifa) came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Salim has (grown up and) attained the age of puberty like men, and he came to perceive what they perceive. At the same time, he always enters (the house) and I would be there, and I think that there is something (of annoyance lurking) in the heart of Abu Hudhaifa." Upon this The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Suckle him, and (in this way) you would become unlawful to him, with the result that what is (lurking) in the heart of Abu Hudhaifa would disappear." Later, she came back (to The Prophet) and said: "I suckled him, and what was (rankling) in the heart of Abu Hudhaifa disappeared."

Salim enters upon me. He is a (young) man, and there is something (of annoyance lurking) in the heart of Abu Hudhaifa because of that." 32-(1455) Masruq narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon me while a man was sitting with me. Abu Bakr Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" and consummated marriage with her, he intended to get out (after staying three nights with her), but, she caught hold of his garment. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "If you wished, I would spend with you more (nights), but, I would account you on that (extra time, the like of which I should stay with my wives). Indeed, one should stay seven (nights after marrying) with a virgin and three (nights) with a matron."

- 43-(...) Abd Al-Malik Ibn Abu Bakr Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Hisham narrated from Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married her...(and mentioned many things, including the following) he (The Prophet) said: "If you wished, I would spend a week with you and spend a week with each one of my wives, for if I spent a week with you, I should spend a week with each one of my wives."
- 44-(1461) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" told: If one married a virgin besides a matron, he should spend a week with her (after which he should return to his previous wife), and if one married a matron beside a virgin, he should spend three (nights) with her. Khalid (a sub-narrator) said: If I said that he traced this Hadith (to The Prophet) I would surely tell the truth, but he (Anas) said: That is the tradition.

whenever he allotted (his visits in turns) among them, he would not come back to the first except on the ninth (day). All of them used to gather every night in the house of the one whom he would visit. When he was in the house of A'isha (as it was her turn), Zainab came, to whom he stretched his hand. Upon this she (A'isha) said: "This is Zainab (and not A'isha)." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" withdrew his hand.

Then, both of them (A'isha and Zainab) quarrelled with one another until their voices became loud. At the same time, the prayer was established. Such being the case, Abu Bakr passed by and heard their voices. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! Come out to the prayer and throw dust in their mouths." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out (to lead the prayer). A'isha said: "Now, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would finish the prayer, and then Abu Bakr would come and do with me such-and-such." When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished the prayer, Abu Bakr came to her and talked to her so much harshly, and then said to her: "How do you behave like that?"

[14] Permissibility to grant one's day (she has to spend with her husband) to her fellow-wife

47-(1463) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": I never found any woman more loving to me than Sawda Bint Zam'a. I wished I were so self-possessed like her. When she became old, she granted her day (which she had to spend) with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to A'isha. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! I granted my day with you to A'isha." So Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" allotted two days to A'isha: her own day (when it was her turn) and that of Sawda.

48-(...) It was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters that when Sawda became old...and the rest is the same. In the narration of Sharik, he added (that A'isha said): She (Sawda) was the first woman he (The Prophet) married after me.

and a rider came behind me and pricked my camel with a short headed stick or spear he had with him. Then my camel started running as fast as the best camel you can see. Behold! The rider was The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself. He said: "What causes you to be in such a hurry O Jabir?" I replied: "I am newly married." He said: "Did you marry a virgin or a matron?" I replied: "A matron." He said: "Why didn't you marry a virgin so that you may play with her and she may play with you?" When we reached (the outskirts of) Medina, we intended to enter. But, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Wait until you enter (Medina) at night in order that the woman of unkempt hair may comb her hair, and the one whose husband has been absent may shave her pubic region." Then he (The Prophet) said (to me): "When you come (to your wife, have sexual intercourse with her and try to) beget a child! (Try to) beget a child!"

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came up to me and said: "O Jabir!" I replied: "Yes." He said: "What is the matter with you?" I replied: "My camel is slow and tired, so I am left behind." So, he got down and poked the camel with his stick and then ordered me to ride. I rode the camel and it became so fast that I had to hold it from going ahead of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He then asked me: "Have you married?" I replied in the affirmative. He asked: "A virgin or a matron?" I replied: "I married a matron." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Why have you not married a virgin, so that you may play with her and she may play with you?" I replied: "I have sisters (young in age) so I liked to marry a matron who could collect them all and comb their hair and look after them." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You will reach, so when you have arrived (at home), I advise you to (have sexual intercourse with your wife) that you may have an intelligent (son)."

Then he asked me: "Would you like to sell your camel?" I replied in the affirmative. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" purchased it for one ounce of gold. #### (18) The Book Of Divorce

- [1] The forbiddance of divorcing the menstruating woman particularly without her demand, and if he opposed that opinion and divorced her, he should be order to cancel it
- 1-(1471) Nafi narrated that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" divorced his wife while she was menstruating during the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Umar Ibn Al-Khattab asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Order him (your son) to take her back and keep her till she is clean and then to wait till she gets her next period and becomes clean again. If he wishes to keep her, he can do so. If he wishes to divorce her he can divorce her before approaching her; and that is the prescribed period fixed by Allah Almighty for the women meant to be divorced."

Ibn Rumh added in his narration: Whenever Abdullah was asked about that (matter), he used to say to the one (who asked him): "If you divorced your wife once or twice, then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered me to do so (which is also applicable to you), but if you divorced your wife thrice, then she became unlawful to you (to remarry) until she marries another one, and (in this way) you (would be regarded to have) disobeyed Allah in what He commanded you to do regarding the divorce of your wife."

Umar mentioned that to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became angry and said: "Order him to take her back, and let her until she gets next menses (while she is in his house), other than that during which he divorced her. Then, if it seemed to him to divorce her, he can divorce her after she becomes clean from that menses, before approaching her; and that is the divorce according to the prescribed period fixed by Allah." However, Abdullah (Ibn Umar) had divorced her once, which was counted as (valid) one for her. Then, he took her back as was ordered by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

said that to him. He replied: "No, but I was drinking honey in the house of Zainab, the daughter of Jahsh, and I shall never take it again." Then Allah revealed: "O Prophet! Why holdest thou to be forbidden that which Allah has made lawful to thee? Thou seekest to please thy consorts. But Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (Prohibition "At-Tahrim" 1) he also said: "If ye two turn in repentance to Him (meaning Hafsa and A'isha), your hearts are indeed so inclined." (4) He also said: "When the Prophet disclosed a matter in confidence to one of his consorts (meaning The Prophet's saying: "I drank honey"), and she then divulged it (to another)." (3)

21-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was fond of honey and sweet edible things. After finishing the Asr prayer he was accustomed to visit his wives and approach them. Once he went to Hafsa, the daughter of Umar and stayed with her more than usual. I asked for the reason for that. I was told that a lady of her folk had given her as a gift a skin filled with honey, from which she made a syrup and gave it to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to drink (and that was the reason for the delay).

I said: "By Allah we will play a trick on him (to prevent him from doing so)." So I said to Sawda Bint Zam'a: "The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" will approach you, and when he comes near you, say: Have you taken Maghafir (a bad-smelling gum)? He will say: No. Then say to him: Then what is this bad smell, which I smell from you? (However, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to feel it hard that a bad smell would be detected on him). He will say to you: Hafsa made me drink honey syrup. Then say: Perhaps the bees of that honey had sucked the juice of the tree of Urfut. I shall also say the same. O you, Safiyya, say the same."

When he entered upon Sawda, (and let her tell the story herself): Sawda said: "By Allah, with Whom there is no god, as soon as he (The Prophet) had stood at the door, I was about to say to him what you (A'isha) had ordered me to say because I was afraid of you." So when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came near Sawda, she said to him: "O Allah's Apostle! Have you taken Maghafir?" He said: "No." She said: "Then what is this bad smell which I detect on you?" He said: "Hafsa made me drink honey syrup." She said: "Perhaps its bees had sucked the juice of Urfut tree." When he came to me, I also said the same, and when he

[4] Giving one's wife the option of divorce does not mean the divorce itself, unless it is intended

22-(1475) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated: "When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was ordered by Allah to give his wives the choice (either to remain with him or to depart from him), he (The Prophet) started with me, saying: "I am going to tell you something to which you should give no hasty reply before consulting your parents", though he knows that my parents were not to order me to depart from him." A'isha added: "He (The Prophet) said: "Allah said: "O Prophet say to thy Consorts: if it be that ye desire the life of this world, and its glitter, then come I will provide for your enjoyment and set free in a handsome manner. But if ye seek Allah and His Messenger, and the Home of the Hereafter, verily Allah has prepared for the well-doers amongst you a great reward."" (Al-Ahzab 28:29) I said: "What is that on which I should take my parents' opinion? Of course I want Allah, His Messenger, and the hereafter." Then all of The Prophet's wives did the same as I did."

23-(1476) Mu'adha Al-Adawiyya narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": "Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to take the permission of that wife with whom he was supposed to stay overnight if he wanted to go to one other than her, after this Verse was revealed: "Thou mayest defer (the turn of) any of them that thou pleasest, and thou mayest receive any thou pleasest: and there is no blame on thee if thou invite one whose (turn) thou hadst set aside." (Al-Ahzab 51) Mu'adha asked A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": "Then what did you use to say?" she said: "I used to say to him: "Had it (the matter of option) been up to me, I would not have given anyone preference over me."

asked me for more expense. So, I stood up towards her and slapped her on the neck." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled and said: "They (my wives) are around me as you see, asking me for more expense."

Then, Abu Bakr stood up towards A'isha in order to slap her on the neck, and Umar also stood up towards Hafsa in order to slap her on the neck, and both of them were saying: "Do you ask The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for what he doesn't have?" they said: "By Allah! We never ask The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for anything he doesn't have."

Then, he kept away from them for a month, or for twenty-nine (nights), after which the following Verse was revealed: "O Prophet say to thy Consorts: if it be that ye desire the life of this world, and its glitter, then come I will provide for your enjoyment and set free in a handsome manner. But if ye seek Allah and His Messenger, and the Home of the Hereafter, verily Allah has prepared for the well-doers amongst you a great reward."

Then, he (The Prophet) started with A'isha. He said: "O A'isha! I want to offer something to you, and I like that you should not give a hasty reply to it until you consult your parents." She asked: "What is it, O Messenger of Allah?" he recited the Verse to her. Then she said: "Would I consult my parents (whether to choose) you, O Messenger of Allah? Surely, I choose Allah, His Messenger and the hereafter. Moreover, I request you not to tell anyone of your wives of that which you said (to me)." He said: "No woman of them asks me (about that) but that I would tell her (the same). Indeed, Allah has sent me neither as one who gives (the people) hard instructions (concerning religion), nor as one who asks others to do what is difficult for them to do. But, He has sent me as a tauter who facilitates (things to the people)."

[5] One's swearing to keep away from his wives, and Allah's saying: "but if ye back up each other against him, truly Allah is his Protector, and Gabriel, and (every) righteous one among those who believe, and furthermore, the angels will back (him) up." (At-Tahrim 4)

30-(1479) Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept himself away from his wives, I entered the mosque, and found people striking the ground with pebbles and saying: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" divorced his wives." That was before they were ordered to screen themselves. Umar said to himself: "I should verify of (the reality of) this matter today."

I went to A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" and said: "O Daughter of Abu Bakr! Have you reached the extent of causing harm to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" She said: "O Ibn Al-Khattab! What do you have to do with me? You'd rather be concerned with your own receptacle (i.e. your daughter)." He (Umar) said: I entered upon Hafsa, daughter of Umar, to whom I said: "O Hafsa! I was informed that you cause harm to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". You should know that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" does not love you, and had it not been for me (as being your father) he would have divorced you." She went on weeping bitterly. I asked her: "Where is Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" She said: "He is in his store in the attic room."

I went there and found Rabah, the servant of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", sitting on the threshold of the attic room, dangling his feet on the hollow wood of the date-palm, on which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to come up to and down from (the attic room). I shouted: "O Rabah! Ask permission for me from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to be admitted." Rabah cast a glance at the chamber and then looked at me but said nothing. I again said: "O Rabah! Ask permission for me from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to be admitted." Rabah cast a glance at the chamber and then looked at me, but said nothing. I raised my voice and said: "O Rabah! Ask permission for me from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to be admitted."

I thought that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had the idea that I came for the sake of Hafsa. By Allah, if The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would order me to strike her neck, I would surely strike her neck. I raised my voice and he pointed to me to ascend (and enter into the chamber). I entered upon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he was lying on a (straw) mat. I sat down, and he drew up his lower garment over him, other than which he had nothing over him. The (straw) mat left its marks on his sides. I looked with my sight in the storeroom of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and found only a handful of barley equal to one Sa and a similar quantity of the leaves of Salm tree placed in the corner of the cell, and a semi-tanned leather bag hanging (in one side).

My eyes started shedding tears (on seeing such a state of the Prophet). But, he said: "O Ibn Al-Khattab! What causes you to weep?" I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why do I not shed tears? This (straw) mat has left its marks on your sides and I see in your storeroom (nothing other than) what I have seen. On the other hand, Caesar and Khosrau are leading their (luxurious) lives in abundance of gardens and rivers while you are The Messenger of Allah, His (best) chosen one, and that is your storeroom!" He said: "O Ibn Al-Khattab! Are you not pleased that for us (Muslims, there would be the prosperity) of the Hereafter, and for them (the infidels, there would be the prosperity of) this world?" I said: "Yes."

When I entered I saw the signs of anger on his face. I said: "O Messenger of Allah! What harm do you feel from the part of your wives? If you have divorced them, no doubt, Allah is with you, His angels, Gabriel, Michael, as well as I, Abu Bakr and the believers are with you." Hardly I spoke (something) -and praise be to Allah- but that I hoped that Allah would confirm my statement that I said. Then, the Verse of giving the (right of) choice (to The Prophet's wives) was revealed: "It may be, if he divorced you (all), that Allah will give him in exchange Consorts better than you, who submit (their wills), who believe, who are devout, who turn to Allah in repentance, who worship (in humility), who travel (for Faith) and fast, previously married or virgins." (At-Tahrim 5) And: "but if ye back up each other against him, truly Allah is his Protector, and Gabriel, and (every) righteous one among those who believe, and furthermore, the angels will back (him) up." (At-Tahrim 4)

It was A'isha Bint Abu Bakr, and Hafsa (Bint Umar) who had backed up (each other) against all the wives of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Did you divorce them?" He answered in the negative. I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I entered the mosque and found Muslims playing with pebbles (involved in thought) and saying: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" divorced his wives." Would I get down and inform them that you did not divorce them?" He said: "Yes, if you so wish."

I went on talking to him until I observed that (the signs of) anger disappeared from his face, which turned to have its natural tranquility and then he laughed, and his teeth were the most charming of (those of) all the people. Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon

I said: "O Messenger of Allah! You remained in your chamber for twenty-nine days (and not for a full month as you vowed)." He said: "The month (sometimes) consists of twenty-nine days." I stood at the door of the mosque, shouting at the top of my voice: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not divorce his wives." (It was in connection with this that the following) verse was revealed: "When there comes to them some matter touching (public) safety or fear, they divulge it. If they had only referred it to the Messenger, or to those charged with authority among them, the proper investigators would have tested it from them (direct). Were it not for the Grace and Mercy of Allah unto you, all but a few of you would have followed Satan." (Women 83) However, I investigated it. Then the verse of giving the (right of) choice was revealed.

31-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: For a year I had the desire to ask Umar Ibn Al-Khattab regarding the explanation of a Verse (in The Sura of The Prohibition) but I could not do out of respect for him. When he went to perform the Hajj, I accompanied him. On our return, while we were still on the way home, Umar went aside to answer the call of nature by the Arak trees. I waited till he finished. Then I proceeded with him and asked: "O Commander of The Believers! Who were the two wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who backed up each other against him?" He said: "They were Hafsa and A'isha." I said to him: "By Allah, I wanted to ask you about this a year ago, but I could not do out of respect for you." Umar said: "Do not do (i.e. refrain from asking me). If you think that I have knowledge (about something), you would ask me; and if I know, I will tell you."

Then Umar further said: "By Allah, in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance we did not pay attention to women until Allah revealed in connection with them what He had revealed, and assigned for them what He had assigned. Once while I was thinking over a certain matter, my wife said: "I recommend that you do so-and-so." I said to her: "What do you have to do with this matter? Why do you poke your nose in a matter which I want to see fulfilled?" She said: "How strange you are, O son of Al-Khattab! You don't want to be argued with, though your daughter Hafsa argues with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" so much that he (sometimes) remains angry for the whole day!""

Umar added: "Very soon, I put on my outer garment and went to Hafsa to whom I said: "O my daughter! Do you argue with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" so that he (sometimes) remains angry for the whole day?" Hafsa said: "By Allah, we argue with him." I said: "You should know that I warn you of Allah's punishment and the anger of His Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". O my daughter! Don't be betrayed by she (A'isha), who is proud of her beauty and the love of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for her.""

Umar further said: "Then I went out to the house of Umm Salama, who was one of my relatives, to whom I talked. Umm Salama said: "O son of Al-Khattab! You seem to interfere in everything to the extent that you even want to interfere between The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his wives!" By Allah, I was influenced by her talk so much that I lost some of my anger. Then, I left her.

At that time I had a friend from the Ansar who used to bring me the news (from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") in case of my absence, and I used to bring him the news if he was absent. In those days we were afraid of one of Ghassan's kings. We heard that he intended to proceed and attack us. Indeed, our hearts were full of fear because of that. (Once) my Ansari friend unexpectedly knocked at my door, and said: "Open! Open!" I said: "Has the king of Ghassan come?" He said: "No, but something worse! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has kept away from his wives." I said: "Let the nose of A'isha and Hafsa be stuck to dust (humiliated)!"

Then I put on my clothes and went out. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was staying in an attic room belonging to him, to which it would be ascended by a ladder. There was a black slave of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (sitting) on the first step. I said to him: "(Tell The Prophet that) Umar Ibn Al-Khattab is here." Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" admitted me. I related the story in full to him. When I came to the item of Umm Salama, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled while he was lying on a mat made of palm tree leaves with nothing between him and the mat. Under his head there was a leather

He added: I (Umar) came upon the chambers (of the wives of The Prophet), and behold! In each dwelling place, there was (somebody) weeping." He also added: He (The Prophet) vowed to keep away from them for a month. But, when twentynine (nights) had passed, he got down to them.

Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I wanted to ask Umar "Allah be pleased with him" about those two women (from amongst The Prophet's wives) who backed up each other against The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". For one year I was seeking, though in vain, the opportunity to ask this question, until I set out with him (for Hajj) to Mecca. While we were in (the place of) Mar Az-Zahran, Umar went to answer the call of nature. He said to me: "Bring me a container of water (for ablution)." So I brought it to him and when he finished answering the call of nature and returned, I started pouring for him. I found it a good opportunity to ask him, so I said: "O Commander of The Believers! Who were those two women (from amongst The Prophet's wives who had backed up each other against The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him")?" Before I could finish my question, he replied: "They were Hafsa and A'isha."

performed the Hajj and I too performed it along with him. On the way Umar went aside to answer the call of nature, and I also went aside along with him carrying a tumbler full of water. After Umar had finished answering the call of nature, I poured water over his hands and he performed the ablution. Then I said to him: "O Commander of The Believers! Who were the two ladies from among the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in connection with whom Allah said: "If ye two turn in repentance to Him, your hearts are indeed so inclined" (The Prohibition 4)? He said: "I am astonished at your question, O Ibn Abbas. They were A'isha and Hafsa."

Then Umar went on narrating the tradition in full. He said: "We, the people of Quraish used to have the upper hand over our wives, but when we came to Medina, we found there people, whose women had the upper hand over their men, so our women also started learning the ways of the Ansari women." He added: "My house was at (the district of) Banu Umaiyya Ibn Zaid, at the heights (of Medina). Once I shouted at my wife and she retorted against me. I disliked that she should answer me back. She said to me: "Why do you dislike my answering you back? their horses to invade us. My Ansari companion, on the day of his turn, went (to the town) and returned to us at night and knocked at my door (violently and asked if I was there). I came out to him. He said: "Today a great thing has happened." I asked: "What is it? Have (those of) Ghassan come?" He said: "No, but it is greater and more horrifying. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" divorced his wives.""

I said: "Hafsa is a ruined loser." I had already thought that most probably this (divorce) would happen in the near future. I waited until I offered the Morning prayer. Then, I dressed myself and then entered upon Hafsa and saw her weeping. I asked: "Did The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" divorce you all?" She said: "I do not know. There he is retired alone in the attic room." I came to a black slave of his (The Prophet's) and said: "Will you get the permission (of The Prophet) for Umar (to be admitted)?" The slave went in, (talked to The Prophet about it) and then returned saying: "I mentioned you to him (The Prophet) but he kept silent." I came out and sat near the pulpit where I saw a group of people sitting around it, some of whom were weeping. I sat with them for a while but could not endure the situation, so I went (to the upper room where The Prophet was) and once again I said to the slave: "Will you get the permission for Umar (to be admitted)?" He went in and returned saying: "I mentioned you to him but he kept silent." So I turned back, (and when I was about to depart) The slave called me saying: "Get in, for he (The Prophet) has admitted you."

Then I entered and greeted The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who was Lying on a bed made of stalks of date palm leaves which left marks on his side. I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Did you divorce your wives?" He raised his head towards me and said: "No." I said: "Allah is greater! O Messenger of Allah! We, the people of Quraish used to have power over our women, but when we came to Medina we found that the men (here) were overpowered by their women. So, our women also started learning the ways of those women. Once I shouted at my wife and she retorted against me. I disliked that she should answer me back. She said to me: "Why do you dislike my answering you back? By Allah, the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answer him back and some of them may not speak to him for all the day." I said: "Let anyone of them who did so be ruined and become loser! Does anyone of them not fear that Allah may get angry for the fury of His بَلْ أَعْظَمُ مِنْ ذَٰلِكَ وَأَطْوَلُ، طَلَّقَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ نِسَاءَهُ. فَقُلْتُ: قَدْ خَابَتْ حَفْصَةُ وَخَسِرَتْ. قَدْ كُنْتُ أَظُنُّ لهذَا كَائِناً.

حَتَّىٰ إِذَا صَلَّيْتُ الصُّبْحَ شَدَدْتُ عَلَيَّ ثِيَابِي، ثُمَّ نَزَلْتُ فَدَخَلْتُ عَلَىٰ حَفْصَةَ وَهِيَ تَبْكِي. فَقُلْتُ: لاَ أَدْرِي، هَا هُوَ ذَا مُعْتَزِلٌ فِي هَذِهِ الْمَشْرَبَةِ.

فَأَتَيْتُ غُلاَماً لَهُ أَسْوَدَ. فَقُلْتُ: اسْتَأْذِنْ لِعُمَرَ. فَدَخَلَ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ إِلَيَّ، فَقَالَ: قَدْ ذَكَرْتُكَ لَهُ فَصَمَتَ.

فَانْطَلَقْتُ حَتَّى انْتَهَيْتُ إِلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَجَلَسْتُ، فَإِذَا عِنْدَهُ رَهْطٌ جُلُوسٌ يَبْكِي بَعْضُهُمْ، فَجَلَسْتُ قَلِيلاً، ثُمَّ غَلَبنِي مَا أَجِدُ، ثُمَّ أَتَيْتُ الْغُلاَمَ فَقُلْتُ: اسْتَأْذِنْ لِعُمَرَ. فَدَخَلَ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ إِلَيَّ فَقَالَ: قَدْ ذَكَرْتُكَ لَهُ فَصَمَت، فَوَلَّيْتُ مُدْبِراً، فَإِذَا الْغُلاَمُ فَدَخَلَ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ إِلَيَّ فَقَالَ: قَدْ ذَكَرْتُكَ لَهُ فَصَمَت، فَولَيْتُ مُدْبِراً، فَإِذَا الْغُلاَمُ يَدْعُونِي. فَقَالَ: ادْخُلْ، فَقَدْ أَذِنَ لَكَ. فَدَخَلْتُ فَسَلَمْتُ عَلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَإِذَا هُو مُتَّكِيءٌ عَلَىٰ رَمُلِ حَصِيرٍ - قَدْ أَثَرَ فِي جَنْبِهِ -.

فَقُلْتُ: أَطَلَّقْتَ، يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ نِسَاءَكَ؟ فَرَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ إِلَيَّ وَقَالَ: «لاَ». فَقُلْتُ: اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، لَوْ رَأَيْتَنَا، يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، وَكُنَّا مَعْشَرَ قُرَيْشٍ، قَوْماً نَعْلِبُ النِّسَاءِ.

فَلَمَّا قَدِمْنَا الْمَدِينَةَ وَجَدْنَا قَوْماً تَغْلِبُهُمْ نِسَاؤُهُمْ، فَطَفِقَ نِسَاؤُنَا يَتَعَلَّمْنَ مِنْ نِسَائِهِمْ، فَطَفِقَ نِسَاؤُهُمْ فَطَفِقَ نِسَاؤُهُمْ، فَطَفِقَ نِسَاؤُهُمْ، فَتَغَضَّبْتُ عَلَى امْرَأَتِي يَوْماً فَإِذَا هِيَ تُرَاجِعُنِي، فَأَنْكُرْتُ أَنْ تُرَاجِعَنِي، فَأَنْكُرْتُ أَنْ تُرَاجِعَنِي، فَأَنْكُرُ أَنْ تُرَاجِعَنَهُ، وَتَهْجُرُهُ إِحْدَاهُنَّ فَقَالَتْ: مَا تُنْكِرُ أَنْ أُرَاجِعَكَ؟ فَوَاللَّهِ، إِنَّ أَزْواجَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ لَيُرَاجِعْنَهُ، وَتَهْجُرُهُ إِحْدَاهُنَّ الْيُومَ إِلَى اللَّيْلِ.

فَقُلْتُ: قَدْ خَابَ مَنْ فَعَلَ ذٰلِكَ مِنْهُنَّ وَخَسِرَ. أَفَتَأْمَنُ إِحْدَاهُنَّ أَنْ يَغْضَبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهَا لِغَضَبِ رَسُولِهِ عَلِيْقٍ. فَقُلْتُ: عَلَيْهَا لِغَضَبِ رَسُولِهِ عَلِيْقٍ. فَقُلْتُ:

Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and thus she will be ruined?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled.

Then I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I entered upon Hafsa and said to her: "Do not be tempted to imitate your neighbour (A'isha), for she is more charming than you and more beloved to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled for a second time. (When I saw him smiling) I said: "Would I resume, O Messenger of Allah?" he answered in the affirmative. I sat down. Then I raised my head (and looked around) the home, and by Allah, I could see nothing of significance in his house except three hides, so I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Invoke Allah to make your followers rich, for the Persians and the Romans have been made prosperous and they have been given (the luxuries of) the world, although they do not worship Allah." Thereupon The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat up as he was reclining and said: "Are you in doubt, O son of Al-Khattab? These are the people who have received the rewards for their good deeds in this world." I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Ask Allah to forgive me." Indeed, he (The Prophet) had taken an oath not to enter upon them (his wives) for a month, because of his great anger with them and Allah admonished him in connection with this matter.

35-(1475) Urwa narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": When twenty-nine nights had passed, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon me first. I said to him: "O Allah's Apostle! You took an oath that you would not enter upon us for one month, but now only twenty-nine days have passed, for I have been counting them one by one." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The (current) month consists of twenty-nine (days)."

Then, he said: "I am going to tell you something to which you should give no hasty reply before consulting your parents". Then, He recited: "O Prophet say to thy Consorts: if it be that ye desire the life of this world, and its glitter, then come I will provide for your enjoyment and set free in a handsome manner. But if ye seek Allah and His Messenger, and the Home of the Hereafter, verily Allah has prepared for the well-doers amongst you a great reward." (Al-Ahzab 28:29) indeed, he knows, by Allah, that my parents were not to order me to depart from him." I said: "Should I take my parents' opinion in that matter? Of course I want Allah, His Messenger, and the hereafter." Ma'mar told: Urwa narrated to me that A'isha "Allah be

[6] There is no maintenance for the woman who is divorced with three pronouncements (i.e. irrevocably)

36-(1480) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from Fatima Bint Qais that (her husband) Abu Amr Ibn Hafs divorced her irrevocably, while he was absent from her. He sent to her his deputy, carrying (a quantity of) parley, which she refused. Upon this he said: "By Allah! You have no (right of maintenance) on us (so that we would give it to you after your divorce)." Then, she went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and told him of that. He said to her: "Verily, you have no (right of) maintenance with him (which he should give you)."

Then, he ordered her to spend the prescribed period of her Iddat in the house of Umm Sharik. But he said: "This (Umm Sharik) is a woman, whose house my companions might come. So, you should spend the prescribed period of your Iddat in the house of Ibn Umm Maktum. Indeed, he is a blind man, and (in his house) you could put off your garment (if you so liked to sit at ease, and he would not be able to see you). Then, if you finished (your Iddat), you should inform me."

She said: When I finished (my Iddat), I told him that both of Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan and Abu Jahm demanded my hand. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As for Abu Jahm, he does not put down his stick from his shoulder (i.e. either he nearly spends his life on journeys, or he always hits his women). As for Mu'awiya, he is very poor, and he has no property (to spend on you fairly). But, you'd better marry Usama Ibn Zaid." But, she objected to him (at first). He (The Prophet) said to her once again: "Marry Usama Ibn Zaid." He got married to him, and Allah made in him a (source of) goodness for her, and she was envied (because of him).

37-(...) Abu Salama narrated from Fatima Bint Qais that her husband divorced her (irrevocably) during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he gave her an insufficient maintenance. When she saw that, she said: "By Allah! I'm going to inform The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (of

[7] It is permissible for the one who is divorced irrevocably and she is still spending the period of her Iddat, and for the one whose husband died (and she is still spending the period of her mourning) to get out from her house during the day to fulfill her needs

55-(1483) Abu Az-Zubair narrated from Jabir "Allah be pleased with him": My maternal aunt was divorced. (during the period of her Iddat) she wanted to get out (of the house) to pluck (the fruits of) her date palm trees. But a man scolded her for her coming out. Upon this she went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said (to her): "No, you might (get out in order to) pluck (the fruits of) your date-palm trees, so that you might give in charity, or do a good favour."

[8] The period of Iddat (of a pregnant) comes to an end by delivery

56-(1484) Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utba narrated that his father had written to Umar Ibn Abdullah Ibn Arqam Az-Zuhri, ordering him to go to Subai'a Bint Al-Harith Al-Aslami in order that he might ask her about her story, and what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her when she went to him to take his opinion (regarding her marriage after she had given birth to her child, knowing that her husband had died during her pregnancy). Umar Ibn Abdullah Ibn Arqam replied: Subai'a Bint Al-Harith told that she was married to Sa'd Ibn Khawla who was from the tribe of Banu Amr Ibn Lu'ai, and was one of those who attended the holy battle of Badr. He died while she was pregnant during The Farewell Hajj. Soon after his death, she gave birth to a child.

When she completed the term of birth confinement (and became clean), she embellished herself for suitors. Abu As-Sanabil Ibn Ba'kak, a man from the tribe of Banu Abd Ad-Dar visited and said to her: "What is the matter! I see you dressed up for the people to demand you in marriage. Do you want to marry? By Allah, you are not allowed to marry before four months and ten days have elapsed (following your husband's death)." Subai'a added: "When he (Abu As-Sanabil) said so, I put on my dress in the evening and went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whom I asked about this matter. He gave the verdict that I was free to marry since I gave birth to my child; and ordered me to marry if I wished."

Ibn Shihab said: I think there is no harm for her to marry when she has given birth to a child even when she is bleeding (after the childbirth) provided that her husband should not approach her until she gets clean.

57-(1485) Sulaiman Ibn Yasar narrated that once, Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman and Ibn Abbas gathered in the house of Abu Huraira. They talked about the woman, who might give birth a few nights after her husband's death. Ibn Abbas said: "Her Iddat is the longer one of the two prescribed periods (i.e. her giving birth to a child or four months and ten days)." Abu Salama said: "(When she gives birth to a child) her Iddat is over." They went on dispute about that. Abu Huraira said: "I'm of the opinion of the son of my brother (i.e. Abu Salama)." Then, they sent Kuraib (the freed slave of Ibn Abbas) to Umm Salama in order to ask her about that. He came back and told them that Umm Salama said that Subai'a Al-Aslamiyya gave birth to a child a few nights after her husband's death. When she mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he ordered her to marry (if she so liked, since her Iddat was over).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Sa'id, with the same chain of transmitters, but Al-Laith mentioned in his narration that they had sent (a message) to Umm Salama, without mentioning Kuraib.

[9] Mourning (for one's husband) is obligatory, but it is prohibited to be more than three days for anyone else

58-(1486) Zainab Bint Abu Salama narrated: I entered upon Umm Habiba, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when her father Abu Sufyan Ibn Harb died. Umm Habiba asked for a perfume which contained yellow scent or other kind of scent, with which she first perfumed one of the girls, and then rubbed her cheeks and said: "By Allah, I am not in need of perfume, but I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for a dead person for more than three days except her husband for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days.""

(1487) Zainab narrated: I entered upon Zainab Bint Jahsh when her brother died. She asked for perfume, some of which she used and said: "By Allah, I am not in need of perfume, but I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying on the pulpit: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the last day to mourn for a dead person for more than three days except her husband, for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days." (1488) Zainab narrated: I heard my mother Umm Salama saying that a woman came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! The husband of my daughter died and she is suffering from an eye disease, can she apply kohl to her eye?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "No." (He said it) twice or thrice. (Whenever she repeated the question), he said: "No." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" added: "(She should mourn for) just four months and ten days. In the Pre-Islamic Period of ignorance, a widow among you used to throw a globe of dung after a year had elapsed" (following her husband's death, to indicate that the one-year period of her mourning was over, and now that year has been reduced to only four months and ten days).

(1489) Humaid narrated: I asked Zainab: "What does "throwing a globe of dung after one year had elapsed" mean?" Zainab said: "When a lady was bereaved of her husband, she would live in a wretched small room, wear the worst clothes she had, and touch no perfume before one year had elapsed. Then she would bring an animal, e.g. a donkey, a sheep or a bird against which she would rub her body. The animal against which she would rub her body would hardly survive. Just at this time, she would come out of her room, whereupon she would be given a globe of dung, which she would throw away. Then she would use perfume or anything else she liked."

59-(1486) Humaid narrated: I heard Zainab Bint Umm Salama saying: One of Umm Habiba's kith and kin died. She asked for (scent having) yellowness, with which she rubbed her arm. Then she said: "I only do that because I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for a dead person for more than three days except her husband for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days.""

(1487)&(1488) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Zainab from her mother and from Zainab, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", or from another one of the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

60-(1488) Humaid Ibn Nafi narrated that he heard Zainab Bint Umm Salama narrating from her mother that a woman was bereaved of her husband and her relatives worried about her eyes (which got ill). Umm Atiyya "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: We were forbidden to mourn for a dead person for more than three days except in the case of a husband for whom mourning was allowed for four months and ten days, (During which) we were not allowed to put kohl in our eyes or to use perfumes or to put on colourful clothes except a dress made of dyed yarn. But, the menstruating woman was allowed, when she takes a bath to get clean from her menses, to use a little amount of scent or incense.

(19) The Book Of Invoking Curses

1-(1492) Sahl Ibn Sa'd "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Uwaimir Al-Ajlani came to Asim Ibn Adi Al-Ansari and said: "What do you say about a man who has found another man with his wife? Should he kill him whereupon you would kill him (The husband), or what should he do? Please, O Asim, ask Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about this matter on my behalf." Asim asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. But Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked the question and considered it as shameful to the extent that Asim felt it because of what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said to him.

Then Asim returned home and Uwaimir came to him. Uwaimir asked Asim: "O Asim! What did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answer you?" Asim replied: "You brought to me no good. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked such questions and considered them as shameful." Uwaimir then said: "By Allah, I will not give up asking unless I ask Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about it."

Uwaimir came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! A man has found another man with his wife! Should he kill him whereupon you would kill him (the husband, in retaliation) or what should he do?" Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah has revealed regarding you and your wife's case in the Qur'an. Go and bring her."

Sahl told: They performed the measures of invoking Allah's curse upon the liar according to what Allah had mentioned in His Book, while I was present with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Uwaimir said: "O Allah's Apostle! If I kept her I would be a liar." So Uwaimir divorced her thrice before being ordered by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Ibn Shihab said: In this way, divorce became a tradition for the invokers of curses (upon the liar of them, husband and wife when she is accused of committing adultery).

which he implied: In this way, divorce became a tradition afterwards for the invokers of curses (upon the liar of them, husband and wife). He also added: Sahl said: She was pregnant. Then his son used to be ascribed to his mother. Then it became of Sunna that he should inherit her and she should inherit him what Allah prescribed for her.

3-(...) Ibn Shihab narrated about those involved in the case of invoking curse and the tradition of practicing it, from Sahl Ibn Sa'd, the brother of Banu Sa'ida, that a man from the Ansar came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Give me your verdict if a man found another man with his wife..." and the rest is the same, in which he added: They implemented the measures of invoking curse (upon the liar of them) in the mosque, while I was present. He also said: He divorced her with three pronouncements before being ordered by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". In this way, he separated from her in the presence of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is as such that the two invokers of curses should be separated from one another."

4-(1493) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated: I was asked about the invokers of curses during the governorship of Mus'ab (Ibn Az-Zubair) whether they could be separated (from one another after that). He said: I did not know what to say. So I went to the house of Ibn Umar in Mecca. I said to his servant: "Ask permission for me to be admitted." He said: "He is taking his siesta." But, he (Ibn Umar) heard my voice and said: "Are you Ibn Jubair?" I said: "Yes." He said: "Come in. By Allah, it should be some (serious) need which brought you here at this Hour." So I entered, and found him lying on a blanket, reclining on a pillow stuffed with fibers of date palm. I said: "O Abu Abd Al-Rahman, should there be separation between the invokers of curses?" He said: "Glory be to Allah! Yes. The first one who asked about it was so-and-so, son of so-and-so. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! Tell me: If one among us finds his wife committing fornication, what should he do? If he talks, that is a very serious thing, and if he keeps silent, that is also of similar seriousness." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept silent (for some time).

Later on, he (that man) came to him (The Prophet) and said: "I have been involved in that case, about which I had asked you." Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" then revealed (the following) verses from the Sura of

Then, he started with the man who testified (with an oath) by Allah four times that he was from among the truthful (persons), and at the fifth (oath he) invoked curse of Allah upon himself if he was from among the liars. Then the woman was called and she testified (with an oath) by Allah four times that he (her husband) was among the liars, and at the fifth (oath she) invoked Allah's wrath upon herself if he were among the truthful (persons). - 10-(1495) Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the night of Friday, we were staying in the mosque when a man from the Ansar came and said: "If a man finds his wife with a man, and then he speaks about that, you will lash him. If he kills (her), you will kill him, and if he keeps silent, he will remain angry. By Allah, I will surely ask Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that." On the following day, he came to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him: "If a man finds another man with his wife and then he talks about that, you will lash him. If he kills (her), you will kill him, and if he keeps silent, he will remain angry. (Then, what could he do?)" He (The Prophet) said: "O Allah! Show (us the right judgement concerning that matter)." Then, he started supplicating (Allah). Then the verse of invoking curse was revealed: "And for those who launch a charge against their spouses, and have (in support) no evidence but their own, their solitary evidence (can be received) if they bear witness four times (with an oath) by Allah that they are solemnly telling the truth." This man from among the people was put to trial according to this revelation. He and his wife came in the presence of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and they invoked curses. The man testified (with an oath) by Allah four times that he was one of the truthful persons, and then invoked curse (upon himself) at the fifth time, i.e. that Allah's curse be upon him if he was from among the liars. When she went to invoke curse, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Wait (and remember Allah's punishment)!" But she refused and invoked curse. When she turned away, he (Allah's Apostle) said: "It seems that this woman would give birth to a curly-haired black child." She gave birth to a curly-haired black child.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters.

11-(1496) Hisham narrated from Muhammad: I asked Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him", thinking that he had knowledge (of the matter of invoking curse). He said: Hilal Ibn Umaiyya accused his wife of committing adultery with Sharik Ibn Sahma. He was the half-brother of Al-Bara Ibn Malik, from the side of his mother. He was the first man to carry out (the measures of) invoking curses (upon the liar of the couple) in Islam. Both of them implemented (the measures of) invoking curses. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Watch her: If she delivered a white-complexioned, lank-haired and red-eyed child, then, he (such a child) should be (the son of) Hilal Ibn Umaiyya (who would be, in turn, regarded to have accused her falsely); and if she delivered a blacked-eyed, curly-haired child of thin shins, then he (such a child) should be (the son) of Sharik Ibn Sahma (and in this case she should have committed fornication)." I (the narrator) was told then that she delivered a blacked-eyed, curly-haired child, with thin shins.

12-(1497) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Once invoking curses was mentioned before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whereupon Asim Ibn Adi said something and went away. Then a man from his tribe came to him, complaining that he had found a man with his wife. Asim said: "I have not been put to trial except for my statement (about invoking curses)." Asim took the man to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the man told him of the state in which he had found his wife. The man was pale, thin, and of lank hair, while the other man whom he claimed he had seen with his wife, was brown-complexioned, with fat- shins, and he had much flesh on his calves.

I should hasten to (kill) him with the sword before that." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Listen (O people) to what your chief is saying. He is jealous of his honour, and I'm more jealous of honour than him, and Allah is more jealous than me."

17-(1499) Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba narrated that Sa'd Ibn Ubada said: "If I saw a man with my wife, I would kill him with the (sharp edge of my) sword, not with its flat side." Being informed of that, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Are you astonished by Sa'd's jealousy? Verily, I am more jealous of honour than Sa'd, and Allah is more jealous than me. For this, He has prohibited Shameful deeds and sins (such as adultery), done openly and secretly. Moreover, none likes that the people should repent to Him and beg His pardon more than Allah does. For this reason He sent the Messengers as Warners and givers of glad tidings. None likes to be praised more than Allah does. For this reason, Allah promised to grant Paradise (to the good doers)."

(...)A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Malik Ibn Umair, with the same chain of transmitters, but with a slight change.

18-(1500) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once, a man from (the tribe of) Banu Fazara came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "My wife has delivered a black child." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have (a herd of) camels?" he said: "Yes." He (The Prophet) asked: "What is their colour?" he said: "They are red." He said: "Is there any dusky one among them?" He said: "Yes, there are many dusky ones among them." He said: "How has that come?" He said: "Perhaps, it is due to a certain species to which it was attracted." He (The Prophet) said: "Perhaps, it is due to a certain species to which he (your child) was attracted."

19-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri with the same chain of transmitters. According to the Hadith narrated by Ma'mar, he (this man) said: "O Messenger of Allah! My wife delivered a black child." At that time he had the intention of denying him. He added in the end: He (The Prophet) did not permit him to disavow him.

(20) The Book Of Emancipation

- 1-(1501) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who frees his share of a common slave and he has sufficient money to free him completely, should let its price be estimated by a just man and give his partners the price of their shares and manumit the slave; otherwise he would manumit the slave partially (according to his own share)."
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Nafi from Ibn Umar from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[1] The slave's labour (to get what enables him to free himself)

- 2-(1502) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said about the slave who is jointly owned by two persons, one of whom would emancipate him (partially): "He should guarantee for him (the complete emancipation)."
- 3-(1503) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who frees his share of a common slave should free the slave completely by paying the rest of his price from his money if he has sufficient money; otherwise the slave is to be helped to work without being overburdened till he pays the rest of his price."
- 4-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Abu Uruba, with the following addition: "If he has no enough money (to emancipate him), then the price of the slave is to be estimated justly, and the slave is to be helped to work to get (the price of) the remaining share to be emancipated, without being overburdened."
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Quatada, with the same chain of transmitters, in which he said: "And the price of the slave should be justly estimated."

[2] The right of inheriting the slave is to be for the manumitter

- 5-(1504) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" wanted to buy a slave-girl in order to emancipate her. Her masters said to her: "Well, we would sell her to you provided that the right of inheriting her should be for us." She mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "Let that (condition which they stipulated) not prevent you (from buying her), for the right of inheriting the property of a slave is to be for the manumitter.
- 6-(...) Urwa narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told him that Barira came to seek her help in her writing of emancipation (for a certain sum) and that time she had paid nothing of it. A'isha said to her: "Go back to your masters, and if they agree that I pay the amount of your writing of emancipation and get the right of inheriting you, I will do so." Barira informed her masters of that but they refused and said: "If she (A'isha) is seeking for Allah's reward, then she can do so, but the right of inheriting the property of you will be for us." A'isha mentioned that to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said to her: "Buy and manumit her, since the right of inheriting the property of the slave is for the liberator." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then got up and said: "What about the people who stipulate conditions which are not present in Allah's Laws? Whoever imposes conditions, which are not present in Allah's Book (i.e. Allah's Laws), then those conditions will be invalid, even if he imposed these conditions a hundred times. Allah's conditions (Laws) are more right and trustworthy."
- 7-(...) Urwa narrated: A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told: Barira came to me and said: "I have agreed with my masters to pay them nine ounces (of silver) (in installments) one per year; please help me."...and the rest is the same, according to which the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Let that (condition they stipulated) not stand in your way. Buy and then emancipate her." Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up to (address) the people. He praised Allah and lauded Him. Then, he said: "Now and then."
- 8-(...) Urwa narrated: A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told: Barira came to me and said: "I have agreed with my masters to pay them nine ounces (of silver) (in installments) one per year; please help me." I said: "If your owners so like, I am ready to pay the whole amount now provided that your masters agree that the right of inheriting the property of you will be for me." So, Barira went to her masters and told them about that offer but they refused it. She returned, and told me of that. I scolded her. I said: "Then, Allah is with her." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard that. He then said to her: "Buy and emancipate her and stipulate that the right of inheriting her property would be for you, since such a right is for he who manumitted." I (A'isha) did so. Then in the evening, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up (to address the people). He praised Allah and lauded Him as He

What is the matter with those people who say: "Emancipate so-and-so, and the right of inheriting his property should be for us"? Indeed, the right of inheriting the property of a slave will be for him, who manumitted."

So, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her the choice, and she chose herself (i.e. to be separated from him after she had been emancipated). Had he (her husband) been a free, he (The Prophet) would not have given her such a choice. The phrase "Now and then" was mentioned in their narration.

Barira was manumitted. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her the choice (either to stay with her husband or leave him), and she chose her (freedom and separation from him). The people used to give her in charity, and she used to present to us gifts (from those objects of charity given to her). ثُمُّ أَخِبُرْتُ، أَنَّهُ لَعَنَ فِي صَحِيفَتِهِ مَنْ فَعَلَ ذَٰلِكَ.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, with a slight change of words.

20-(1370) Ibrahim At-Taimi narrated from his father: Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" addressed us saying: "Whoever thought we have anything to recite other than Allah's Book (Qur'an) and this document (hanging in the sheath of his sword), then he has told a lie. It (this paper) implies the ages of the camels (to be paid as charity or as blood money), (legal verdicts about the retaliation for) wounds. In it too, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Medina is a sanctuary from Air (mountain) to Thawr (mountain). So whoever innovates in it a heresy (concerning religion), or gives shelter to such an innovator, will incur the curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people, and none of his obligatory or supererogatory deeds will be accepted from him by Allah on The Day of Judgement. The asylum granted by any Muslim is to be respected by all the Muslims, even if it is granted by one of the lowest social status among them. Whoever claimed to (be a son of) anyone other than his (real) father, or (if a slave) belonged to others than his manumitter, will incur the curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people, and none of his obligatory or supererogatory deeds will be accepted from him by Allah on The Day of Judgement."

[5] The excellence of emancipation

- 21-(1509) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "He, who emancipated a believing slave, then Allah would release, for every organ of his (the slave's) body, an organ of his (the manumitter's) body from the fire."
- 22-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who emancipated a slave, then Allah would release, for every organ of those (of the slave's body), an organ of his (the manumitter's) body from the (Hell) fire, even his (the manumitter's) private parts (of the slave he emancipated)."
- 23-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He, who emancipated a believing slave, then Allah would release, for every limb of him (the slave), a limb of him (the manumitter) from the (Hell) fire, even his (the manumitter's) private parts for the private parts (of the slave he emancipated)."

24-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Any Muslim, who emancipated a Muslim slave, then Allah would take out, for every limb of him (the slave), a limb of him (the manumitter) from the (Hell) fire." Sa'id Ibn Marjana said: When I heard this Hadith from Abu Huraira, I went out and mentioned it to Ali Ibn Al-Husain, who immediately emancipated a slave of his, for whom Ibn Ja'far was ready to pay ten thousand Dirhams or one thousand Dinars (to buy).

[6] The excellence of emancipating one's father

25-(1510) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A son would not recompense a father (of him) except in case he finds him as a slave whereupon he buys and then emancipates him."

In the narration of Ibn Abu Shaiba it was mentioned: "A son would not recompense his father."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Suhail with the same chain of transmitters, according to which he said: "A son will not recompense his father"

 «أَيُّمَا امْرِيءٍ مُسْلِمٍ أَعْتَقَ امْرَءً مُسْلِماً، اسْتَنْقَذَ اللَّهُ، بِكُلِّ عُضْوٍ مِنْهُ، عُضُواً مِنْهُ مِنَ النَّارِ».

قَالَ: فَانطَلَقْتُ حِينَ سَمِعْتُ الْحَدِيثَ مِنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ. فَذَكَرْتُهُ لِعَلِيِّ بْنِ الْحُسَيْنِ، فَأَعْتَقَ عَبْداً لَهُ قَدْ أَعْطَاهُ بِهِ ابْنُ جَعْفَرِ عَشْرَةَ ٱلأَفِ دِرْهَم، أَوْ أَلْفَ دِينَارٍ.
